Covering The Cardinals

Game Day

Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. E-mail, mail, or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001-0888. All credentials are issued to individuals. Credentials are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379-1821)

Credential Security

The Cardinals require photo identification on season credentials. Contact the team's public relations department to make photo arrangements if you cannot provide a digital mug shot.

Credential Delivery

Credentials must be claimed in person for security purposes. If it is inconvenient to claim credentials at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe during normal working hours, they will be available with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the ticket office in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street) on game days. "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Sun Devil Stadium Media Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located at the southwest corner above the television parking pad for media holding credentials. Media members who must claim credentials at "will call" may enter the stadium in the vicinity of the ticket office located at the south end of Sun Devil Stadium off Fifth Street.

Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for an accredited sports publication or news organization. No freelance photographers are accommodated. Only authorized network television and game personnel are admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field. All credentialed grips and messengers must remain on the perimeter of the playing field.

Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting Qwest Communications (602/630-6314) for lines, and AT&T (1-800/555-8111) for instruments.

Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling-off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials. Head Coach Dave McGinnis and selected Cardinal players will hold their post-game press conferences in an interview room located directly across the hall from the team's locker room. Due to space limitations, an interview tent is erected outside the back door of the visiting locker room for the visitors' post-game interviews.

Locker Room Locations

NFL locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Arizona locker room is the first room on the right; the visitors' locker room is at the end of the hallway.

Press Box/Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no suitable path to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media are permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the northwest corner of the field. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after game participants exit the playing field. Media members are asked not to attempt to interview game participants—players and coaches—as they exit the field.

Parking

Press parking at Sun Devil Stadium is located in four places. Most media parking is located in three locations south and southwest of Sun Devil Stadium. A fourth ancillary location is east of the stadium. Parking lot maps are provided on the back of all parking passes.

FAX Service

Media requiring FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged for long-distance FAXing.

During The Week

General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve media needs, all media members are asked to report to the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility to announce their presence and obtain a credential. All media must display a media crerdentialr for security purposes. No camera tripods are allowed.

Press Releases

The Cardinals issue press releases via electronic transmissions—e-mail and FAX. Press releases no longer are mailed. To be added to the Cardinals' e-mail address book for press releases, contact the public relations office.

Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, the Cardinals' locker room is open to the media following practice during the players' lunch period. There is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside the locker room after the daily workouts and during prearranged appointments made through the public relations department.

Head Coach Dave McGinnis Interviews

McGinnis is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout, including training camp. On Mondays following games and Tuesdays, the players' off day, McGinnis conducts a press conference in the interview room in the public relations department. Contact the Cardinals' public relations staff to verify times.

Assistant Coaches/Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations department. They also are available during the open locker room period.

Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via a mid-week speaker-phone conference call, usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

William V. Bidwill

President

College: Georgetown
Hometown: Chicago, Illinois

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner and president.

The 72-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947.

His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He also was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill currently is seated on the NFL Broadcasting Committee and the new NFL Business Ventures Committee, and he co-chairs the NFL Retirement Board Trustees/Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Planned Committee.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have eight grandchildren.

Michael Bidwill

Vice President & General Counsel

College: St. Louis University
Hometown: St. Louis, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 8th

Facilitator of the Cardinals' administration is Michael Bidwill, the team's vice president and general counsel since 1996.

His leadership since joining the organization after practicing law for seven years has been visible and undeniable, leading to an array of change.

The former federal prosecutor's most visible role remains development of the new Cardinals' stadium, scheduled to open in 2006. Groundbreaking for the 63,000-seat, $355-million multipurpose facility currently under construction in Glendale, Arizona, a west suburb of Phoenix, was held April 12, 2003. Bidwill has been a driving force in community and political arenas as the vision for the eventual public-private partnership evolved from concept to reality. He will continue to oversee the team's interests in the stadium's design and construction.

The successful efforts of Bidwill and other community leaders will bring the state of Arizona a new stadium home not only for the Cardinals, but also the Fiesta Bowl and future Super Bowls while also creating revenue streams to buoy the Cactus League (Arizona spring training baseball), fund community youth recreation, and double the state's tourism promotion budget in Maricopa County.

Bidwill was instrumental in the political campaign strategy that created the dramatic come-from-behind win on election night, 2000 when Maricopa County voters approved the stadium funding plan via Proposition 302. The measure also created the Tourism and Sports Authority (TSA) that has earmarked $73.5 million over 30 years for youth and amateur sports in Maricopa County (greater Phoenix).

Already, the TSA has funded two projects currently under construction—a regional sports complex in Avondale, Arizona, and outdoor athletic fields at the South Mountain YMCA in south Phoenix.

In March, 2002, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue named Bidwill to one of the league's most prominent committees, the Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL's labor relations council charged with bargaining with the players' association.

He also serves on the newly-formed Arizona Super Bowl Bid Committee that is pursuing a return of the NFL's title game to Arizona in 2008.

In other administrative capacities, Bidwill continues to help mold the Cardinals' future.

He spearheaded the restructuring of the Cardinals' marketing and sales department in 2000 and oversaw the restructuring of the team's community relations efforts in 2001.

The expanded community outreach was acknowledged in 2003 when The (Phoenix) Business Journal recognized the Cardinals for their proactive hands-on community efforts.

Bidwill's community focus has a particular eye toward the value of youth sports.

That awareness was recognized recently when Bidwill received the 2003 Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity. Bidwill was recognized for his support of youth sports in Arizona.

Past NFL Warner Award recipients include Kansas City Chiefs General Manager and Chief Executive Officer Carl Peterson (2002), Jacksonville Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver (2001), Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt (1997), Chicago Bear Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus (1995), NFL Films President Steve Sabol (1994), NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue (1993), broadcaster and ex-Eagle Irv Cross (1982), and former team owners Joe Robbie (1984) and Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. (1985). Other past recipients include college coaching legend Eddie Robinson, former NCAA President Richard Schultz, former U.S. presidential candidate H. Ross Perot, Duke University, the University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Notre Dame.

Bidwill's impact on the Cardinals' organization has been noticed. He is a past nominee for Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40" celebrating the achievements of 40 of the top young executives in sports, and was named to The Business Journal's "Valley 100-Plus Influential," the commerce publication's listing of prominent and influential business leaders in greater Phoenix.

From 1990–96, Bidwill was a federal prosecutor in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

He received seven letters of commendation in his role with the U.S. Department of Justice from various law enforcement agencies.

Bidwill also is active in the community, serving on numerous committees and boards for a variety of Phoenix-area community and charitable organizations. Most recently, he has been named honorary chairman for the "Step Up For Youth" campaign to raise $1.16 million to double the size of the Glendale/Peoria YMCA's facilities and add new programs and services.

He holds a 1987 bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University and a 1990 law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

Born December 6, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri, Bidwill resides in Paradise Valley, Arizona.

Rod Graves

Vice President-Football Operations

College: Texas Tech
Hometown: Houston, Texas
Cardinal Season: 7th
NFL Season: 20th

Rod Graves was promoted to the newly-created position of vice president-football operations following the 2002 season after six years as assistant to the president.

In his new position, Graves, 44, assumes responsibility for all facets of the Cardinals' football operations. He continues to serve as the team's primary contract negotiator in addition to overseeing college and professional scouting efforts, assisting salary-cap management, and consulting on other business aspects of the football operation.

Graves joined the Cardinals in June of 1997 after 13 years in various personnel capacities with the Chicago Bears. He was promoted to assume responsibility for administration of the Cardinals' scouting department in May of 1998.

A native of Houston, Texas, Graves began his career in professional football personnel work in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. It was then he first crossed paths with former Cardinals' Head Coach Vince Tobin, the Stars' defensive coordinator. In 1983, Graves was promoted to assistant director of player personnel.

He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993, then director of player personnel in 1994.

During his tenure with the Bears, he worked for Bill Tobin, the team's director of player personnel and older brother of Vince Tobin, along with Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis and running backs coach Johnny Roland.

Graves, who holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Texas Tech, is the son of the late Jackie Graves, the former assistant director of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

He currently serves on the NFL's C.E.C. Working Group Committee and the NFL College Advisory Committee. Graves also is a past member of the NFL World League Committee.

He resides in Phoenix with his wife, Dreama, and her two daughters, Brittany and Taylor.

Jay Nienkark

Director of Player Administration

College: Lamson J.C.
Hometown: Lost Nation, Iowa
NFL Season: 12th

Arizona Cardinals' "capologist" Jay Nienkark begins his 12th season with the team and his seventh in his current capacity as director of player administration after a five-year tenure as a staff assistant in the football personnel department.

He also serves as the Cards' training camp coordinator.

Nienkark is one of seven members of the NFL Management Council's Club Services Committee, which has helped developed new systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management, and information management.

The 39-year-old Nienkark utilizes his management, accounting, and computer background to serve as a foundation for negotiating player contracts, salary cap projections, implementing analysis methods for salary and player information for the Cardinals and around the NFL, analyzing league rookie pool and free agency trends, and compliance with the NFL collective bargaining agreement and player personnel rules.

Nienkark also assisted in the design and implementation of the Cardinals' computerized professional scouting system.

Born and raised in Lost Nation, Iowa, population 500, Nienkark was forced to concentrate on baseball and basketball at Lost Nation High School, a school too small to field a football team.

Nienkark later served in the U.S. Air Force from 1986–90. Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1992, Nienkark held positions with Lamson (Ariz.) Junior College, Valley National Bank, and Circle K Corporation.

Nienkark holds an associate's degree in applied science in microcomputer operations from Lamson.

He lives in Chandler, Arizona with his wife, Julie, and their daughters, Brooke and Lauren.

Pro Personnel Assistant

College: Rice
Hometown: Dallas, Texas
Cardinal Season: 5th
NFL Season: 6th

Rodd Newhouse begins his fifth season with the Cardinals as the club's pro personnel assistant, responsible for overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, providing input into the club's personnel evaluation and decision-making process, handling matters involving the waiver procedure and free agent signings, and advance scouting of future opponents.

Following his collegiate football career as a running back at Rice University where he earned degrees in economics, managerial studies, and sports management, Newhouse signed briefly as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998.

In the spring and fall of 1998, he worked for the Dallas Cowboys as an assistant to his father, Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' player programs director, who played for Dallas from 1972–83 and was a member of three Super Bowl teams. The younger Newhouse facilitated various player community programs and monitored career development opportunities.

In the fall of 1998, Newhouse worked with the National Football League Management Council, NFL Properties (the league's marketing arm), and NFL Security.

As a member of the Management Council staff, Newhouse worked in the area of player programs and labor relations where he helped develop programs in continuing education and financial and career advancement for NFL players, spouses, and their families. He also helped monitor the league's salary cap reconciliation through analysis of contract negotiations and legalities as it pertained to the collective bargaining agreement, and was responsible for preparation of the data base for players obtained by the new Cleveland Browns' franchise via the expansion draft.

As a collegian at Rice, Newhouse gained 484 yards rushing and scored two touchdowns on 95 carries in 44 games (14 starts). He also caught five passes for 135 yards, including a career-long 62-yarder against Ohio State as a junior, and returned seven kickoffs for 114 yards.

Born May 21, 1975 in Dallas, Newhouse, who was selected to the under-16 U.S. National regional soccer team as a teenager, attended Lake Highlands High School in Dallas. His father, Robert, a former standout running back for the Dallas Cowboys, currently serves the Cowboys as director of player programs. His brother, Reggie, Baylor's career receiving leader, signed with the Cardinals as a free agent following the 2003 NFL Draft.

He resides in Chandler, Arizona.

Jim Stanley

Pro Personnel Assistant

College: Texas A&M
Hometown: Lynch, Kentucky
Cardinal Season: 9th
NFL Season: 21st

Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (O.S.U.), begins his ninth season in scouting after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983–84, he compiled a 22–14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12–6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He was defensive backs coach in 1979 for the New York Giants and from 1980–82 with the Atlanta Falcons.

As the six-year (1973–78) head coach at O.S.U., the Cowboys posted a 35–33–2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9–3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at O.S.U.

Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971–72), the U.S. Naval Academy (1969–70), and O.S.U. (1963–68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959–60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew.

Jerry Hardaway

Scout

College: Southern Illinois
Hometown: Memphis, Tennessee
Cardinal Season: 15th
NFL Season: 16th

Jerry Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, returns to regional scouting in 2003 after four years as the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator.

Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 16th season with the Cardinals with primary responsibility for scouting the East.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984–86) where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978–83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special-teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49–14–4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975–77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tennessee in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, California prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason and a daughter, Jheri. They reside in Cary, N.C.

George Belu

Scout

College: Ohio University
Hometown: Lorain, Ohio
Cardinal Season: 3rd
NFL Season: 3rd

Veteran college football coach George Belu shifted career gears in 2001 when he joined the Cardinals' scouting staff.

In 2003, Belu will cover the North and Southeast sectors of the United States.

Belu, a 36-year coaching veteran who broke into the profession in 1965, was the offensive coordinator at five schools and offensive line coach at six universities.

His coaching highlights include an 11-win season and Tangerine Bowl appearance at Miami (O.) in 1973, a Big Eight Conference title and two bowl appearances at Colorado, an Orange Bowl trip at Louisiana State, and an Atlantic Coast Conference (A.C.C.) championship at North Carolina State.

His coaching pedigree was shaped by serving on the staffs of an impressive list of head coaches—Jim Caldwell (Wake Forest), John Cooper (Ohio State), Bill Mallory (Indiana, Colorado, and Miami, O.), Keith Piper (Denison), and Jerry Stovall (Louisiana State).

Belu spent the 2000 season at Ohio State as offensive line coach when the Buckeyes appeared in the Outback Bowl.

Prior to his brief stay in Columbus, he was the running-game coordinator at Wake Forest from 1997–99 during a resurgence in the Winston-Salem, North Carolina school's football fortunes. Under Belu's tutelage, the Demon Deacons' rushing attack made the second biggest improvement in A.C.C. history, jumping from 65.4 yards per game in 1998 to 175.7 yards per outing in 1999.

Unexpectedly, the Deacons ranked 31st nationally in rushing yardage in '99 and recorded the highest rushing totals by a Wake Forest team since 1984. In the process, Belu helped the Deacons earn a bowl bid for only the fifth time in school history (23–3 victory over Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl) and notch their first winning season since 1992.

Before landing at Wake Forest, Belu spent 13 seasons at Indiana as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The Hoosiers appeared in six postseason games (All-American Bowl, Copper Bowl, Independence Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Peach Bowl twice) during Belu's tenure.

Individuals also excelled for Belu in Bloomington. Running back Anthony Thompson, a three-year Cardinal who was the team's second-round draft choice in 1990, led the Big Ten Conference in rushing for two consecutive seasons, was named the conference most valuable player by the Chicago Tribune, and was runner-up for the 1989 Heisman Trophy.

Belu's lengthy stay at Indiana was preceded by stops at Louisiana State (1980–83), North Carolina State (1979), Colorado (1974–78), Miami (1973), and Denison (1968–72).

During Belu's tenures, Louisiana State reached the Orange Bowl in 1982, N.C. State won the A.C.C. title in 1979, Colorado was co-champion of the Big Eight Conference in 1976 and earned bids to the Orange (1976) and Astro-Bluebonnet (1975) bowls, and Miami's 11–0 squad won the Mid-American Conference championship and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl in 1973.

Belu, a Lorain, O. native who holds bachelor of science and master of education degrees from Ohio University, is a member of the Lorain Football Sports Hall of Fame.

He has been married to his high school sweetheart, Janet, since 1961. They have two sons, David and Thomas, two daughters, Kathleen and Rebecca, and five grandchildren.

George Boone

Scout

College: Kentucky
Hometown: Louisville, Kentucky
Cardinal Season: 27th
NFL Season: 33rd

George Boone, a long-time fixture in the Cardinals' scouting department, rejoined the team in 2001 after a nine-year hiatus. In 2003, he will cross check evaluations of the Cardinals' scouting staff and offer additional study of top collegiate players.

Prior to rejoining the Cardinals, Boone spent six years with the Indianapolis Colts, serving the team as director of player personnel (1994–97) and director of college scouting (1998–99).

Boone previously spent 24 years with the Cardinals' organization, serving as director of player personnel from 1973–91 when he oversaw the club's scouting and drafting operations, directed the team's full-time scouts, and managed involvement with the National Scouting Combine, a personnel organization utilized by most NFL teams to pool scouting reports.

Before joining the Cardinals, Boone held a scouting position with the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams. He worked three years for CEPO before accepting the assistant player personnel director's post with the Cardinals in 1968.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Boone is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957–59. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky where he also served as an assistant football coach for six years (1960–65).

He and his wife, Dedee, the parents of five grown children, reside in Phoenix.

Jim Carmody

Scout

College: Tulane
Hometown: Shreveport, Louisiana
Cardinal Season: 9th
NFL Season: 9th

Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his ninth season as a scout for the Cardinals.

In 2003, Carmody will primarily serve as a cross-checker of players in the Western area of the United States.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carmody completed a three-year (1992–94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994, his second stint at Ole Miss.

Before rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961–62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964–66.

He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967–73, and the defensive line at Ole Miss from 1974–77 before the Rebels promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975–77). He later spent 1978–80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37–29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6–3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989–90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris.

Bill Dekraker

Scout

College: Old Dominion
Hometown: Fairfax, Virginia
Cardinal Season: 4th
NFL Season: 8th

Bill Dekraker begins his fourth season as a member of the Cardinals' scouting staff. His primary area of responsibility will be the West after covering the Northeast since joining the Cardinals in 2000 following three seasons as a scouting assistant for the Carolina Panthers.

While with Carolina, Dekraker worked on draft preparation, attended workouts, and updated a new pro personnel computer program for the Panthers.

Prior to his time in Carolina, Dekraker spent one and one-half years at Indiana University as a recruiting assistant, where he took part in organizing recruiting visits, and worked with professional scouts visiting the school.

Dekraker also served as a scouting intern for the Washington Redskins from December 1995-January, 1997. His responsibilities in Washington included reviewing videos of draft prospects, charting plays during games, assisting with film breakdown, and coordinating training camp.

Before his time with the Redskins, Dekraker, a 1995 graduate of Old Dominion with a bachelor's degree in sports management, served in a variety of capacities with the Hampton Roads Sharks minor league football team and the National Hockey League's Washington Capitals.

He resides in Manassas, Virginia with his wife, Mariela.

Steve Keim

Scout

College: North Carolina State
Hometown: Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
Cardinal Season: 5th
NFL Season: 5th

Steve Keim enters his fifth season with the Cardinals after joining the club in May, 1999 as a regional scout.

Formerly the Cards' scout in the East, Keim will primarily cross-check evaluations of players in the East one-half of the United States.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, Pennsylvania and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Bob Mazie

Scout

College: Waynesburg College
Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
Cardinal Season: 10th
NFL Season: 10th

Bob Mazie, with 38 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his 10th year as a regional scout for the Cardinals. His primary areas of responsbility are the Midwest and Southwest.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh from 1958–63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1965–66 as an assistant coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State, the first of two stints at the Weatherford, Oklahoma school, prior to a five-year tour (1967–71) at Southern Illinois (S.I.U.) as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter was the Cards' offensive line coach from 1996–97.

Mazie left S.I.U. to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6–4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972–75, first as an assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season mark of 1,992 passing yards.

Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1978, compiling a 38–38–2 (.500) composite slate over eight seasons that would have read 44–32–2 (.577), but a player ruled ineligible at the end of the 1981 season dropped that year's 9–2 record to 3–8. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense five times (1978–79, '82–83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference and all-state at tight end and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, playing for the U.S. Army service team, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961–62, and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters and a son. They have 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Lonnie Young

Scout

College: Michigan State
Hometown: Flint, Michigan
Cardinal Season: 7th
NFL Season: 13th

Lonnie Young, a 11-year NFL veteran with three teams, including six as a Cardinal safety (1985–90), is the newest member of Arizona's scouting department. His primary area of responsibility will be the Northeast.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the 12th round (325th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft, Young played in 150 NFL games (97 starts) with the Cardinals (1985–90), N.Y. Jets (1991–93, '95), and San Diego Chargers (1994). His professional statistics included 720 total tackles (540 solos), 11 pass interceptions, 14 fumble recoveries, 9 forced fumbles, 44 pass deflections, and 2 quarterback sacks.

Young attended Beecher High School in his native Flint, Michigan and was a two-year starting cornerback at Michigan State where his roommate was former N.Y. Giant linebacker Carl Banks.

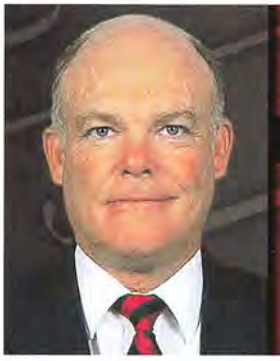
After an outstanding college career for the Spartans, Young earned all-rookie notice in 1985 when he led all Cardinal defensive backs with three interceptions and added 92 tackles and six pass deflections as a 10-game starter. He was the team's starting free safety for 72 of his 82 games in a Cardinal uniform, logging 470 tackles, 8 interceptions, and 8 fumble recoveries.

He was an honorable mention all-pro for the Cardinals in 1988.

Prior to the start of the 1991 season, Young was traded to the N.Y. Jets for a ninth-round draft pick. He was the Jets' starting free safety for the next two seasons. After spending 1994 with San Diego as a member of the Chargers' AFC championship squad but inactive for the postseason and Super Bowl XXIX, Young returned for two final seasons with the Jets from 1995–96.

Following his retirement as a player after the 1996 season, Young has worked in private business and last year served as a personnel scout for the N.Y. Jets.

Young resides in Holbrook, New York.



John Omohundro

Head Trainer

College: Wyoming
Hometown: Salt Lake City, Utah
Cardinal Season: 37th
NFL Season: 37th

John Omohundro, the NFL's senior trainer, begins his 37th season with the Cardinals and his 33rd campaign as the team's head trainer.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, gained notoriety in 1993 when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Gene Freese, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, and performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961–62. He spent 1962–65 in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967–70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976–82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

In 1999, Seton Catholic High School in Chandler, Arizona honored Omohundro's support and fund-raising efforts for the school's baseball program by naming its field "John Omohundro Field."

Omohundro, wife Martha, sons John and Jim, and daughter Neely, reside in Tempe, Arizona.

Jim Shearer

Assistant Trainer

College: Wyoming
Hometown: Worland, Wyoming
Cardinal Season: 30th
NFL Season: 30th

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 30th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973–74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. They reside in Tempe, Arizona.

Jeff Herndon

Assistant Trainer

College: Missouri
Hometown: Boone County, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 18th
NFL Season: 18th

Jeff Herndon enters his 18th season on the Cardinals' training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

The Boone County, Missouri native first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985–86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elsabeth Marie.

Mark Ahlemeier

Equipment Manager

College: Florissant Valley
Hometown: St. Louis, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 23rd
NFL Season: 23rd

Mark Ahlemeier enters his 17th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding 21-year equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987. He had served as Simmons' assistant for six years.

Ahlemeier was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Patti, have three children—daughters Mandy and Molly, and son Mark. They live in Tempe, Arizona.

Steve Christensen

Assistant Equipment Manager

College: New Mexico State
Hometown: St. Cloud, Minnesota
Cardinal Season: 16th
NFL Season: 16th

Steve Christensen enters his 16th year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark A hlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

The father of one daughter, Kelsey, Christensen resides in Chandler, Arizona.

Benny Greenberg

Video Director

College: Washington (Mo.)
Hometown: St. Louis, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 38th
NFL Season: 38th

The 2003 season marks Benny Greenberg's 38th year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

In 2001, Greenberg was an instrumental cog in the transition from videotape to digital practice and game footage.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg owned and operated photography stores until the team's move to Arizona in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work for the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons, Mark and Barry, and four grandchildren.

COACHES

Dave McGinnis

Head Coach

College: Texas Christian
Hometown: Snyder, Texas
Head Coach Season: 3rd
Cardinal Season: 8th
NFL Season: 18th

Dave McGinnis, although born in Independence, Kansas (August 7, 1951), is a west Texan (and dang proud of it), complete with wit, charm, drawl, and blunt, dad-gum honesty. He is rooted in the small-town values instilled by a childhood in Snyder, Texas, located, as he characteristically phrases it, "30 miles northwest of Sweetwater, 44 miles south of Post, 26 miles west of Rotan, and 15 miles due east of Gail."

Sure thing, coach!

He is a man of simple tastes (Mexican food chased with Diet Dr. Pepper, music from country to jazz, regular exercise, a good laugh, golf, travel that includes vacations in—get this—Timpson, Texas, reading "anything and everything," and high school football games) and deep convictions (faith, family, work ethic, and common decency).

He's dynamic, organized, personable, assertive, polished, and, what else, homespun. He's also a Frog. (More on that later.)

He communicates, motivates, and tackles life—and his football team—with zeal and passion. He is all about the fiber and fabric of the sport he loves.

McGinnis is all these things and more, and since December 18, 2000, he also is a head coach in the National Football League!

Cardinals' President William V. Bidwill began and ended the search for his team's 32nd head coach with a no-doubt-about-it glance down the hall when he lassoed McGinnis, fulfilling a career-long dream of the Cards' respected five-year defensive coordinator.

In McGinnis, the Cardinals hitched their wagon to a born leader.

So You Wanna Be A Head Coach!

What McGinnis did with patented zest in his first two years as a head coach is simple: He revived a franchise by infusing passion and enthusiasm into the team and its community.

He has led throughout!

McGinnis pushed the right buttons as he embarked on his head-coaching career in 2001. His first order of business, a roster makeover, was swift and decisive. When his paring was complete, an undaunted McGinnis fielded the NFL's youngest team, one that averaged 25.2 years of age/3.3 years of NFL experience on opening day. Nearly two-thirds of the roster that included 13 rookies (eight draft picks, five free agents) and 18 new faces from the 2000 opening-day roster offered three years or less of NFL experience. Thirteen rookies were the team's most since 1988. Seven rookies started at least one game!

McGinnis overhauled the offense, and improvement was immediate. Behind the NFL's largest offensive line, averaging 6–5.5 inches and 326.6 pounds, the unit committed only 14 pass interceptions and 27 total turnovers (14 interceptions/13 lost fumbles), a team low in a 16-game season. The Cards went consecutive games without a turnover for the first time since 1982 (307 games). A 45-point outburst against Detroit was Arizona's highest scoring output since 1977 (332 games). The Cards suffered only 29 quarterback sacks, the franchise's fewest in a 16-game season. And 10 rushing touchdowns bettered nine other teams—Atlanta, Buffalo, Carolina, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, New Orleans, and Philadelphia.

The Cardinals' defense, McGinnis' specialty, entered 2001 with little fanfare and its share of detractors following the off-season departures of two Pro Bowlers—cornerback Aeneas Williams and defensive end Simeon Rice—and five other linemen—Andre Wadsworth, Mark Smith, Brad Ottis, Corey Sears, and Tony McCoy—who made starts a year earlier. McGinnis and his first defensive staff instead fielded a spirited, selfless, unheralded unit that acquitted itself consistently throughout the season.

The surprising Cardinal defenders allowed fewer yards (5,685–5,737), significantly fewer rushing yards (2,087–2,609), and most importantly, fewer points (343–443) and touchdowns (39–52) than the 2000 unit featuring the high-profile veterans. The 343 opponent points were the fewest allowed by Arizona since 1994 (267).

Arizona's defense scored five touchdowns, a feat accomplished only four other times since 1960 (1995, '87, '64, '61) in franchise history.

Arizona held 11 opponents to 20 points or less, a team best since 1994 (13 opponents).

The Cardinal defense also teamed with quarterback Jake Plummer's resurgence to produce a plus-three interception differential (14 thrown/17 made), a squad best since 1994 (19 thrown/23 made).

Ten opponent rushing touchdowns were the second fewest against the Cardinals in a 16-game season (7, 1994).

The defensive improvement was all the more remarkable considering the constant flux of personnel. Arizona fielded 14 different starting defensive combinations in 16 games—seven front fours, four sets of linebackers, and seven defensive secondaries!

Overall, Arizona was flagged for only 72 penalties (620 yards), the fifth lowest total in the NFL and the second fewest in the NFC. The 620 penalty yards were the NFC low.

Inexperience and growing pains brought only two victories in the first eight outings, but the season's second half was a totally different story when only 17 points separated the Cardinals from a perfect 8–0 slate.

In all, the season was typical of any growth spurt—youthful mistakes leading to maturation providing optimism and promise for the future. The Cards more then doubled their victory total from the previous season and flirted with more in an assortment of tantalizing near-misses.

"What we did with the NFL's youngest team bodes well for the future," was McGinnis' simple assessment following his first season as a head coach.

He was proving prophetic at the outset of 2002, again pushing the right buttons, again fielding one of the NFL's youngest teams.

The Cards won four of their first six assignments. They jumped to a 3–2 start, the first time since 1991 they sported a record over .500 five games into a season. The next week they improved to their first 4–2 start since 1988.

The Cardinals, a new member of the National Football Conference Western Division in the realigned NFL, headed to San Francisco the eighth week of the season for a first-place showdown with the 49ers. Besides a 38–28 loss, Arizona began to suffer a stunning progression of injuries, primarily on offense, that spelled defeat in nine of the final 10 contests.

Arizona lost 95 starter and replacement starter games to injury, most on offense and most during the season's second half. By the campaign's end, there were 16 players on reserve lists. By comparison, the Cards lost just 60 starter games to injury in 2001 when there were only 10 players on "injured reserve."

By the time Arizona traveled to Denver for the 2002 regular-season finale, the Cardinals faced the Broncos without their top four wide receivers, four of their five starting offensive linemen, the regular running back, and two defensive backs.

In all, 41 players started games for the 2002 Cardinals.

Pedigree

The sports-minded McGinnis—he excelled in football and baseball for the Snyder High School Fighting Tigers, became an avid golfer, and remains a regular exerciser—gravitated to football quickly and comfortably, like his favorite pair of blue jeans. It became his first love. A childhood in football-mad Texas does that to a kid.

En route to the Cardinals, McGinnis played for or coached under the likes of Jim Dickey (Kansas State), NFL legend and television personality Mike Ditka (Chicago Bears), Al Onofrio (Missouri), Jim Pittman (Texas Christian), Dennis Raetz (Indiana State), Jim Shofner (T.C.U.), Vince Tobin (Missouri, Bears, Cardinals), and Miami Dolphins' Head Coach Dave Wannstedt (Bears).

Yet, McGinnis still credits his high school football and baseball coach, Speedy Moffett, for instilling the tenets he has followed throughout his athletic career. It's a Texas thing.

"He preached the necessity of putting your values and goals in direct line with the values and goals of your team," McGinnis lauds.

"Mac," as he had become known to friends and associates, was rewarded with a football scholarship to—here comes the Frog part—Texas Christian University (T.C.U.), the Horned Frogs! A defensive back, McGinnis was a two-year starter (1971–72) and three-time letterman (1970–72). His five interceptions as a junior tied for the team lead. He also earned a bachelor's degree in business administration.

The Coaching Climb

McGinnis spent the first 13 years of his coaching career in the collegiate ranks, beginning at his alma mater, T.C.U., as a graduate assistant from 1973–74. In 1975, he moved to Missouri, first as a graduate assistant (1975), then as defensive backs coach (1976–77). After a stay at Indiana State as secondary coach that began in 1978, McGinnis returned to T.C.U. in 1982 for one season as defensive backfield coach before joining Kansas State as defensive ends and linebackers coach from 1983–85.

Da Bears

By 1986, professional football came calling in the form of the unforgettable Chicago Bears, fresh from their dominating Super Bowl-championship season of 1985.

McGinnis had landed in the lap of perhaps the most memorable collection of athletes and characters in NFL history. Behind the team's success and swagger, the principals—Ditka's high-profile nucleus of front-line players included Richard Dent, Gary Fencik, Dan Hampton, Wilber Marshall, Jim McMahon, Steve McMichael, Walter Payton, Mike Singletary, Otis Wilson, et al—blended into a complicated labyrinth of ability, ego, independence, and style that accelerated the learning curve of the young, ascending coach.

McGinnis spent 10 seasons (1986–95) coaching the Bears' linebackers, a span that included nine playoff games. In his decade with the Bears, the Chicago defense ranked among the top six teams in fewest yards allowed seven times. McGinnis also was part of a defensive staff that led the NFL in fewest points allowed in 1986 (then NFL-record low of 187) and 1988 and ranked first or second in total defense from 1986–88.

In addition, McGinnis coached Pro Bowl players at all three linebacker positions—outside linebackers Wilson and Marshall, and middle linebacker Singletary, a 1998 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee who made the Pro Bowl every season under McGinnis' tutelage.

Chicago also blessed him with two relationships that have enriched his life immeasurably—marriage to the former Kim Kvasnicka, who caught his eye at Kansas State, and a life-long bond with Singletary, who McGinnis feels is the toughest and most inspirational player he has coached.

Finding A Home In The Desert

McGinnis was pried from Chicago by Tobin in 1996 to join his first Cardinal coaching staff. "Mac" relished his first opportunity to coordinate an NFL defense and grow professionally.

McGinnis' first year at the Cardinals' defensive controls produced a unit that climbed from 26th overall in 1995 to 21st in '96, allowed nine fewer touchdowns, and fought its way from last in the NFL against the run (140.6 yards per game) in 1995 to 21st (116.4) in '96. In addition, Card opponents gained almost one full yard less per rushing attempt than in '95 (4.5–3.6) as eight of 16 Arizona opponents failed to crack 100 yards rushing.

In 1997, the Cards' third-down success on defense was noteworthy. Arizona's defenders held opponents to just 76 third-down conversions, second in the NFC to Tampa Bay (75), and allowed only one conversion in 27 third-and-long (11 or more yards) tries.

Consequently, the '97 Cardinal defense forced more punts—94—than all but three other teams (Detroit-97, Dallas-95, and Washington-95), and 36 percent more than 1996 (69 punts).

In addition, Arizona's defense yielded only 4.85 yards per pass on third down, an improvement of over a yard and one-half compared to 1996 (6.46 yards per third-down passing play).

The 1998 Cardinal defense helped lead the Cardinals into postseason play with 39 takeaways, trailing only NFC champion Atlanta (44) and Seattle (42) and nearly doubling Arizona's total from the previous season. Fielding 11 different starting lineups in 16 regular-season games, the unit finished with three rookie or first-year starters and only four 16-game starters.

Attrition in the trenches hampered Arizona's overall 1999 defense, yet the group ranked ninth in the NFL against the pass, allowing only 197.3 air yards per game. His latest linebacking protegee, Ronald McKinnon, became the first 200-tackle defender in Cardinal history.

In 2000, the wheels came off. Seven games into the season, Bidwill looked to McGinnis to shepherd the team—and franchise—through what remained of the 3–13 shipwreck season as interim head coach.

He immediately appointed defensive backs coach Larry Marmie coordinator of the Cards' defense that was decimated by injuries, fielding 10 different starting alignments in its front seven. Only four defenders started every game.

The results were humbling, but the undaunted McGinnis found opportunity in adversity. A near-miss 21–10 loss to playoff-bound New Orleans on October 29 in McGinnis' first game at the Cards' helm set the stage for dramatics the following week.

As Maricopa County pondered the future of the Cardinals via its vote on a new stadium two days later, McGinnis led the Cards against the Washington Redskins and emerged with his first head-coaching victory in an emotional 16–15 upset victory. Poetically, the victory was sparked by Arizona's defense, primarily cornerback Aeneas Williams' NFL record-tying 104-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

The victory is credited with playing a significant role in Proposition 302's passage at the ballot box two days later.

Larry Marmie

Defensive Coordinator

College: Eastern Kentucky
Hometown: Barnesville, Ohio
Cardinal Season: 8th
NFL Season: 8th

Former Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie begins his eighth year with the Cardinals and his third full season as defensive coordinator.

He served as the team's defensive backs coach from 1996 until midway through the 2000 season when he was elevated to the coordinator position following the appointment of then-defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis to interim head coach.

Marmie brought 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Cardinals in 1996 when he accepted his first professional coaching position.

Last season, Marmie watched his middle linebacker, Ronald McKinnon, lead the team in tackles for the fourth consecutive autumn. During the campaign, McKinnon appeared in his 100th game, made his 500th career solo tackle, and notched his 1,000th career total tackle.

Marmie's unheralded 2001 Arizona defense, minus two Pro Bowlers (cornerback Aeneas Williams and defensive end Simeon Rice) and five other linemen (Andre Wadsworth, Mark Smith, Brad Ottis, Corey Sears, and Tony McCoy) who made starts a year earlier, acquitted itself.

Despite 14 different starting combinations and generating only 19 quarterback sacks, the unit allowed fewer yards (5,685–5,737), significantly fewer rushing yards (2,087–2,609), and most importantly, fewer points (343–443) and touchdowns (39–52) than the higher-profiled 2000 defense.

The 343 opponent points were the fewest allowed by Arizona since 1994 (267) and the defenders held the opposition to 20 points or less 11 times, a team best since 1994 (13 opponents). Finally, Arizona's 2001 defense scored five touchdowns, a feat the Cards accomplished only four other times since 1960.

Earlier in Marmie's Cardinal tenure, Williams was recognized with his third, fourth, fifth, and sixth Pro Bowls. Williams' two 1997 interception returns for touchdowns led the NFC and raised his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's team mark of five.

Strong safety Pat Tillman posted a team-leading 224 tackles in 2000, the highest single-season total in franchise history.

Free safety Kwamie Lassiter blossomed in 1998 in his first extended playing time as a starter, equalling the NFL single-game record with four interceptions vs. San Diego in the regular-season finale. Lassiter's eight '98 interceptions led the NFC.

Lassiter also scored his first NFL touchdown in 1999, a 78-yard interception return against Philadelphia that ranks as the fifth longest in franchise history.

In 1998 during the Cardinals' return to postseason play, Marmie tutored a secondary that fielded a rookie starter in every game—free safety Tillman for the first 11, cornerback Corey Chavous for the last seven.

Marmie spent the 1995 season tutoring UCLA's defensive backs following three years (1992–94) as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in his second stint at the Knoxville school.

He was head coach at Arizona State from 1988–91, posting a 22–21–1 composite record, after earlier serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator from 1985–87, a span that included A.S.U.'s 1986 Pac-10 Conference and Rose Bowl championship team. Marmie's '86 Sun Devil defensive unit led the Pac-10 in scoring defense.

The former Eastern Kentucky quarterback (1962–65) entered the coaching ranks at Berea (Ky.) High School (1966–67) following his collegiate playing career at Eastern under legendary coach Roy Kidd, a 2003 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame. A four-year stint as secondary and defensive line coach at Morehead (Ky.) State (1968–71) followed before returning to E.K.U. for five seasons (1972–76) to coach the defensive line and linebackers.

Marmie later served as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1977–78), defensive backfield coach at North Carolina (1979–82), and defensive coordinator in his first stay at Tennessee (1983–84) when he was named the Southeastern Conference assistant coach-of-the-year in 1983.

Marmie, a native of Barnesville, Ohio, holds a bachelor's degree (health, physical education, and recreation) and a master's degree (education) from Eastern Kentucky.

He and his wife, Linda, have three married children—daughters Vicki Ness and Cozy Hays, and son Larry, Jr.—and seven grandchildren.

Jerry Sullivan

Offensive Coordinator

College: Delta State
Hometown: Miami, Florida
Cardinal Season: 3rd
NFL Season: 12th

Jerry Sullivan, long regarded as one of the NFL's finest receiving coaches, undertakes stewardship of the Cardinals' offensive fortunes in 2003 as the team's new offensive coordinator after two seasons as receivers coach.

Sullivan joined Head Coach Dave McGinnis' first staff in 2001 as a 27-year coaching veteran that included nine in the NFL and 18 at the collegiate level.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Sullivan served as the receivers coach for the Detroit Lions (1997–2000) where he schooled one of the NFL's most potent receiving corps of Herman Moore, Johnnie Morton, and Germane Crowell. Before his tenure with Detroit, Sullivan spent five campaigns (1992–96) as receivers coach for the San Diego Chargers.

Last season, the undaunted Sullivan, faced with the unprecedented loss of his top four receivers (David Boston, Bryan Gilmore, MarTay Jenkins, and Frank Sanders) for 29 of the team's 95 starter games lost to injury, cobbled together an unheralded yet representative corps of inexperienced receivers—Jason McAddley, Kevin Kasper, Arnold Jackson, Nathan Poole, Jake Soliday, McAddley—that caught 62 passes for 731 yards and six touchdowns.

Boston blossomed under Sullivan's guidance in 2001, leading the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards that also set Arizona's single-season record en route to his first Pro Bowl selection as a consensus all-pro choice. Boston also led the NFL with nine 100-yard receiving games and became the second youngest (23 years, four months) player in league history to eclipsed the 1,500-yard mark.

Born July 13, 1944 in Miami, Florida, Sullivan played football and baseball at Jackson High School in Miami before enrolling at Florida State to play football (quarterback). He transferred to Delta State after two years, receiving a bachelor of science degree in education in 1968, and a master's degree in guidance and secondary education in 1969.

Sullivan began his coaching career at Cooper High School in Vicksburg, Mississippi in 1970 and entered the college ranks in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Kansas State where he subsequently served as freshmen coach in 1972.

After three years (1973–75) as tight ends and freshmen coach at Texas Tech, Sullivan spent the next seven years (1976–82) at South Carolina where he mentored the wide receivers. After serving the 1983 season at Indiana under Head Coach Sam Wyche, Sullivan began another seven-year stint, this time at Louisiana State. While at the Baton Rouge school, Sullivan helped the Tigers win the Southeastern Conference title in 1986 and '88 and honed the skills of two-time all-America wide receiver Wendell Davis, a first-round selection of the Chicago Bears in the 1988 NFL Draft.

After spending 1991 at Ohio State, Sullivan joined the Chargers and Head Coach Bobby Ross for the next five seasons (1992–96) when San Diego won AFC West titles with 11–5 records in 1992 and '94 and appeared in six playoff games, including Super Bowl XXIX in Miami to complete the 1994 season.

Notable among his accomplishments in San Diego was the development of Tony Martin into one of the top receivers in the NFL. In 1996, Martin tied for the NFL lead with 14 touchdown receptions with his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first Pro Bowl honor. The following season, Martin, a former college quarterback, set a Chargers' single-season record with 90 receptions.

When Ross was named head coach of the Detroit Lions in 1997, Sullivan joined him in the Motor City and worked his magic again with the Lions' receiving corps. The duo of Moore and Morton was the top receiving tandem in '97 with 184 receptions, ranked second in 1998 with 151 catches, and fourth in '99 with 161 grabs.

Moore and Morton comprised the most prolific pass-catching combination in the league from 1997–98, snatching 335 passes during the span.

The trio was joined in 1999 by Crowell, who exploded onto the scene with a team-high 81 catches for 1,338 yards and seven touchdowns.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, have three children, Jon Eric, Matthew, and Allison. The Sullivans reside in Phoenix.

Quarterbacks

College: Princeton
Hometown: Madison, Wisconsin
Cardinal Season: 6th
NFL Season: 13th

George Patrick "Geep" Chryst, a 12-year NFL coaching veteran, embarks on his sixth season on Arizona's staff in his second tour of duty as the Cardinals' quarterbacks coach in 2003.

Chryst returned to the Cardinals as quarterbacks coach in 2001 after two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers.

Chryst previously served on Head Coach Vince Tobin's Arizona staff from 1996–98 with responsibilities in quality control (1996), tight ends (1997), and quarterbacks (1998). He also spent five seasons (1991–95) with the Chicago Bears as director of research/quality control.

Former Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer enjoyed his finest NFL success under Chryst's tutelage. Last season, Plummer eclipsed the 15,000-yard plateau in passing yardage and threw 18 touchdown passes to equal his career high. In 2001, Plummer, who had thrown 45 interceptions during Chryst's two-season absence, dropped his pickoff total to 14, including only two in his final 245 pass attempts and none in a span of 142 consecutive throws. Plummer also led the NFL with 1,277 fourth-quarter passing yards and tied San Francisco's Jeff Garcia with 10 fourth-stanza touchdown passes.

Chryst joined the Chargers' staff as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach and was instrumental in the development of San Diego's successful "no huddle" offensive attack in 1999 as offensive coordinator. As a result, the Chargers completed the most passes (332) in 13 seasons and passer Jim Harbaugh enjoyed the second-highest passing production (2,761 yards) of his 13-year NFL career and became the only quarterback in Chargers history other than Hall of Famer Dan Fouts to pass for 400 yards in a game.

During his previous stint with the Cardinals, Chryst's tutoring of the tight ends paid dividends in both 1996 and '97. Pat Carter's 26 receptions for 329 yards in 1996 marked the best production by a Cardinal tight end since Rob Awalt's 33 catches for 360 yards in 1989. The following year, Chris Gedney caught four touchdown passes, the most by an Arizona tight end since 1988.

Chryst hails from an athletic family. His father, George, was a successful football coach at Wisconsin-Platteville from 1980–92 and was instrumental in the formation of the "Cheese League," the annual influx of NFL training camps to Wisconsin colleges, when he enticed the Chicago Bears to being training at the Platteville campus in 1984.

In 1980, George Chryst's first season as head coach, Platteville staged the then-greatest comeback in NCAA history, overcoming a 33–0 deficit to defeat Wisconsin-Eau Claire 52–43 for the Wisconsin State University Conference championship.

Born June 25, 1962 in Madison, Wisconsin, Chryst began his coaching career with his father at Wisconsin-Platteville in 1987, joined the staff at Wisconsin for one season (1988), then moved to Wyoming to coach the offensive line (1989) and quarterbacks (1990).

In 1991, he was the wide receivers/running backs coach for the Orlando Thunder of the World League before beginning his first season with the Bears where he first crossed paths with current Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis.

A 1984 Princeton graduate with a bachelor's degree in history, Chryst also holds a master's degree in educational administration from Wisconsin. A three-year starter at linebacker as a Princeton undergraduate, Chryst also played baseball for two years.

His unique nickname is a truncation of the initials adorning his first Christmas stocking—"G.P." Chryst.

Chryst's wife, Shelley, was a scholarship volleyball player at Wyoming and played professionally in the two-player sand version (Women's Professional Volleyball Association) in 1994. She also was assistant volleyball coach at Northwestern (1994) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1995).

Chryst and his wife, Shelley, are the parents of three children—sons Keller and Jackson and daughter Gillian.

Mike Devlin

Assistant Offensive Line/ Offensive Quality Control

College: Iowa
Hometown: Marlton, New Jersey
Cardinal Season: 8th
NFL Season: 11th

Mike Devlin enters his fourth season on the Cardinal coaching staff as assistant offensive line coach/offensive quality control after initially joining the staff two weeks into the 2000 season.

Devlin was an all-America center at Iowa and Outland Trophy finalist as a Hawkeye senior. He was selected by Buffalo in the fifth round of the 1993 NFL Draft, playing in 44 games for the Bills before signing with Arizona as a free agent prior to the 1996 season.

As a Cardinal, Devlin started 26 of 42 games at center from 1996–99 and appeared in 58 games overall until his release August 27, 2000 on the final roster cutdown.

Devlin assists offensive line coach Pete Hoener coaching one of the NFL's largest offensive lines, one that allowed only 29 quarterback sacks in 2001, the franchise's second fewest in a 16-game season (22 in 1978). Additionally, Arizona averaged 5.13 yards per play in 2001, a team best since 1993 (5.176) and managed 45 points vs. Detroit on November 18, Arizona's highest scoring output in 332 games (1977). Last season, Arizona's injury-depleted line—only left tackle L.J. Shelton started every game—still managed to clear room for running back Marcel Shipp to accumulate 834 rushing yards in only six starts and average 5.52 yards per touch, second in the NFC to Minnesota running back Michael Bennett and the best by a Cardinal since fullback Larry Centers averaged 5.54 yards in 1996. Also in 2002, the Cards enjoyed a 249-yard rushing day at Seattle (September 15), the franchise's best total in 93 games (267 at New Orleans, September 22, 1996).

Devlin hails from a football family. His father, John, was a football coach for 40 years, including collegiate assistant positions at Bloomsburg, Florida State, Kentucky, Maryland, Temple, Tulane, Virginia Tech, and West Point, and the NFL Houston Oilers. His cousin, Joe Devlin, played for Buffalo from 1976–82 and '84–89, and his siblings also have extended football roots. Brother John was a quarterback at West Point from 1981–84, while brother Bill was a two-way lineman at Murray State. Sister Liz has been the head football coach's secretary at Tulane for 12 years.

Since joining the Cardinals, Devlin has been extremely active in civic circles. He was the Cardinals' 1999 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, bestowed upon one representative from each team, for demonstration of courage and determination in the face of adversity following the death of his father in 1998.

During the 1999 off-season, he established the John Devlin Memorial Celebrity Golf Classic to benefit a scholarship fund for the Bloomsburg University football program in the memory of his father. The event has raised $150,000 in five years.

Additionally, Devlin was the club's NFL man-of-the-year representative recognizing a player's off-field community service as well as playing excellence.

Endeavors included his participation in the Valley's "Read Across America Day" in 1999 along with innumerable appearances to schools and civic groups.

Born November 16, 1969 in Blacksburg, Virginia, Devlin was a prep all-America at Cherokee High School in Marlton, New Jersey where he was runner-up for New Jersey Scholastic Athlete-of-the-Year, and added scholastic all-America honors. He owns a bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure from Iowa.

Mike and his wife, Julie, live in Phoenix with their three children—son Zachary, daughters Hallie and Carlie.

Jeff FitzGerald

Linebackers

College: California State-Northridge
Hometown: Burbank, California
Cardinal Season: 4th
NFL Season: 10th

Jeff FitzGerald, a nine-year NFL assistant with previous stops in Washington (1998–99) and Tampa Bay (1990–93) and a combined 20 years of coaching experience at the college and pro levels, begins his fourth season with the Cardinals and his third as linebackers coach

In 2000, FitzGerald was named to the newly-created position of quality control coach, a role inherited by assistant offensive line coach Mike Devlin (offense) and special-teams assistant Stan Kwan (defense) in 2001 when FitzGerald was asked to tutor the Cardinals' linebackers by new Arizona Head Coach Dave McGinnis.

In FitzGerald's first season as a Cardinal position coach, two of his pupils made integral contributions to an improved Arizona defense. Middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon, who led the team with 190 total tackles, became the first Cardinal in 178 games (Marcus Turner, 1990) to record defensive touchdowns in consecutive games when he returned an interception for a score against Dallas (Dec. 23) and returned a fumble for six points the following week at Carolina (Dec. 30).

Also, outside linebacker Rob Fredrickson, Arizona's no. 3 tackler with 143 total stops, led the team with four quarterback sacks.

In 2002, McKinnon led Arizona in total tackles for the fourth consecutive season, notching 150 total stops (65 solos). Along the way, McKinnon appeared in his 100th NFL game, made his 500th career solo tackle, and logged his 1,000th career total tackle. McKinnon's sidekick, Ray Thompson, enjoyed his finest NFL season with career bests in total tackles (137), and solo stops (80).

FitzGerald spent his two seasons with the Redskins as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach and managed the club's defensive game analysis services in addition to duties as a special-teams assistant.

A native of Burbank, California, FitzGerald initially attended Oregon State where he played linebacker for the Beavers before transferring to California State-Northridge following a career-ending knee injury.

He entered the coaching arena in 1981 at his alma mater, John Burroughs High School in Burbank, while enrolled at Northridge. Following two seasons at Burbank H.S. (1983–85), he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati (1985–86) and Alabama (1987–89), the last two seasons as the inside linebackers coach for the Crimson Tide.

In 1990, he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' staff under Head Coach Ray Perkins, spending four years working with the defensive backs and special teams and administrating the defensive computer operations and video breakdown and evaluation.

Prior to returning to the pro ranks with the Redskins in 1998, FitzGerald served four seasons (1994–97) as linebackers coach at San Diego State where he oversaw the football staff's computer and video operations.

FitzGerald, whose interests include auto racing and international travel, owns bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from California State-Northridge and Alabama, respectively. He resides in Mesa.

Marty Galbraith

Tight Ends

College: Missouri Southern Hometown: Joplin, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 2nd

Marty Galbraith, a former NFL assistant and most recently the offensive coordinator at North Carolina State, is Arizona's first-year tight ends coach.

Galbraith, a 29-year coaching veteran, joins Arizona after three years at North Carolina State (2000 offensive line coach, 2001-02 offensive coordinator). During his tenure in Raleigh, the 2001 Wolfpack offense set a school record for completion percentage (.644) and pass completions (248) and ranked fourth in school history in pass attempts (385) and fifth in passing yards (2,712). The squad also established a school record with only 13 turnovers.

Last year, Galbraith's offense set N.C. State records for wins (11), pass completions (273), first downs (281), passing yards (3,468), total yards (5,485) and points scored (460). The offense also led the Atlantic Coast Conference in red zone productivity (45 touchdowns in 67 trips, 67 percent), and sacks-to-pass attempt ratio with just 17 quarterback sacks allowed in 385 pass attempts.

No stranger to professional football, Galbraith sandwiched one season as offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs (1985) between stints in the USFL in a similar capacity with the Steve Spurrier-coached Tampa Bay Bandits (1983–84) and the Frank Kush coached-Arizona Outlaws (1986).

In addition to his tenure at N.C. State, Galbraith also coached on the college level at Northwest Missouri State (1973), Purdue (receivers coach, 1977), Wake Forest (offensive line/secondary, 1978–82; offensive coordinator/offensive line, 1989–90), Louisiana State (tight ends, 1987; offensive line, 1988), Pittsburgh (tight ends/special teams, 1991), Georgia Tech (tight ends/special teams, 1992–93), and Marshall (assistant head coach/offensive line, 1998; assistant head coach/offensive coordinator, 1999). His college postseason coaching resume includes the 1979 and 2001 Tangerine Bowls, 1987 Gator Bowl, 1988 Hall of Fame Bowl, 1989 Blue-Gray game, 1998 and 1999 Motor City Bowls, and 2000 Micronpc.com Bowl and the 2002 Gator Bowl.

During Galbraith's tenure at Marshall, the Thundering Herd fielded the top-rated offense in the Mid-American Conference and current N.Y. Jet quarterback Chad Pennington from 1998–99, ranking seventh nationally in 1999. Pennington, the Jets' first-round draft choice in the 2000 NFL Draft, was a 1999 finalist for the Heisman Trophy. Current Cardinals Jason Starkey (center), and Nate Poole (wide receiver) were on those Marshall teams.

Galbraith was an all-district defensive back at Missouri Southern and captained the NAIA national championship squad in 1972. In addition to his professional and college coaching experience, he also served on the high school level as both a head coach and assistant for seven seasons.

Galbraith has two daughters, Kasie and Amy, and a son, Stephen.

Cary Godette

Defensive Line Assistant

College: East Carolina
Hometown: Havelock, North Carolina
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 6th

Cary Godette, a five-year NFL assistant with the Carolina Panthers (1995) and Miami Dolphins (1996–99) and a 21-season college coach, is Arizona's first-year assistant defensive line coach where he will assist defensive line coach Joe Greene.

Last year, Godette served as assistant head coach at Western Carolina.

An all-America defensive end at East Carolina in 1976, Godette entered the coaching arena in 1977 at his alma mater as defensive line coach, then served for three years at Wyoming, tutoring the Cowboys' defensive ends (1980) and linebackers (1981–82).

In 1983, Godette began a six-year stint at the University of Cincinnati where he coached the Bearcats' defensive ends (1983), outside linebackers (1984), tight ends (1985–86), and defensive line (1987–88) in addition to recruiting and game operations responsibilities.

After a season as an assistant at Terry Sanford High School in Fayetteville, N.C. in 1989, Godette returned to the college coaching ranks, beginning with two seasons at East Carolina (1990–91) and Georgia Tech (1992–93) and another at North Carolina State (1994).

His first NFL assignment came in 1995 as defensive line coach for Carolina, followed by four years with the Miami Dolphins (1996–99). He also participated in the NFL's Minority Internship Program with the Dallas Cowboys during their 1992 training camp.

In 2000, Godette returned to the college level for two seasons at North Carolina State before spending the 2002 campaign at Western Carolina.

Godette has coached in five college bowl games—the 2002 Tangerine, 2000 Micronpc.com, and 1994 Peach Bowl with N.C. State, and the 1991 Peach and 1987 Independence Bowl with East Carolina.

Godette and his wife Ruby are the parents of daughter Rhonda, son Paul, and three grandchildren.

Joe Greene

Defensive Line

College: North Texas
Hometown: Elgin, Texas
Cardinal Season: 8th
NFL Season: 30th

Charles Edward Greene, known as "Mean Joe" to a generation of football fans and a member of the NFL's all-time team named in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary, is the Cardinals' eighth-year defensive line coach.

Greene, one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the National Football League, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 to cap his legendary 13-year playing career (1969–81). He was considered the heart of Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense that led the Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. A perennial all-pro tackle for the Steelers who recorded 66 quarterback sacks during his career, Greene was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight consecutively from 1970–77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s."

Greene is a 15-season NFL coaching veteran. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he tutored the Miami Dolphins' defensive line for four seasons (1992–95) following five campaigns (1987–91) as the Pittsburgh Steelers' defensive line coach. During Greene's tenure on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, the Steelers were the AFC's top-rated team in giveaway-takeaway ratio. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five AFC teams in run defense four of Greene's five seasons while also leading the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 1990.

In Miami in 1994, the Dolphins set a club record by allowing only 89.4 yards per game rushing to rank second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL.

In 2002, defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch returned from reconstructive knee surgery as a rookie to lead the Cardinals in sacks (four) and quarterback pressures (nine). Fred Wakefield led defensive linemen with four pass deflections, and tackle Barron Tanner made his first career pass interception. On September 29, Greene's linemen led the charge when Arizona limited the New York Giants to two first downs rushing, a team best since 1999 (43 games).

Greene's leadership and ingenuity were put to the test in 2000–01 when he was forced to field seven different starting defensive line combinations both years, including four rookies in 2001.

In 2001, two of the rookies, Vanden Bosch and Wakefield, blossomed. The former, a second-round draft choice from Nebraska, quickly earned a starting job and flashed glimpses of brilliance before a knee injury prematurely scuttled his season after three games. The latter, a free agent from Illinois, seized his opportunity to start the season's final 11 games and register a team-best 16 quarterback hurries. Both Vanden Bosch (fumble recovery) and Wakefield (interception) scored defensive touchdowns, marking the first time two Cardinal rookie modern-era defensive linemen scored in the same season.

In 1999, Greene's only lineman to start every game, end Simeon Rice, set a franchise single-season record with 16.5 quarterback sacks, good for second in the NFL.

During the Cards' 1998 playoff run, Greene's defensive linemen, despite two rookie or first-year starters most of the season (end Andre Wadsworth and tackle Rashod Swinger), contributed 29 of Arizona's 39 sacks. The group also was credited with 15 deflected passes.

In 1997, defensive tackle Mark Smith led NFL rookie interior linemen with six quarterback sacks. Tackle Bernard Wilson's 66-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. the Eagles on November 2 was the longest six-point pickoff return by a defensive lineman in Cardinal history. Tackle Eric Swann was dominant with a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, or deflected pass in 12 of his 13 appearances.

Swann and Rice earned numerous postseason accolades in 1996 as Arizona improved from 26th to 21st in total defense from 1995, and from last to 21st against the run. Swann earned his second Pro Bowl berth and assorted all-star honors. Rice was the NFL's runaway defensive rookie-of-the-year, tied a then league rookie record for quarterback sacks with 12.5 (Leslie O'Neil, San Diego, 1985), and was voted a Pro Bowl alternate.

In addition to his numerous awards for accomplishments on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca-Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. The spot has been named the seventh-best television commercial of all time by TV Guide and the most memorable sports commercial by the American Association of Advertising Agencies.

Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area before rejoining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State (now the University of North Texas) in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft. He earned NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year honors the following season.

Greene also has served on his alma mater's board of trustees.

Born in Elgin, Texas, Greene and his wife, Agnes, who reside in Chandler, have three grown children—sons Major and Delon, who both played football at North Texas, and daughter Joquel—and five grandchildren.

Pete Hoener

Offensive Line

College: Bradley
Hometown: Peoria, Illinois
Cardinal Season: 5th
NFL Season: 7th

Pete Hoener, Arizona's tight-ends coach the past two seasons, changes hats to tutor the Cardinals' huge offensive line in 2003.

Hoener a 29-year coaching veteran, including 25 as an offensive line coach and 15 as an offensive coordinator, is in his second stint on he Cardinals' staff. He was the team's tight-ends coach from 1985–86 in St. Louis.

In 2002, Hoener's newest pupil, Freddie Jones, led the Cards in receiving with 44 catches (358 yards), the fifth best tight-end total in team history, to become the first tight end to lead the Cards in receiving since Hall of Famer Jackie Smith's 41 receptions in 1973. Jones' 44 grabs also were the most by a Cardinal tight end since Smith's 45 catches in 1968. Back-up tight end Steve Bush posted 19 career-best receptions for 121 yards and his first NFL touchdown in his 80th NFL appearance.

Hoener's 2001 trio of Cardinal tight ends—Steve Bush, Terry Hardy, and Tywan Mitchell—combined for 44 pass receptions for 355 yards and four touchdowns.

Prior to rejoining the Cardinals in 2001, Hoener coached the running backs on Head Coach R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M after two seasons (1998–99) as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Iowa State.

A native of Peoria, Illinois, Hoener (HAY-nur) played football and graduated from Bradley University.

He entered the coaching arena at Belvidere (Ill.) High School in 1974, then served as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1975 where he met Arizona Head Coach Dave McGinnis, the Tigers' linebackers and secondary coach. Hoener subsequently spent time on the staffs at Illinois State (1977), again with McGinnis at Indiana State (1978–84), the Cardinals, Illinois (1986–88), Purdue (1989–91), and Texas Christian (1992–97) before stints at Iowa State and Texas A&M.

During his tenure at Iowa State, Hoener took over an offensive line that had allowed 46 quarterback sacks in 1997 and reduced the number to just nine his first season as the position coach. At T.C.U., eight offensive linemen earned all-Southwest Conference notice and the 1994 Horned Frog offense led the conference in total offense.

Hoener attended Richwoods High School in his native Peoria. He and his wife, Marianne, have three daughters—Jennifer, Kathleen, and Lisa.

Hank Kuhlmann

Special Teams

College: Missouri
Hometown: Webster Groves, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 11th
NFL Season: 24th

Hank Kuhlmann is coaching his third position in his second tour of duty with the Cardinals in 2003 when he continues tutelage of Arizona's special teams for the fourth consecutive year.

Kuhlmann boasts 38 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels.

A former Cardinal assistant coach and interim head coach, Kuhlmann returned to the team following the 1997 season to coach tight ends after four seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (three as special-teams coach).

Kuhlmann served as the Cards' running backs coach under Head Coach Gene Stallings from 1986–89, and succeeded Stallings as the club's interim head coach for the final five games of the '89 season.

In 1990, he served as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Missouri, as freshmen coach from 1962–65 before being promoted to running backs coach through the 1971 season.

He received his first professional assignment as special-teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1972–74, then joined Head Coach Dan Devine as running backs and special-teams coach at Notre Dame from 1975–77. The Fighting Irish won the national championship in '77.

After returning to the pro ranks from 1978–82 as running backs and special-teams coach of the Chicago Bears, Kuhlmann joined the Birmingham franchise of the USFL from 1983–85 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator before beginning his first stint with the Cardinals in 1986. Following his departure from the Cardinals after the 1990 season, Kuhlmann served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991.

Last season, second-year left-footer Bill Gramatica rebounded from knee surgery to lead Arizona in scoring with 74 points. His campaign was highlighted by three game-winning field goals—50-yarder October 6 at Carolina, 40-yarder Oct. 20 vs. Dallas in overtime, and a 42-yarder December 8 vs. Detroit in overtime. Punter Scott Player's 43.9-yard gross average ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL. He also posted 28 "inside-the-20" punts and a career single-game best of five "inside-the-20" boots vs. Dallas. Additionally, Player suffered only 10 touchbacks.

Two rookies emerged for Kuhlmann's special teams in 2001. Gramatica set two club rookie records—single-season field goals (14), bettering Gerry Perry's 1960 total of 13, and longest field goal (50 yards). Overall, Gramatica converted 16 of 20 field-goal attempts and all 15 point-after-touchdown tries for a team-best 73 points.

Diminutive free agent Arnold Jackson, a wide receiver by trade, returned 49 punts for 1,120 yards for an 11.5-yard average, tops among league rookies. He also finished the season as the NFL's only regular punt returner without a fair catch. Collectively, the 2001 Arizona special teams held opponents to 18.2 yards per kickoff return, ranking second to Washington (17.5) in the NFL.

In 2000, Arizona's special teams provided a bright spot in an otherwise disappointing season. Punter Scott Player earned his first Pro Bowl trip with 44.2-yard gross and 37.3-yard net averages to rank second in the NFC in both categories. MarTay Jenkins became the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner with league records of 82 returns for 2,186 yards, finishing with a 26.7-yard average, highest by a Cardinal in 25 years. Overall, the Cardinals' 26.7-yard team kickoff-return average established a single-season franchise record, and the kickoff-coverage units yielded just 18 yards per return to rank second in the NFL.

In 1998, his first season back in the Cards' nest, Kuhlmann's pair of tight ends, Johnny McWilliams and Chris Gedney, combined to catch 48 passes for 555 yards and five touchdowns.

During his tenure in Indianapolis, Kuhlmann coached the Colts' tight ends in 1994, then spent the next three seasons (1995–97) as special-teams coach. In '96, his efforts resulted in Pro Bowl berths for Colt kicker Cary Blanchard and punter Chris Gardocki.

Blanchard, a Cardinal free-agent signee in 2000, enjoyed his finest professional success as a Colt under Kuhlmann's guidance from 1995–97.

In 1995, Blanchard authored a memorable moment in the Colts' improbable three-game postseason run that fell just one game short of the Super Bowl with a 30-yard field goal at Kansas City that provided the difference in Indianapolis' 10–7 victory, sending the Colts to the AFC championship game at Pittsburgh.

In 1996, Blanchard's 36 field goals, en route to the Pro Bowl, fell one shy of the NFL single-season record of Carolina's John Kasay, who passed Blanchard on the final day of the season.

Blanchard also set then-club records of 13 consecutive field goals in both 1996 and '97. Over the '96–97 seasons, Blanchard tallied an NFL-leading 252 points, the best two-season point total in Colts' history.

Overall, Kuhlmann has tutored four kickers to Pro Bowl appearances—Player, Blanchard, and Gardocki, and Chester Marcol (1972 with Green Bay). In addition, the 1974 Packers established a 14-game NFL record with 12 blocked kicks (four field goals, four punts, four extra points), including seven blocked kicks by Ted Hendricks.

Born in Webster Groves, Missouri, Kuhlmann was a running back at Missouri from 1956–59 before spending four seasons as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization from 1959–62.

He and his wife, Donna, have two children—Jeff and Tracey.

Stan Kwan

Special Teams Assistant/ Defensive Quality Control

College: San Diego State
Hometown: Phoenix, Arizona
Cardinal Season: 3rd
NFL Season: 13th

Phoenix native and Camelback High School alum Stan Kwan enters his third season as defensive quality control coach and special-teams assistant for the Cardinals.

His duties include managing the team's game film breakdown and maintaining computer analysis services in addition to assisting Cardinal special-teams coach Hank Kuhlmann.

Kwan returned to the Valley in 2001 after 10 seasons as an offensive and special-teams assistant with the San Diego Chargers (1991–96) and Detroit Lions (1997–2000).

Last season, the special-teams highlights included second-year left-footer Bill Gramatica's rebound from knee surgery to lead Arizona in scoring with 74 points. His campaign was highlighted by three game-winning field goals—50-yarder October 6 at Carolina, 40-yarder Oct. 20 vs. Dallas in overtime, and a 42-yarder December 8 vs. Detroit in overtime. Punter Scott Player's 43.9-yard gross average ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL. He also posted 28 "inside-the-20" punts and a career single-game best of five "inside-the-20" boots vs. Dallas. Additionally, Player suffered only 10 touchbacks.

In 2001, Kwan's first season with the Cardinals, two rookies emerged on special teams—Gramatica and punt returner Arnold Jackson.

Gramatica set two club rookie records—single-season field goals (14), bettering Gerry Perry's 1960 total of 13, and longest field goal (50 yards).

Jackson returned 49 punts for 1,120 yards for an 11.5-yard average, tops among league rookies. He also finished the season as the NFL's only regular punt returner without a fair catch.

Collectively, the 2001 Arizona special teams held opponents to 18.2 yards per kickoff return, ranking second to Washington (17.5) in the NFL.

During his tenure with the Lions, Kwan's responsibilities ranged from working with the special teams to signalling in the offensive plays during games. He also developed and compiled both the offensive and defensive playbooks, provided film and statistical breakdown for special teams, and organized league and college scouting combine testing statistics.

A quarterback and all-Arizona shortstop at Camelback High School, Kwan still holds numerous baseball records at the school, including batting average, runs scored, stolen bases, on-base percentage, and walks. In his junior year, Camelback was the top-ranked team in Arizona and was rated 16th in the nation. He earned all-league honors twice as a shortstop and set the school single-game passing record with 327 yards as a quarterback.

Kwan's collegiate baseball career included one season at South Mountain Community College, where he was the first freshman named captain of the team, and three years at San Diego State, where he helped the Aztecs achieve national ranking—1 Western Athletic Conference title, 1 conference tournament title, and 2 berths in the NCAA Baseball Tournament.

Kwan is single and resides in Tempe.

Ron Milus

Defensive Backs

College: Washington
Hometown: Tacoma, Washington
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 4th

Ron Milus, a three-year member of the defensive staff of the Denver Broncos, is the Cardinals' first-year defensive backs coach.

Milus, 39, coached Denver's defensive backs for two seasons (2000–01) and their nickel backs last year (2002). He packs 12 years of coaching experience, three with the Broncos and nine on the collegiate lever at the University of Washington (1991–98), his alma mater, and Texas A&M (1999).

In his first season (2000) with Denver, Milus' defensive secondary accounted for 21 of the club's 27 interceptions, the highest total by a Broncos' team since 1987, tying for sixth most in franchise history.

Over the past two seasons, the Denver secondary continued to improve as second-year cornerback Deltha O'Neal earned a Pro Bowl berth with nine interceptions (third best in the NFL) following the 2001 season.

Last year, Milus' contributions helped the Denver defense rank sixth overall in the NFL.

A four-year letter-winner at Washington (1982–85) as a cornerback and return specialist, Milus entered the coaching arena at his high school alma mater, Lincoln High in Tacoma, for a three-year stint before joining Washington's staff as a graduate assistant in 1991 for the school's co-national championship season. When he was elevated to a full-time position a year later, he was the youngest assistant coach in the Pac-10 Conference at age 28.

During eight seasons on the Husky staff, Milus coached in six bowl games, including two Rose Bowls, and his defensive backs were instrumental in the play of a defense that led the nation in 1993 with 22 interceptions and two years later posted 16 pickoffs to lead the Pac-10.

Milus and his wife, Sandra, and sons Ryan and Bobby reside in Chandler, Arizona.

Bob Rogucki

Strength and Conditioning

College: Glenville State
Hometown: Rosemont, West Virginia
Cardinal Season: 14th
NFL Season: 14th

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key) begins his 14th year as the Cardinals' strength and conditioning coach.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, midsection, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki served as the strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89 after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

Rogucki also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

The Rosemont, West Virginia native, born September 27, 1953, was an offensive lineman at Glenville State College in his home state in 1975. He coached football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia prior to accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki holds a bachelor's degree in health, physical education, and safety from Glenville State College.

He and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie, and daughter Katie. The family resides in Tempe.

Johnny Roland

Running Backs

College: Missouri
Hometown: Corpus Christi, Texas
Cardinal Season: 14th
NFL Season: 31st

Johnny Roland, one of the top running backs in Cardinal history, begins the seventh year of his second stint with the team as its running backs coach.

A Pro Bowl running back for the Cardinals from 1967–68, Roland is a 24-year NFL coaching veteran.

Roland owns an impressive NFL coaching resume that also includes stops with Green Bay (1974), Philadelphia (1976–78), Chicago (1983–92), the New York Jets (1993–94), and St. Louis Rams (1995–96) with one college stint at Notre Dame (1975). He and Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis served as assistants with the Chicago Bears under Head Coach Mike Ditka from 1986–92.

During 10 seasons in Chicago, his tutelage of running backs Walter Payton and Neal Anderson helped the Bears lead the league in rushing four times, finish second twice, and third once as Chicago was the NFL's top rushing team in the 1980s, averaging 153.4 yards per game. In a five-year span from 1984–88, the Bears compiled a 62–17 record (.785), made five playoff appearances, and defeated New England 46–10 in Super Bowl XX in New Orleans.

Roland entered the coaching fraternity in 1974 at Green Bay under Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine, for whom he played at Missouri. Roland followed his mentor to Notre Dame as an assistant in 1975 before logging three seasons (1976–78) under Head Coach Dick Vermeil in Philadelphia.

The owner of radio station KIRL (AM 1460) in St. Charles, Mo., Roland spent four years in private business (1979–82) before Ditka summoned him to tutor Payton and Anderson from 1983–92 when the Bears compiled a 10-year record of 103–56 (.648) and won 10 or more games seven times.

Last season, Roland's young pupil, running back Marcel Shipp, gained 834 yards on the ground despite only six starts. He averaged 5.52 yards per touch of the ball to rank second in the NFC to Minnesota running back Michael Bennett. It was the best figure by a Cardinal since fullback Larry Centers' 5.54-yard average in 1996. Shipp also was on the receiving end of Arizona's longest play from scrimmage since 1988, an 80-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jake Plummer. In his first NFL start, Shipp rushed for 135 yards on 16 carries.

Additionally, Thomas Jones' career-best 173 rushing yards at Seattle September 15 led a 249-yard team rushing onslaught, a Cardinal best in 93 games (267 at new Orleans, September 22, 1996).

In 2001, Roland's Cardinal running-back tandem of Michael Pittman and Thomas Jones equally split 10 rushing touchdowns, more than nine other teams.

Roland developed Pittman, who in 1999 opened eyes against Detroit in his first NFL start with 133 rushing yards, the Cards' only 100-yard game of the season. Included was a 58-yard touchdown ramble, Arizona's longest run from scrimmage in 52 games. In 2000, Pittman finished as the team leader in receiving (73 receptions) and rushing (719 yards), a Cardinal first since 1974 when Terry Metcalf turned the trick.

Short-yardage back Mario Bates tallied nine rushing touchdowns in 1999, most by a Cardinal since 1993.

In Arizona's 1998 playoff season, the Cardinals averaged 101.7 rushing yards per game, a team high since 1993. Running backs Adrian Murrell and Bates achieved rushing milestones. Murrell gained 1,042 yards on the ground to become only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons. Bates set a Cardinal postseason single-game record with three rushing touchdowns at Minnesota in the NFC divisional playoff game.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Roland was former Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin's teammate as a two-way (running back and cornerback) starter at Missouri.

Both the NFL Cardinals (fourth round) and the American Football League N.Y. Jets (first round) selected Roland as a "future" choice in the 1965 drafts, respectively.

In 1966, Roland was named the NFL offensive rookie-of-the-year.

After seven years in St. Louis where he was a teammate of Cardinal Vice President and Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson, Roland concluded his playing career with the New York Giants in 1973.

As a pro running back, Roland collected 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 receiving yards, and scored 34 touchdowns.

He remains the Cardinals' no. 4 all-time career rusher with 3,608 yards. He also ranks fourth in career rushing attempts (962), fifth (tie with Elmer Angsman) in career rushing touchdowns (27), and fourth (tie with Johnny Johnson) in most career 100-yard rushing games (six).

Roland's 86-yard punt return for a touchdown at Philadelphia on October 2, 1966 is the third longest in team history. He also scored on a 74-yard punt return at Dallas on November 16, 1970.

He authored three of the 44 runs of 50 yards or more in Cardinal history. The longest, a 70-yarder at Washington on November 5, 1967, rates as the 18th-longest jaunt in franchise history, and the seventh longest without scoring a touchdown. He also registered scoring dashes of 54 (vs. New Orleans, December 3, 1967) and 50 yards (at Washington, October 23, 1966).

Roland remains one of only 22 Cardinals to have rushed for 130 or more yards in a game, and one of only five to record 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a single season (10, 1967).

Roland, who resides in Tempe, has two sons, Johnny, Jr. and James, and a daughter, Cynnamon.

Tyke Tolbert

Wide Receivers

College: Louisiana State
Hometown: Conroe, Texas
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 1st

Tyke Tolbert, tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida last year and a past participant in the NFL's Minority Internship Program, is the Arizona Cardinals' first-year wide receivers coach.

Tolbert, 35, received his first taste of the professional ranks when he participated in the NFL's Minority Internship Program with the Detroit Lions during their 1997 training camp where he reacquainted with Jerry Sullivan, then the Lions' receivers coach, Tolbert's position coach at LSU. The program introduced him to the Cardinals during the team's 2001 training camp, again under the supervision of Sullivan.

With the Lions, Tolbert worked with the tandem of Herman Moore and Johnny Morton, who in 1997 would team up to form the NFL's top pass catching tandem with 184 catches between them. Moore caught 104 balls which tied him for the NFL lead and earned Pro-Bowl and all-pro recognition.

He entered the coaching arena as a graduate assistant at LSU in the spring of 1994, working with the defensive backs, then held a similar position that fall at Louisiana-Monroe. The following spring he coached the wide receivers at Ohio University. In the fall of '95, he began a three-year stint at Louisiana-Monroe as tight ends coach.

After spending the 1998 season tutoring the tight ends at Auburn, he joined Louisiana-Lafayette as wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator from 1999–2001, then matriculated to Florida last year as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator when the Gators appeared in the Outback Bowl.

In 2001 at Louisiana-Lafayette, Tolbert's receivers caught passes covering 2,686 yards for 73 percent of the Ragin' Cajuns' total offense. His pupils caught 35 passes against eventual Sun Belt champion North Texas, the ninth highest single-game total in the nation in '01.

Born in Conroe, Texas, Tolbert holds bachelor and master degrees from LSU where he was a three-year letterman at wide receiver for the Tigers (1988–90).

Tolbert and his wife, Linda, are the parents of infant daughter Morgan. The family resides in Phoenix.

Second Round-b (36th), 1998
College: Southwestern Louisiana
DOB: April 10, 1976
Hometown: Lafayette, Louisiana

Pro Career: At 6–8, 333 pounds, joins fellow offensive lineman Leonard Davis (6–6, 384) as two of the largest players in team history … massive frame and large hands … surprising quickness for his size … along with left tackle L.J. Shelton, forms talented bookend tackle combo for Cardinals … selected in second round (36th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft … streak of 45 consecutive starts at right tackle ended last year due to triceps injury.

2002: Frustrating injury-plagued campaign … played in just one game and underwent two surgical prodecures to repair a torn right triceps muscle … first injured the muscle in third preseason game vs. Denver (Aug. 24) … underwent first procedure Aug. 28 and began aggressive rehabilitation Sept. 23 … declared inactive for first eight games of regular season … in uniform vs. Seattle (Nov. 10) for first time but did not play … first action in third series at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) when he assumed customary position at right tackle and Davis returned to right guard … remained in lineup until midway through fourth quarter … sustained the same tear to the same shoulder in a different location … placed on injured reserve Nov. 22 for duration of season … underwent a second procedure on Nov. 25.

2001: Started all 16 games to push consecutive starting streak to 45 consecutive outings … played all 955 offensive snaps as only Cardinal offensive lineman who didn't miss any playing time … key component of offensive line that allowed just 29 quarterback sacks, second fewest in team history in 16-game season (22 in 1978 by o-line that featured three Pro Bowlers—center Tom Banks, tackle Dan Dierdorf, and guard Bob Young).

1999: Hampered by large protective cast to protect broken bone in right hand suffered during preseason … started final 13 games at right tackle (14 overall) … first pro start at Miami (Sept. 19) in place of James Dexter (groin) … special-teams duty vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) … locked in at right tackle for remainder of season.

1998: Showed promise and progress through training camp but suffered knee sprain during preseason … on first day back to practice following the knee injury, aggravated a back injury that originally flared during training camp … inactive for season-opener at Dallas (Sept. 6) … played on special teams at Seattle (Sept. 13) … underwent diskectomy Sept. 17 to relieve herniated disc in lower back … inactive for next eight games … eventually placed on injured reserve Nov. 18 for duration of rookie season.

College/Personal: Durable athlete who started final 33 games at left tackle at Southwestern Louisiana (now Louisiana-Lafayette) … all-Louisiana first-team choice by the state's sportswriters as a senior … manned left tackle, grading a career-high 86 percent as he delivered 97 knockdowns for an offense that averaged 281.3 yards per game … all-Independent Conference first-team pick by Football News as a junior … started entire season at right tackle as a sophomore, grading 82 percent and making 70 knockdowns for an offense that averaged 434.5 yards per game … also a track and field standout (discus) at Southwestern Louisiana … helped the track team win its sixth consecutive Sun Belt Conference outdoor title in 1997 … finished second in the shot put and third in the discus … all-district 6-AAA selection, adding all-Louisiana class AAA honors as a defensive tackle for Cecilia High School (Breaux Bridge, La.) … general studies major at Southwestern Louisiana … wife Lahoma … sons Langhsten and Anthony, Jr., daughter Ebony … born April 10, 1976 in Lafayette, La.

6–4 • 314 • Fifth Year
Waivers (Bears), 2000
College: North Carolina
DOB: March 28, 1975
Hometown: Fayetteville, North Carolina

Pro Career: Claimed by Arizona via waivers from Chicago on Aug. 28, 2000 … played in 14 games (nine starts) for Cards in 2000, then started all 16 contests the past two seasons … in 46 games (41 starts) for Arizona, has collected 107 solo tackles, 73 assists, and 42.5 quarterback sacks … Bears' second-round pick (48th overall) in 1999 NFL Draft … impressive '99 season featured numerous all-rookie accolades.

2002 (Cardinals): Started all 16 games at left defensive for the second consecutive season, aligning next two three left tackles—Marcus Bell, Barron Tanner, and Wendell Bryant … 58 tackles (36 solos), 2 quarterback sacks, 7 hurries, 1 tackle for loss, and 2 passes defensed … led defensive line with six solo tackles, eight overall, in season-opener at Washington (Sept. 8) … four tackles, one quarterback hurry, and helped smother aborted field-goal attempt in third quarter of 24–13 win at Seattle (Sept. 15) … three tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 29), including one stop for loss, and batted down a pass at the line of scrimmage in 21–7 win … shared tackle lead among defensive linemen with 11 combined tackles, added a hurry, and helped limit Lamar Smith, the NFC's leading rusher, to 49 yards on 18 carries for 2.7-yard average in 16–13 victory at Carolina (Oct. 6) … on field for 57 of 60 plays from scrimmage vs. Dallas (Oct. 20), collecting three tackles and a sack of Cowboy passer Quincy Carter on the second play of 9–6 overtime victory … six tackles at San Francisco (Oct. 27) … five tackles with his second sack of the season vs. Seattle (Nov. 10) with five-yard drop of Seahawk passer Matt Hasselbeck in second quarter … involved in strange play in third quarter vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) … Lion running back James Stewart stumbled over a teammate on second-and-goal play at Arizona's two-yard line, fell to the ground, and spiked the ball in frustration … however, no Cardinal defender had touched him … only Davis and Lion passer Joey Harrington realized the whistle had not blown the play dead and the ball was live … Davis scooped the football for a potential fumble recovery … the original call on the field was a fumble and recovery by Davis, but replay overruled the call as an incomplete pass … finished with one tackle and two hurries in the 23–20 overtime win … closed season with two stops and a pair of hurries in season finale at Denver (Dec. 29).

2001 (Cardinals): Joined fellow defensive tackle Barron Tanner to start all 16 games for first time in NFL career … career-best 72 tackles (45 solos), 2 quarterback sacks, 4 hurries, and 1 tackle for loss … led defensive linemen in season-opener vs. Denver (Sept. 23) with six solo tackles, nine stops combined … duplicated the production in 21–20 win at Philadelphia (Oct. 7) … notched five stops at Chicago (Oct. 14) … two tackles and a hurry vs. Kansas City (Oct. 21), but his pressure on Chief passer Trent Green on fourth-and-goal play at Card two-yard line resulted in a Corey Chavous interception in the end zone with five seconds left and Cards nursing eight-point lead … four combined tackles at Dallas (Oct. 28) included a nine-yard third-quarter sack of Cowboy passer Clint Stoerner … seven tackles, including stop for loss, vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 11) … contributed to 34–31 overtime win at Oakland (Dec. 2) with 3 solo tackles, 3 assists, and 1 hurry … two tackles at N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15) featured an eight-yard sack to force a punt … five tackles in 17–10 win over Dallas (Dec. 23) … two stops in 30–7 victory at Carolina (Dec. 30) … three tackles with a hurry in season finale at Washington (Jan. 6).

2000 (Cardinals): Acquired via waivers from Chicago on final roster cutdown to reinforce depleted defensive line … evolved into one of the more consistent performers among Cardinal defensive linemen … inactive for season-opener, but started nine of final 10 games at defensive tackle, registering 26 solo tackles, 24 assists, 3 hurries, 4 tackles for loss, and 1 forced fumble … at least five tackles in five games and 32 combined stops in second half of season … first extended action as Cardinal vs. Green Bay (Sept. 24) produced two solo tackles and three assists … dropped running back Travis Prentice for two-yard loss vs. Cleveland (Oct. 8) … inactive vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) due to bone chip in ankle … first start in Cardinal uniform at Dallas (Oct. 22) resulted in pair of solo tackles and three assists … impressive outing vs. New Orleans (Oct. 29) with 5 solo stops, 2 tackles for loss, and 2 hurries … led defensive line with seven tackles in 16–15 win over Washington (Nov. 5) … matched the output with seven tackles at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) … four tackles and a forced fumble at Cincinnati (Dec. 3) … inactive with ankle sprain at Jacksonville (Dec. 10) … returned to starting lineup vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17), registering 3 solo stops, 3 assists, and 1 tackle for loss.

1999 (Bears): Earned all-rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News, and Football Digest with 21 tackles, 2 quarterback sacks, and 1 tackle for loss … only Bear rookie to start opening day in 1999 … opened at defensive end for first eight games, played in 11 overall … first career sack with tackle of passer Elvis Grbac vs. Kansas City (Sept. 12) … career-best five tackles vs. New Orleans (Oct. 3), including second sack of the season … four tackles in each of next two games at Minnesota (Oct. 10) and vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 17) … inactive for final five games.

College/Personal: Started 22 games at North Carolina … concluded Tar Heel career with 10.5 quarterback sacks, 24 tackles for loss, and 49 hurries … played on defensive line that included 1998 first-round draft picks Greg Ellis (Dallas) and Vonnie Holliday (Green Bay) … limited to two starts as senior due to ankle sprain … finished season with 36 tackles, 2 sacks, and 4 tackles for loss … started nine of 10 games as a junior, collecting 60 tackles, 3 sacks, 9 tackles for loss, and 21 quarterback hurries … 27 tackles and two and one-half sacks as sophomore … named squad's most outstanding freshman with 46 tackles, 3 sacks, 6 tackles for loss, and 9 hurries in eight starting roles at defensive end … two-way all-North Carolina lineman at E.E. Kicker

5–10 • 189 • Third Year
Fourth Round-a (98th), 2001
College: South Florida
DOB: July 10, 1978
Hometown: La Belle, Florida

Pro Career: Selected by Cardinals in fourth round (98th overall) of 2001 NFL Draft … left-footed version of brother, Martin, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' kicker … set franchise rookie records in 2001 for field goals (14) and longest three-pointer (50 yards) before impressive first season was cut short by freakish knee injury … landed awkwardly on right knee after leaping to celebrate 42-yard first-quarter field goal at N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15) … eventually underwent reconstructive surgery for torn anterior cruciate ligament … rebounded nicely last year to lead Cards in scoring with 74 points.

2002: Encouraging return from reconstructive knee surgery to make 15 of 21 field-goal tries and all 29 points after touchdown for 74 points … impressive 14-for-17 in three-point tries inside 50 yards … in first regular-season action following spring and summer of rehabilitation, converted three of four field-goal attempts and added a pair of points after touchdown in season-opener at Washington (Sept. 8) … tied game in first quarter with 36-yard field goal and added 20-yarder in second period to give Cards a 13–10 halftime lead … good from 39 yards in third period to bring Cards within 17–16, but saw 52-yard try near end of third quarter sail just wide right … three of five deep kickoffs traveled inside the five-yard line … 23-yard field goal in first quarter to tie game at 3–3 in eventual 24–13 win at Seattle (Sept. 15) … opened scoring at Carolina (Oct. 6) with 41-yard field goal in second quarter, added a 28-yarder just before halftime to cut deficit to 7–6, then nailed 50-yarder with 16 seconds left for the 16–13 final … added some suspense to the ending, however, when his ensuing kickoff sailed out of bounds at the eight-yard line to give Carolina a first down at its own 40-yard line … Card defense bailed him out after three plays to complete the win … accounted for all nine points in 9–6 overtime win vs. Dallas (Oct. 20) … converted 28-yard field goal in first quarter, short on 53-yard try later in opening period, then added a 23-yard field goal at the end of first half for a 6–0 lead … misfired from 28 and 51 yards in fourth quarter before overtime heroics with 40-yarder for the win … converted field goals of 40 and 27 yards for Cards' only points of game vs. Seattle (Nov. 10) … perfect on three field goals vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) with first attempts in four weeks … 29-yard three-pointer in third period to cut Detroit lead to 20–17, then added a 41-yarder with 3:23 remaining in regulation for 20–20 tie … hit the third-down overtime game-winner from 42 yards with just under four minutes gone in the extra period … four points after touchdown at St. Louis (Dec. 15) … wide right on 40-yard field-goal attempt vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21) … only action in season finale at Denver (Dec. 29) was two kickoffs and one point after touchdown.

2001: In 13 games before knee injury, connected 16 of 20 field-goal attempts, perfect on 25 points after touchdown, and logged eight touchbacks in 53 kickoffs for 73 points … six touchbacks after five games (19 kickoffs) tied for league lead with brother Martin … scored Cards' first points of the season with 28-yard field goal midway through first quarter vs. Denver (Sept. 23) to give Arizona 3–0 lead … hero of 21–20 upset win at Philadelphia (Oct. 7) when he atoned for pushing 30-yard chip shot in swirling wind wide left in third quarter with game-winning points on point-after-touchdown conversion with nine seconds remaining in 21–20 comeback … aided by the same wind, sailed game-opening kickoff nine yards deep into the end zone, two more to the minus four- and minus three-yard lines … solid outing at Chicago (Oct. 14) with field goals of 40 and 47 yards … connected on the first three-pointer early in second quarter to tie game at 3–3, then added the 47-yarder with a swirling wind later in the period to bring Cards within 10–6 … first of two freakish 2002 injuries occurred vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 4) when he suffered dislocated left shoulder on opening kickoff attempting arm tackle of Eagle returner Brian Mitchell who was en route to a 94-yard touchdown … after the shoulder was reduced, Gramatica wore a harness for duration of game for extra point and ensuing kickoff … later in contest after punter Scott Player sustained ankle sprain, Gramatica was called upon for a 41-yard punt in the second quarter before Player returned to finish the game … with left shoulder heavily immobilized vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 11), kicked 32-yard field goal in first half and recorded one touchback on three kickoffs … set Cardinal rookie record with 50-yard field goal in fourth quarter vs. Detroit (Nov. 18) and converted all six points after touchdown in 45–38 victory … came through again in the clutch at San Diego (Nov. 25) by pushing the Cards to a 10–3 lead with 18-yard field goal in third quarter, then nailed game-winner with one second left from 42 yards in 20–17 win … shared NFC special teams player-of-the-week award with brother Martin as the pair both kicked game-winning field goals the weekend of Dec. 2 … first NFL walk-off game-winning field goal Dec. 2 at Oakland, a 36-yarder in overtime to propel Cards to an unlikely 34–31 victory … the game-winner was the last of four field goals on the day … booted second-quarter field goals of 23 and 26 yards as Cards took 20–7 halftime lead … added 33-yarder in the third quarter, pushed a 48-yard try into swirling wind wide left with 5:38 to play, then hammered home the game-winner on third down in the extra period … celebrated the victory with a somersault … snubbed a 44-yarder in first quarter vs. Washington (Dec. 9), then connected on a 24-yarder in second quarter to set a Cardinal rookie record with 14 field goals, breaking the previous mark of 13 by Gerry Perry (20 attempts) in 1960 … converted from 42 and 26 yards at N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15) in final appearance of season … upon celebrating after the 42-yarder in the first quarter, landed awkwardly on right knee and was unable to kick off the duration of the game, managing only a 23-yard field goal in the second quarter … placed on injured reserve Dec. 18 for remainder of season.

College/Personal: Enjoyed a stellar career at South Florida (U.S.F.) after one season at Florida State … U.S.F.'s first all-America football selection in 1998 … holds school career records with 36 field goals and 193 points … converted 85 of 88 extra-point attempts … as a senior in 2000, connected on 16 of 24 field-goals attempts and 29 of 30 point-after-touchdown tries for a team-leading 77 points … closed college career in impressive fashion by booting a 63-yard field goal vs. Austin Peay, the second-longest field goal without a tee in NCAA history, topped only by his brother's 65-yarder for Kansas State vs. Northern Illinois in 1998 … all-Florida class 3A first-team selection at La Belle (Fla.) High School and USA Today all-America honorable mention … set school record with 52-yard field goal … communications major at South Florida … older brother, Martin, was a three-time all-America place kicker at Kansas State … prior to a Tampa Bay Mutiny professional soccer game at Raymond James Stadium on July 21, 2001, joined brother Martin and younger brother Santiago, a kicker at South Florida, to aid victims of the June 23, 2001 earthquake in Peru ... the Gramatica brothers signed autographs and collected non-perishable food, supplies, and medical and clothing donations ... their parents, William, Sr. and Laura, were honored as "Hispanic Heroes" at halftime of the soccer game for their charitable work in Tampa ... participates with family in www.kick7.com to raise funds for the Gramatica Family Foundation ... speaks fluent English, French, and Castillian ... Pro Career: One of NFL's most coveted free agents during 2001 off-season signed with Arizona March 12, 2001 … high-character ironman throughout NFL career … started 74 of 75 games with Seattle, including his last 73 consecutive contests … battled through injuries in two seasons as a Cardinal with 23 starts in as many appearances … former 1996 first-round draft choice (21st overall) by Seahawks from Boston College where he played for former Arizona offensive line coach George Warhop (currently with Dallas Cowboys) as junior and senior.

2001 (Cardinals): Started first 11 games at left guard ... suffered foot sprain at Oakland (Dec. 2) ... inactive vs. Washington (Dec. 9) to end string of 84 consecutive starts ... spent two more games on inactive list, then placed on injured reserve Dec. 26 ... injury diagnosed as LisFranc ligament sprain ... surgery to insert four screws in left foot performed by Dr. William Hamilton Jan. 18, 2002 ... procedure involved placing a screw in his left foot to stabilize the tarsal/metatarsal joint to allow the LisFranc ligament to heal.

2000 (Seahawks): Ran consecutive starting streak to 73 games at left guard ... highlight of season at Denver (Dec. 10) as offensive line did not allow a sack in consecutive games for the first time in 324 contests ... only missed playing time due to stinger in first quarter at Carolina (Oct. 8) and fourth-quarter concussion at Oakland (Oct. 22).

1999 (Seahawks): Started all 16 regular-season games and one playoff contest vs. Miami (Jan. 9) ... named second team all-pro by Football Digest ... anchored offensive line that enabled quarterback Jon Kitna to rank fourth in AFC with 3,346 passing yards ... Seattle's 25 touchdown passes ranked second to Indianapolis in the conference.

1998 (Seahawks): Started 16 games at left guard and also saw spot action at center ... helped Seattle explode for 406 yards in total offense in 38–0 win at Philadelphia (Sept. 6) in season-opener ... played over three quarters at center vs. Oakland (Nov. 1) after starter Kevin Glover left in the first quarter with a back injury ... also played center for one series vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 29).

1997 (Seahawks): Missed just five of 1,042 plays on offense as starting left guard ... missed one play vs. San Diego (Sept. 21) and four at Baltimore (Dec. 7) ... member of offensive line that helped club establish franchise records for total yards (5,759) and passing yards (4,187) ... Seahawks finished season ranked third in total offense in the NFL.

1996 (Seahawks): Second Seattle rookie to start season-opener at guard since Edwin Bailey in 1981 ... started 11 of 12 games ... missed four contests with knee injury ... returned to action in reserve role at Kansas City (Oct. 17) ... finished season as starter.

College/Personal: Four-year starter at Boston College and two-time all-Big East Conference selection as junior and senior ... started at right guard as freshman and concluded career at left tackle ... awarded degree in marketing from Boston College in 1995 ... consensus prep all-America and New England player-of-the-year at Archbishop Williams High School in Braintree, Mass. ... also all-scholastic pick and one of 11 players to earn National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame scholar-athlete award recognition ... all-Catholic league honors as first baseman in baseball ... father, Pete, played football at Rhode Island and is a retired member of the Quincy, Massachusetts police department ... part of Seattle offensive line that contributed over $40,000 in 1997 through its "Building Blocks for Kids" program to build a pediatrics playroom at Kirkland (Wash.) Evergreen Hospital ... hosted radio show on a Seattle all-sports station as a Seahawk ... wife Michelle, sons Peter and Andrew, daughter Madison ... the family resides in Marshfield, Massachusetts.

Pro Career: Unheralded free agent from North Alabama (NCAA Division II) has emerged as a playmaker and leader of the Cardinal defense … in 109 NFL games (93 starts), owns 1,056 tackles (560 solo), 10 quarterback sacks, 6 fumble recoveries, and 10 interceptions … in 1999, became first Cardinal to crack the 200-total tackle plateau with 223 stops, in 2000 the first to hit 200 tackles in consecutive seasons with 208 total tackles … size and intensity remindful of former NFL standouts Sam Mills and Nick Buoniconti … entrenched as starting middle linebacker in 1998 after assuming the position early in 1997 following incumbent Eric Hill's broken ankle in the season-opener at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) … unique talent and versatility overcame Hill's free-agency departure to the St. Louis Rams after the 1997 season … led Arizona with 145 combined tackles in 1997, his first season as a starter … answered with 127 tackles and five interceptions in '98 despite missing three games with a knee sprain … three interceptions vs. Chicago (Oct. 11, 1998) is team single-game record for a linebacker and an NFL linebacker first since Minnesota Viking (and first-year Jacksonville Jaguars' head coach) Jack Del Rio intercepted three passes against Detroit (Dec. 5, 1993) … prior to Del Rio, the previous NFL linebacker to intercept three passes in one game was Miami's Larry Gordon vs. Oakland (Dec. 10, 1978) … named NFC defensive player-of-the-week for the accomplishment … five 1998 interceptions tied for league lead among linebackers and equalled Card record for linebackers held by E.J. Junior (1985) and Leo Sanford (1956).

2002: Started all 16 games and led club in tackles for fourth consecutive season … 150 tackles (85 solos), 7 quarterback hurries, 4 tackles for loss, and 3 pass deflections … also appeared in 100th NFL game (vs. Dallas, Oct. 20), made 500th career solo tackle (at Seattle, Sept. 15), and notched 1,000th career total tackle (at Philadelphia, Nov. 17) … led defense in season-opener at Washington (Sept. 8) with 15 combined tackles as he was on field for nearly entire first half when Redskins' no-huddle prevented usual substitution patterns on defense … 11 tackles in next two consecutive outings—24–13 win at Seattle (Sept. 15), vs. San Diego (Sept. 22) … seven combined stops in 21–7 win vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 29) … 5 solo tackles, 2 assists, and 1 tackle for loss in 16–13 win at Carolina (Oct. 6), including key assist in first quarter as Panthers ran fake punt on fourth-and-eight down from Cardinal 36-yard line, teaming with linebacker Ray Thompson and defensive end Fred Wakefield for the stop ... nine stops and a hurry in 9–6 win vs. Dallas (Oct. 20) ... team-best 11 combined tackles, including one stop for loss, and a pair of hurries in pass-rush situations at San Francisco (Oct. 27) ... six combined tackles vs. St. Louis (Nov. 3) included forceful tackle of Ram tailback Marshall Faulk after a six-yard fourth-quarter gain ... with pass coverage linebacker Rob Fredrickson injured (shoulder), met the challenge and stayed in the game in passing situations vs. Seattle (Nov. 10), providing 8 solo tackles, 10 combined stops including a tackle for loss, 1 quarterback hurry, and 1 pass deflection... six assists in 23–20 overtime win vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) ... team-best 10 tackles and pair of quarterback hurries at St. Louis (Dec. 15) ... 10 tackles and a hurry vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21) ... concluded season with nine tackles and a pass deflection at Denver (Dec. 29).

2001: Irrepressible in the middle once again with team-best 190 total tackles (99 solo), 2 quarterback sacks, 5 hurries, 6 tackles for loss, 4 passes defensed, 1 interception, 2 fumble recoveries, and 1 forced fumble ... also scored first career points with interception and fumble returns for touchdowns ... five games with 15 or more tackles, 10 with at least six solo stops ... opened season with 11 tackles and a hurry vs. Denver (Sept. 23) ... 12 stops vs. Atlanta (Sept. 30) ... nine tackles in 21–20 upset win at Philadelphia (Oct. 7) ... team-best 16 stops at Chicago (Oct. 14) ... vaulted over the 750-career total tackle mark with one solo stop and five assists in 24–16 win over Kansas City (Oct. 21) ... led defense vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 4) with 13 combined tackles, including a third-quarter sack of quarterback Donovan McNabb ... season-best 18 combined tackles with nine solo stops and nine assists vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 11) ... with Fredrickson limited (knee), was on field for 85 snaps vs. Detroit (Nov. 18), including his first nickel defense duties of the season, notching 18 tackles, 2 hurries, and 2 pass deflections in 45–38 win ... impressive outing in 20–17 win at San Diego (Nov. 25) with team-best 15 tackles, 1 tackle for loss, 1 batted pass, and 1 recovered fumble (running back LaDanian Tomlinson in the third quarter) ... inspirational effort at Oakland (Dec. 2) ... suffered broken right thumb in second half ... after locker-room x-rays, returned to finish the game with casted thumb ... upon returning to sideline, Card Head Coach Dave McGinnis told him he couldn't play because he could not grasp with his injured hand ... as McGinnis walked away, he felt someone grab him from behind ... it was McKinnon, who responded, "See, I can grab." ... "Then get in there," McGinnis answered ... finished game with 12 tackles, including a one-yard sack of scrambling Raider passer Rich Gannon on third-and-goal play at the Cardinal six-yard line with two minutes left, forcing Oakland to settle for a field goal and a 24–23 lead, and setting the stage for the Cards' eventual 34–31 overtime victory ... despite playing with casted right hand/thumb, managed four solo tackles and six assists vs. Washington (Dec. 9) ... spirited game at N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15) with seven tackles, including two tackles for loss, and strip of Giant running back Tiki Barber on swing pass in fourth quarter ... intercepted a Quincy Carter pass deflected by Card lineman Marcus Bell and sped 24 yards into the end zone in 17–10 win over Dallas (Dec. 23) for McKinnon's first NFL touchdown ... the play was reminiful of Cardinal Hall of Famer Larry Wilson, who intercepted a Bill Nelsen pass with both hands in casts vs. Pittsburgh on Nov. 7, 1965 ... it marked McKinnon's 10th career interception ... added 11 tackles and a pass deflection ... second consecutive game with touchdown on turnover return at Carolina (Dec. 30) ... after teammate David Barrett stripped Carolina running back Richard Huntley at the 26-yard line on the second play of the game, McKinnon scooped the ball and raced 25 yards for the score in 30–7 win ... McKinnon became the first Cardinal to score defensive touchdowns in consecutive games since 1990 (Marcus Turner) ... concluded impressive season at Washington (Jan. 6) with 17 combined tackles, including nine solo stops for the fifth time, and added seven assists and a tackle for loss.

2000: Only member of Cards' front seven (linemen/linebackers) to start all 16 games ... team-best 131 solo tackles, 77 assists, 4 quarterback sacks, 8 tackles for loss, 4 pass deflections, 1 forced fumble, and 1 fumble recovery ... 208 combined tackles ranked second to safety Pat Tillman (224) ... 14 double-digit tackle efforts, including 11 consecutive outings (games three-13) ... opened season at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) with team-high 11 tackles, including six solo stops and two tackles for loss ... kept Cards in the game with outstanding one-yard stoning of Giant powerhouse Ron Dayne on first-and-goal at the Card five yard-line in third quarter that eventually resulted in Card end-zone interception two plays later ... 5 solo tackles, 3 assists, and 1 hurry in 32–31 win over Dallas (Sept. 10) ... led defense vs. Green Bay (Sept. 24) with 10 solo tackles, 14 overall ... season-high 16 combined tackles with career-best 12 solo stops and four assists in 29–21 victory over Cleveland (Oct. 8) ... 13 combined tackles vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) ... 10 solo tackles at Dallas (Oct. 22) along with first sack of the season ... blitzed up the middle in second quarter with Dallas at the Card five-yard line as Cowboys eventually settled for field goal ... active day against Jets (Nov. 7) netted 34-yard average ... rebounded with 45-yard average on five efforts in 23–19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... impressive day vs. Dallas (Nov. 21) with 42.2-yard average on five punts, including first-half boots of 51, 48, and 49 yards ... Sanders fielded just one punt and ran out of bounds after five yards ... also did fine job of baiting Cowboy rushers on first-quarter fake punt when he feigned high snap over his head as up-back Pat Tillman took the snap from center Trey Junkin and ran up the middle for four yards and a first down ... took intentional safety near end of the 13–9 win as he ran 14 seconds off the clock late in fourth quarter, then knocked Sanders out of bounds after the ensuing free kick ... punts of 39, season-long 60, 52, and 53 yards translated into season-best 51-yard average in 21–17 win over Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... three punts for 44.3-yard average at Atlanta (Dec. 26) ... concluded season with three boots for 43.3-yard average and two inside-the-20 efforts at Green Bay (Jan. 2).

1998: As a 28-year-old NFL "rookie," punted 81 times for 3,378 yards which translated into NFC rankings of 11th in gross average (41.7 yards) and 10th in net average (35.9 yards) ... ranked third in NFC with just six touchbacks in 81 punts for 7.4 percent mark ... also dropped 12 punts inside the 20-yard line ... one blocked punt ... hit the ground running in first NFL game at Dallas (Sept. 6) with six punts for 44.2-yard average in first half, eight for 46-yard mark for the day ... suffered calf muscle pull on scout team in practice Wednesday prior to game vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) ... after considerable treatment throughout week, kicked by Friday and managed seven punts for 36.4-yard average vs. Eagles ... first two punts were good for 46 and 50 yards, but final five showed effects of calf injury ... steady effort with five punts for 40-yard average and 39.6-yard net in 20–17 win at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... best effort since season-opener with 44-yard average on six punts vs. Oakland (Oct. 4), including three inside-the-20 efforts ... punted for 41 and 55 yards in first half vs. Chicago (Oct. 11) ... fourth-quarter punt blocked by Ricky Bell, only to have teammate Ronald McKinnon snatch the ball out of the air and run for a first down ... closed game with season-long 67-yarder to the Bear three-yard line with 1:15 left in 20–7 win ... solid 42.6-yard average and 35.2-yard net mark vs. N.Y. Giants at the Meadowlands (Oct. 18) ... rose to the challenge of Cowboy returner Sanders vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with directional boots of 48 and 46 yards ... the former pinned Sanders on the sideline for a one-yard return, the latter was downed ... outstanding 47-yard gross and 46.5-yard net average for the day ... punted three times for 39.7-yard average in first half at Washington (Nov. 22), including a 47-yarder in first quarter that Redskin Mitchell muffed and Cards recovered and converted into 3–0 lead ... later booted 20-yarder to the Redskin 16-yard line with 1:30 left as Cards were treading water against relentless Skin comeback from 31-point deficit to pull within 45–42 ... however, Washington was penalized for 12 men on the field on that fourth-and-six play, giving Arizona a fourth-and-one that was stopped by Washington … impressive game at Kansas City (Nov. 29) with 46.8-yard average on five punts, including first-half boots of 52, 51, and 51 yards … after kicker Joe Nedney was injured on fourth-quarter kickoff that had to be re-kicked due to offsides penalty, handled the place-kicking duty, a squib kick the Chiefs covered on their own 33-yard line … re-kicked first attempt, however, when he booted the ball before the referee gave him the signal to put it in play … averaged 43.4 yards on seven punts with one inside the 20-yard line in 16–13 win over San Diego (Dec. 27), his best average in four weeks and top net (39.4) since Nov. 15 vs. Dallas (46.5) … flawless effort in 20–7 wild-card victory at Dallas (Jan. 2) with eight punts for 37.9-yard average and three inside-the-20 efforts at the 11, 10, and 1-yard lines … forced Sanders into two fair catches, Tyrone Hughes into one, and allowed Hughes one 11-yard return until Sanders shook loose for a 41-yard return in the fourth quarter to set up Dallas' only touchdown of the game … capped the victory with 36-yard punt with one minute left that Fred Brock downed at the one-yard line … two punts for 36-yard average in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10).

College/Personal: Former walk-on at Florida State University (F.S.U.) … originally played collegiate baseball (catcher) in Florida at Flagler College and Florida Community College … rotator cuff injury stalled baseball career … despite F.S.U. having two punters on scholarship, earned punting duties as a senior … punted 45 times for 1,820 yards, good for a 40.4-yard average for the 11–2 Seminoles … in 1991 season-ending 14–9 loss to Florida, posted 50-yard average on six punts, highlighted by two 60-yarders and a 57-yarder … played football and baseball at St. Augustine (Fla.) High School … interests include classic cars and golf … owns bachelor's degree in education from F.S.U. … wife Julianne, daughters Ava Anne and Margeau Scott … born Dec. 17, 1969 in St. Augustine.

Pro Career: Selected by Arizona in sixth round (190th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft … played in all 16 games in '99, spent the entire 2000 season on injured reserve following reconstructive knee surgery from a preseason injury, appeared in 13 games in 2001 and 16 outings (two starts) last year … in 45 NFL games, owns 28 tackles (22 solos), 1 interception, and 46 special-teams tackles.

2002: Played in all 16 games (two starts) … led Arizona's special teams with 18 tackles and 65 "blocks" … 18 tackles (16 solos), 1 tackle for loss, 3 pass deflections, and 1 interception from scrimmage … one punt return for 18 yards … clutch first career interception at Carolina (Oct. 6) with just under six minutes left as Cards converted the turnover into a touchdown to pull even at 13–13 in 16–13 overtime win … added two tackles on special teams … two tackles from scrimmage vs.

Dallas (Oct. 20) plus two tackles on kick coverage and five blocks on kick-return units in 9–6 win … came off bench to relieve injured starter Renaldo Hill (foot) in first quarter at San Francisco (Oct. 27), recording one tackle for loss in 40 plays … also scooped a loose punt for an 18-yard return … downed a punt at the three-yard line at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) … started vs. Oakland (Nov. 24) as extra defensive back, posting one solo tackle from scrimmage … one solo tackle and a pass deflection vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) two solo tackles and two assists on special teams in 23–20 overtime win … started at strong safety in place of Adrian Wilson (hamstring) at Denver (Dec. 29) and led secondary with six solo tackles and a pass deflection.

2001: Played in 13 games, primarily on special teams … inactive for three outings … admirable return from reconstructive knee surgery, showing little or no effects … 4 solo tackles, 4 assists from scrimmage, and 11 tackles with 50 "blocks" on special teams … outstanding game on special teams at Chicago (Oct. 13) with 2 tackles, 1 forced fumble, and 3 blocks … nailed Chicago returner Glyn Milburn on opening kickoff of second half with fierce hit, popping the ball loose … Card linebacker Zack Walz recovered at the Chicago 30-yard line … contributed to 17–10 win over Dallas (Dec. 23) with 3 tackles from scrimmage, 1 tackle, and 6 blocks on special teams … added two tackles from scrimmage, one solo stop on kick-coverage units in 30–7 win at Carolina.

2000: Suffered severe knee injury in preseason outing at Minnesota (Aug. 18) … stepped awkwardly in pass coverage, appearing to catch right foot on seam of second-base sliding insert on artificial surface in Metrodome … sustained torn anterior cruciate and lateral collateral ligaments in right knee … underwent reconstructive surgery Aug. 29 … the surface also claimed two teammates to season-ending injuries the same night—cornerback J.J. McCleskey (fractured right ankle) and wide receiver Rob Moore (torn anterior cruciate ligament in left knee) … placed on injured reserve Aug. 22.

1999: Concluded rookie season as team leader with 77 "blocks" on special teams, adding 17 tackles on kick coverage … appeared in all 16 games … three solo tackles in kick coverage in season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) … fine special-teams outing in 14–3 win vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with four solo tackles and forcing fumble by Giant returner Amani Toomer in the fourth quarter that rolled out of bounds, leaving Giants in possession … five blocks on special teams and assisted on muffed punt recovery by teammate Mario Bates vs. Washington (Oct. 17) when he drove Redskin Darryl Pounds backwards and the ball bounced off the back of his leg … added three solo tackles on special teams in 34–24 victory at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) … registered on the defensive scrimmage ledger vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19) with a solo tackle and hurry … one solo tackle from scrimmage with extended playing time in second half at Atlanta (Dec. 26) … concluded rookie season with two tackles on special teams at Green Bay (Jan. 2).

College/Personal: Mainstay in the Southern Methodist secondary … expanded role as senior in 1998 by also performing as a wide receiver in addition to handling return chores … all-Western Athletic Conference (W.A.C.) first-team selection in '98 at cornerback … Senior Bowl most valuable player for the South squad following senior season … recipient of the Project Tomorrow endowment, created by the Salvation Army Dallas County Advisory Board, enabling gifted youths to attend Tyler Street Christian Academy in his native Dallas … class 2-A all-Texas selection as a high school senior with 35 receptions for 678 yards (19.4-yard average) and nine touchdowns … also a standout basketball player, averaging 18 points as a senior for the two-time state champions … four-year letter winner in both football and basketball … member of the National Honor Society … won his school's math and science award … advertising major at Southern Methodist … recipient of the 1989 Dallas Boy-of-the-Year Award from the Salvation Army … given name is Jacoby … wife Shandra … daughter Jaelah … born Feb. 7, 1977.

Pro Career: Huge ex-basketball player now an anchor of Arizona's imposing offensive line … along with right tackle Anthony Clement forms talented bookend tackle combo for Cardinals … Arizona's second selection of first round (21st overall) in 1999 NFL Draft … father, Lonnie, played in the NBA for 10 seasons, was an all-star in 1979–80, and played for the 1978 NBA champion Seattle SuperSonics … has started 53 of 55 appearances at left tackle over four seasons, including the full 16-game slates the past two years.

2002: Dubbed "The Last Man Standing" by teammates as only offensive linemen to withstand the season's rash of injuries … only offensive line starter to answer the bell 16 times … battled through ankle injury that required postseason surgery to start every game and line up for 994 of 1,003 offensive snaps … left 24–13 win at Seattle (Sept. 15) with ankle sprain after helping tailback Thomas Jones rush for career-best 173 yards … returned to lineup and played entire game the following week vs. San Diego (Sept. 22).

2001: Logged first full season as 16-game starter at left tackle as he and Clement each played all 955 offensive plays … key component of offensive line that allowed just 29 quarterback sacks, second fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season … the 1978 line allowed 22 sacks and featured three Pro Bowlers—center Tom Banks, tackle Dan Dierdorf, and guard Bob Young.

1999: Missed rookie training camp during protracted contract negotiations … signed Sept. 25 two games into the regular season … roster exemption for two more games … appeared as reserve in first two NFL appearances—Oct. 10 vs. N.Y. Giants and Oct. 17 vs. Washington … first NFL start in third game Oct. 31 vs. New England … started seven consecutive games … ankle sprain in second half of seventh start Dec. 12 at Washington effectively ended his season … replaced by Matt Joyce … Friday inactive next two games, game-day inactive for season finale at Green Bay (Jan. 2).

College/Personal: All-America second-team selection by The Sports Network as senior and two-time all-Mid-American Conference first-team choice at Eastern Michigan … graded 90 percent for blocking consistency as senior, registering a career-high 102 knockdowns for an offense that gained 3,985 yards … three-year starter at left tackle … as a junior, protected the blind side of current Steeler quarterback Charlie Batch … earned all-league, all-county honorable mention, and all-area in basketball as a junior and senior at Rochester High School, Rochester Hills, Michigan … served as basketball captain, averaging 13 points and 12.3 rebounds per game as a senior … also named to the all-league team in football, competing as an offensive lineman … dropped football his senior season to concentrate on basketball … telecommunications and film major at Eastern Michigan … ironically, lived near former Card, Lion, N.Y. Giant, and Buccaneer left tackle Lomas Brown in Rochester Hills … now fills Brown's vacated left-tackle position in the Arizona offensive line … worked out with Brown at Rochester Adams High School … brother Marlon completed his four-year basketball career at the University of Washington last season… born March 21, 1976 in Rochester Hills.

REVIEW

It began encouragingly.

Arizona entered Head Coach Dave McGinnis' second full season at its helm brimming with optimism. After winning five of their final eight games in 2001, the team, still one of the youngest in the National Football League, continued on the same path at the outset of 2002 by winning four of its first six assignments. The Cardinals jumped to a 3–2 start, the first time since 1991 they sported a record over .500 five games into a season. The next week they improved to their first 4–2 start since 1988.

But it ended in painful resignation.

A new member of the Western Division of the realigned NFL's National Football Conference, the Cardinals headed to San Francisco the eighth week of the season for a first-place divisional showdown with the 49ers. Besides a 38–28 loss, Arizona began to suffer a stunning progression of injuries, primarily on offense, that eventually robbed the squad of its stinger and spelled defeat in nine of the final 10 contests.

Dave McGinnis led the 2002 Cardinals through an injury-plagued season.

Injuries

Injuries unquestionably were the story of the Cardinals' 2002 season.

An imposing offensive line that figured to be the team's anchor didn't play a single game as a unit. The speedy receiving corps was decimated, losing three of its first four members during a two-week mid-season span and eventually its fourth four weeks later. Three different players made starts at running back.

Arizona lost 95 starter and replacement starter games to injury. To compound matters, most of the injuries occurred on offense and most during the season's second half. By the campaign's end, there were 16 players on reserve lists—14 on "injured reserve," two on "reserve/non-football injury." Eight were starters — wide receiver David Boston (knee), tackle Anthony Clement (triceps), tackle Leonard Davis (knee), outside linebacker Rob Fredrickson (neck), center Mike Gruttadauria (knee), guard Pete Kendall (knee), running back Thomas Jones (hand), and wide receiver Frank Sanders (foot). Four would have been replacement starters — tackle John Fina (ankle), outside linebacker Levar Fisher (knee), wide receiver Bryan Gilmore (leg), and wide receiver/kickoff returner MarTay Jenkins (shoulder).

By comparison, the Cardinals lost just 60 starter games to injury in 2001 when there were only 10 players on "injured reserve" by season's end. Only four were offensive or defensive starters and just two missed over five games.

By the time Arizona traveled to Denver for the regular-season finale, the Cards faced the Broncos without their top four wide receivers (Boston, Gilmore, Jenkins, and Sanders), four of their five starting offensive linemen (Clement, Davis, Gruttadauria, and Kendall), and the regular running back (Jones) on offense, and one linebacker (Fredrickson) and two defensive backs (cornerback David Barrett, strong safety Adrian Wilson) on defense.

In all, 41 players started games for the 2002 Cardinals.

"I have never experienced anything like it in 17 years (in the NFL)," McGinnis offers, "but it was the reality of what happened. It surprised me we had as many long term injuries as we did."

Injury Fallout

The injury-induced flotsam spawned inspirational and occasionally humorous anecdotes.

Wide receiver and kick returner Kevin Kasper, claimed from Seattle November 22, returned six kickoffs against Oakland two days later before his first practice as a Cardinal. Two weeks later, he was a starting wide receiver, catching 15 passes for 180 yards and the first three touchdowns of his career in starting assignments in the final four outings.

Following Kasper's 56-yard kickoff return against the Raiders that ended in front of the Cardinals' bench, defensive line coach and Hall of Famer Joe Greene looked at McGinnis and said, "Nice return, Mac. Who was that?"

Wide receiver Nathan Poole, who had participated in Arizona's training camp as a free agent in 2001 and '02 without making the squad either year, was summoned in late October from his post-football job at a children's home in North Carolina to provide depth to the depleted receiving corps. After spending a week on the practice squad, he caught 11 passes for 98 yards in seven appearances, including a start December 8 against Detroit when he caught a pivotal 10-yard touchdown pass in Arizona's 23–20 overtime victory.

Damien Anderson, a rookie free-agent running back from Northwestern, went from the practice squad to starter for Arizona's 16–13 week five victory at Carolina due to injuries to Jones and Marcel Shipp. Anderson outrushed the entire Panther team in his clutch 23-carry (61 yards), three-reception (36 yards), error-free performance that earned him an active-roster spot for the remainder of the season.

Another training-camp call-back, guard Tony Wragge, was re-enrolled at New Mexico State to complete his bachelor's degree. Summoned in late October for offensive-line depth, Wragge left the classroom to pursue his NFL dream in time to appear in three late-season games when o-line injuries mounted, even starting the finale at Denver.

Veteran linebacker Greg Jones, a former Redskin and Bear still looking for an opportunity in early December when the Cardinals called, signed December 11. He played in the final three games, starting the last home assignment vs. San Francisco.

Offense

The Cardinals' offense gamely fought to overcome the unprecedented injuries with a revolving door of players. Only quarterback Jake Plummer, left tackle L.J. Shelton, and tight end Freddie Jones started every game.

The undaunted Plummer eclipsed the 15,000-yard career passing plateau in September. All five of Arizona's victories qualified as "comebacks," raising the six-year veteran's career total to 21. His 80-yard touchdown pass to Shipp at St. Louis on December 15 was the longest completion of Plummer's career and Arizona's longest play from scrimmage in 223 games (93-yard touchdown pass, Neil Lomax to Ernie Jones, December 10, 1988 vs. Philadelphia).

Plummer's 18 touchdown passes equaled his career high.

He finished the season with 284 completions in 530 attempts for 2,972 yards, raising his career totals to 84 games played (82 starts), 1,540 completions in 2,754 attempts for 17,622 yards to rank third in franchise history behind Jim Hart and Neil Lomax, respectively, in all three categories.

Plummer's career-high 283 rushing yards included a 34-yard touchdown run at San Francisco on October 27, the longest rush of his career.

Shelton, dubbed "The Last Man Standing" by teammates as the only offensive lineman to withstand the season's rash of injuries, enjoyed his best campaign. Media covering the team voted him the 2002 Lloyd Herberg Courage Award winner, an accolade given annually to a Cardinal for perseverance and overcoming obstacles in the name of the former Arizona Republic sportswriter who covered the team while battling cancer. Shelton fought through a painful early-season ankle injury to start every game and answer the bell for 994 of 1,003 offensive plays.

F. Jones, a high-profile, off-season, free-agent signee, rewarded the team's investment by leading the Cards in receiving with 44 receptions, the fifth-highest tight-end total in team history, for 358 yards. His only touchdown, a 10-yard grab at Carolina on October 6, tied the contest at 13–13 with only 2:38 remaining in the fourth quarter in Arizona's eventual 16–13 victory, their third in the season's first five outings.

F. Jones became the first tight end to lead the Cards in receiving since Hall of Famer Jackie Smith's 41-reception campaign in 1973. Jones' 44 catches also were the most by a Cardinal tight end since Smith grabbed 45 tosses in 1968.

"Freddie Jones is exactly what we wanted," McGinnis assesses. "He was a good acquisition for us."

Unquestionably, Shipp was the brightest light of a dark season. He seized his mid-season opportunity after T. Jones, the starter, broke his hand. In only six starts, the second-year free agent from UMass, utilized almost exclusively on special teams as a rookie, became the Cards' no. 1 rusher (834 yards), no. 1 touchdown scorer (9), no. 2 scorer (54 points), and no. 2 receiver (38 receptions). Shipp's 54 points placed him in a ninth-place NFC scoring tie for non-kickers.

Shipp was on the receiving end of Plummer's 80-yard pass at St. Louis on December 15 and added two rushing touchdowns for three overall, a Cardinal first since Plummer rushed for three six-pointers November 22, 1998 at Washington.

Shipp finished the season with 1,247 total yards from scrimmage on 226 touches (188 rushes for 834 yards, 38 receptions for 407 yards) to finish with a 5.5-yard average, second in the National Football Conference to Minnesota running back Michael Bennett (5.6-yard average) and fifth in the NFL. Shipp's 5.52-yard average also is the best by a Cardinal since fullback Larry Centers averaged 5.54 yards in 1996 (116 rushes for 425 yards, 99 receptions for 766 yards).

"When Marcel got his chance, he did something with it," McGinnis lauds. "He is only going to get better. Marcel Shipp is a good back."

Shipp was rewarded with a new four-year contract prior to the December 29 season finale at Denver.

Prior to breaking his hand, T. Jones enjoyed his finest day as a professional September 15 at Seattle. He registered 173 yards on 24 carries, both career highs, including a 58-yard third-quarter touchdown burst, the longest run of his career, in the inaugural game at Seahawks Stadium, a 24–13 Arizona victory. Jones' 173-yard day was the best effort by a Cardinal running back since Adrian Murrell rushed for 174 yards at Philadelphia on December 13, 1998.

T. Jones' 173-yard day highlighted Arizona's 249 rushing yards at Seattle, the franchise's best rushing effort in 93 games (267 at New Orleans, September 22, 1996) and its first 200-yard rushing day since amassing 204 yards December 13, 1998 at Philadelphia.

Injuries sent the offensive line into a state of flux from the outset when a preseason game claimed right tackle Clement, who eventually underwent two surgeries for two separate torn triceps injuries. The consequence moved right guard Davis to right tackle and inserted former starter Chris Dishman to right guard. Center Gruttadauria was lost for the remainder of the season when he suffered a knee injury in the season's eighth game vs. St. Louis. He was replaced by Jason Starkey. Left guard Kendall missed the final four games after suffering a knee injury at Kansas City on December 1. Raleigh Roundtree replaced him. Finally, Davis was felled by a knee injury in the next to last game, moving Roundtree to right tackle and introducing Wragge to live fire. Veteran Fina, who, like Roundtree, was signed for depth after the season's first game, was not available to fill any of the voids over the final seven weeks after suffering a severely sprained ankle in a relief role vs. St. Louis in early November.

The speedy receiving corps was left limping. Boston, Jenkins, and Gilmore all were lost for the season in a span of two mid-season games. Sanders followed over the final four outings. The quartet contributed nearly one-third (29 of 95) of the starter games lost.

Second-year running back Marcel Shipp's 80-yard touchdown reception at St. Louis capped the Cardinals' longest play from scrimmage since 1988.

The chief benefactor was speedy rookie Jason McAddley, the former Alabama football and track star and the Cards' fifth-round 2002 draft choice, who spent the first seven weeks of his NFL career "inactive" and the final eight as a starter. He impressed, catching 25 passes for 362 yards and one touchdown. His 113-yard performance on five grabs vs. Seattle November 10 in his first NFL start and his second professional appearance marked the first 100-yard receiving game by a Cardinal rookie since Boston totaled 101 yards vs. the New York Giants on October 10, 1999, a span of 53 games.

Feisty waiver claim Kasper added 32 kickoff returns for 722 yards to his receiving numbers. His three touchdown receptions shared the team lead with Shipp and fullback Joel Makovicka despite appearing in only the final six games with Arizona, including starts in the final four.

Prior to being shelved by injuries, Boston, Jenkins, Sanders, and Gilmore all were contributing. Boston was on pace to lead the squad in receiving again with 25 receptions for 362 yards and one touchdown through eight games. Jenkins logged 21 grabs for 250 yards and one touchdown, a career-long 65-yard pass from Plummer vs. San Diego on September 22. Sanders posted 34 catches for 400 yards and two touchdowns, raising his career totals to 493 receptions for 6,579 receiving yards and 24 touchdowns and starts in 121 of 124 games. His receptions and receiving yardage rank third and fifth, respectively, in franchise history. Gilmore was Arizona's leading "bullet" on punt coverage.

Poole, rookie free agent Jake Soliday (4 receptions, 39 yards), and punt returner Arnold Jackson (five receptions, 42 yards, and his first NFL touchdown) were the other receiving hands on deck.

Handy Steve Bush, a tight end by trade, proved to be one of the most versatile Cardinals by also lending a hand as a blocking fullback and covering the Cards at long-snapper. Bush surpassed his career reception total (16) with 19 catches for 121 yards and his first career touchdown, a one-yard pass from Plummer at St. Louis December 15 in Bush's 80th NFL appearance. Bush's previous touchdown also was a pass from Plummer, a 10-yarder, while they were teammates at Arizona State in 1996.

Rookie tight end Mike Banks was utilized primarily on special teams.

Strong-armed rookie quarterback Josh McCown, a third-round '02 draft choice, received his first taste of NFL action in two relief roles, completing seven of 18 passes for 66 yards.

Defense

Arizona's defense was far more successful avoiding the injury bugaboo. Only two starters—outside linebacker Fredrickson (neck, six games), cornerback Starks (groin, ankle/knee, six games)—and 'backer Levar Fisher (knee, nine games), Fredrickson's likely replacement, missed extensive stretches of playing time. Fredrickson and Fisher ended their seasons on "injured reserve."

The Cards' young defensive line featured second-year ends Kyle Vanden Bosch and Fred Wakefield, and four tackles, rookie Wendell Bryant, the team's first-round draft choice, sophomore Marcus Bell, and veterans Russell Davis and Barron Tanner.

Rookie end Dennis Johnson earned increased playing time as the season wore along, particularly in pass-rushing situations. Over the season's first nine games, the former Kentucky star was "inactive" for three outings and averaged only 12.7 plays per appearance in the other six. But over the Cards' final seven assignments, the former national high school player-of-the-year averaged 27.4 snaps per game. Overall, he appeared in 13 contests, registering 20 total tackles, 0.5 sack, 1 tackle for loss, and 1 pass deflection.

Veteran end Thomas Burke sandwiched only six appearances (13 total tackles), all in the first one-half of the season, between thigh and knee (arthroscopy) injuries that finally landed him on "injured reserve" for the final four games.

Vanden Bosch returned from reconstructive knee surgery to lead the Cardinals with four quarterback sacks, nine quarterback pressures, and eight tackles for loss.

The 6-7 Wakefield was on Vanden Bosch's heels with three sacks and eight quarterback pressures while leading the defensive line with four deflected passes. The former free agent from Illinois, who has started 27 of 32 games in his first two NFL seasons, was rewarded with a new four-year contract the final week of the season.

The inside rotation of R. Davis, Tanner, Bryant and Bell collectively produced 152 total tackles (87 solos), 7 sacks (–38 yards), 17 quarterback pressures, 1 tackle for loss, 3 pass deflections, 1 forced fumble, and 1 memorable pass interception, Tanner's 17-yard ramble with his first career interception at Washington in the season-opener that Arizona converted into a touchdown and a 10–3 lead in an eventual 31–23 loss. Only Davis was a 16-game starter. Bryant, the Cards' first-round draft choice, ascended to a starting position next to R. Davis over the season's final four weeks. Bryant was brought along slowly after missing training camp and the season's first two outings due to contract negotiations.

Arizona's linebacker trio of Thompson and Fredrickson on the outside and rock-ribbed Ronald McKinnon inside was solid.

McKinnon remained perched in his customary spot as the team's leading tackler with 150 total stops (65 solos), the fourth consecutive season he achieved the feat. During his seventh NFL season, he appeared in his 100th NFL game, made his 500th career solo tackle, and notched his 1,000th career total tackle while starting all 16 games. "Ronnie Mac" improved his career numbers to 109 appearances (93 starts), 1,056 total tackles (560 solos), 10 quarterback sacks, 6 recovered fumbles, and 10 interceptions, and was rewarded with a two-year contract extension that extends his commitment to the Cardinals through 2004.

Thompson enjoyed his finest professional season with two career bests—137 total tackles, 80 solo stops—to finish second to McKinnon in both categories. His one and one-half sacks against the Rams November 3 were the first of his career. Like McKinnon, Thompson started 16 times.

Fredrickson was enjoying another solid season until a neck injury sent him to the sidelines for the final six games. His 64 total tackles (35 solos) still ranked eighth on the club.

The Cardinals lost promising high-motor rookie Fisher one week after Fredrickson to his second knee injury of the season. He missed four early-season games with the first (arthroscopy), the final five with the second (rehabilitation).

Second-year backers LeVar Woods (43 total tackles) and Michael Young (18 total tackles) both made starts during the season's second half. Ditto late-season signee G. Jones.

Starks, who won a Super Bowl ring with Baltimore, was signed to headline Arizona's secondary. But nagging injuries (groin, ankle/knee) sidelined (six games) or hampered him for most of the season. In 10 appearances, he registered 60 total tackles (45 solos), 2 interceptions, 6 deflections, and 1 tackle for loss. Both interceptions came against the Rams.

The plucky Barrett (81 total tackles, three interceptions) manned the other corner position. Capable second-year cornerback Renaldo Hill (66 total tackles) replaced Starks and Barrett as injuries dictated. Barrett and Hill shared the team lead with 10 pass deflections and finished fifth and sixth, respectively, in tackles.

Barrett figured prominently in one of Arizona's two defensive touchdowns, intercepting a pass vs. the Rams on November 3 that he lateraled to safety Justin Lucas who raced 35 yards for a touchdown.

Hill recovered two Carolina fumbles in October, a Cardinal single-game first since defensive lineman Michael Bankston recovered two fumbles vs. Washington on October 17, 1993, a span of 143 games.

Together, Starks, Barrett, and Hill missed 10 games due to injuries.

Eight-year veteran Kwamie Lassiter played center field next to strong safety Adrian Wilson.

Lassiter was the Cards' no. 3 tackler (118 total tackles, 68 solos) in his fourth consecutive campaign as a starter. The warrior's streak of consecutive games played reached 110 in the finale at Denver.

Wilson, who joined the Cards in 2001 after leaving North Carolina State a year early, replaced player-turned-soldier Pat Tillman and cracked the 100-total tackle barrier in his first season as a starter. Wilson flashed his ability vs. the Cowboys on October 20 with three pass interceptions, his first '02 sack, and a share of the team tackle lead (McKinnon) with nine total stops (team-leading seven solos). The three interceptions were a Cardinal single-game best since Lassiter's four thefts in the 1998 season capper vs. San Diego that propelled the Cardinals into the playoffs. Three "picks" shared the NFL '02 single-game high. Despite missing the opener (shoulder) and closer (hamstring) with injuries, Wilson was Arizona's no. 4 tackler (110 total, 68 solo) and leading interceptor (4). He also logged 1 forced fumble, 6 pass deflections, 2 tackles for loss, 2 quarterback pressures, and 1.5 sacks.

The valuable Lucas (50 total tackles, 29 solos) made four capable replacement starts for the second consecutive year. He authored Arizona's only two defensive touchdowns of the season. In the Cards' 21–7 September 29 victory vs. the Giants, Lucas returned his second career interception 38 yards for his first NFL touchdown, a stunning conclusion to first-half play that seized the game's momentum for Arizona. New York, nursing a 7–0 lead, attempted a pass toward its sideline with 14 seconds remaining in the second quarter from its own 32-yard line. Lucas timed the throw perfectly, intercepted it, and raced down the sideline for a game-tying touchdown in a contest the Cards won with two fourth-quarter touchdowns.

On November 3 vs. St. Louis, Lucas took the lateral from Barrett following his interception and raced 35 yards into the end zone.

Lucas, who also recovered two fumbles on special teams and deflected a pass that Hill intercepted against San Francisco on December 21, was Arizona's top tackler among non-starters.

Like Lucas, cornerback and special-teams stalwart Coby Rhinehart proved invaluable. The Cards' special-teams leader in tackles (12 solos, six assists) and blocks (65), Rhinehart also made his first two career starts from scrimmage (vs. Oakland, October 24; at Denver, December 29), intercepted his first pass (at Carolina, October 6) leading to Arizona's game-tying touchdown drive), and returned his first punt (18 yards vs. San Francisco, December 21). He collected 18 total tackles (16 solos), 2 tackles for loss, 2 deflections, and 1 interception from scrimmage

Speedy reserve Michael Stone acquitted himself as a primary special-teams "gunner" when the injuries began to roll downhill. He played sparingly from scrimmage.

Special Teams

Kicker Bill Gramatica rebounded from his 2001 knee reconstruction to lead the Cards in scoring with 74 points on 15-for-21 field-goal kicking and 29 extra points in as many attempts.

The highlights of his season decided three of Arizona's five victories. In order, they were a 50-yard game-winning field goal with 16 seconds remaining October 6 at Carolina, a 40-yard walk-off overtime three-point decider vs. Dallas October 20, and three late field goals vs. Detroit that cut the Lions' lead to 20–17 with 5:30 remaining in the fourth quarter (29 yards), tied the contest with 3:23 to play (41 yards) in regulation with a field goal, and won the tussle with 10:48 to play in overtime (42 yards). The clutch boot at Carolina equaled Gramatica's longest career field goal. The game-winner vs. Dallas was his third, providing all the Cards' points in their 9–6 triumph.

Arizona's offensive struggles prompted a busy season for punter Scott Player. The five-year veteran, two seasons removed from his first Pro Bowl appearance, punted 88 times for 3,864 yards, a 43.9-yard average ranking second in the NFC and third in the NFL. Player caressed 28 "inside-the-20" punts, including a career-best five vs. the Cowboys, against only 10 touchbacks. His net average was a respectable 35 yards.

Player also earned the dubious distinction of having one punt returned for a touchdown in three consecutive games—at Kansas City (Dec. 1), vs. Detroit (Dec. 8), and at St. Louis (Dec. 15)—an NFL record.

New long-snapper Nathan Hodel was flawless.

Jackson served as Arizona's punt returner for the second straight season. In 31 opportunities, he averaged 5.9 yards per try with a long of 22 yards.

Three players—Jenkins, Anderson, and Kasper—returned 12 or more kickoffs.

Jenkins, one of the NFL's best and fastest at the specialty, was purring along with 20 returns for 559 yards (28-yard average) and one spectacular touchdown before his shoulder injury. At Seattle, the speed merchant turned a 13–10 Seattle lead into a 17–13 Arizona advantage with a 95-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. His 28-yard average qualified to lead the NFL at season's end.

Anderson assumed the duty long enough to return 12 kicks 227 yards (20-yard average) prior to Kasper's arrival.

Kasper, the fiery former Bronco and Seahawk, returned 32 kicks 722 yards in six games as a Cardinal, averaging 22.6 yards per attempt. For the season, Kasper accumulated 55 returns for 1,300 yards (23.6-yard average). His three-team 1,300-yard total ranked fourth in the NFL.

Notes From The Nest

Arizona's 9–6 victory over Dallas October 20 was accomplished without benefit of a touchdown, a franchise first in 123 games (12–6 vs. Philadelphia, November 20, 1994) ... the Cards' 49–0 loss at Kansas City December 1 was the most one-sided setback in franchise history, the first shutout it suffered in 105 games (31–0 vs. New England, September 15, 1996), and the largest margin in the NFL since 1989 (Cleveland 51, Pittsburgh 0) ... the Cards converted 99 of 230 third-down opportunities (43 percent), the second best percentage in team history (102 of 221, 46.2 percent, 1993) ... Arizona held Detroit to 203 yards in its 23–20 overtime win December 8, the lowest opponent total in 89 games (167 at Tampa Bay, September 28, 1997) ... the Cards held the Giants to just two first downs rushing on September 29, a team best since Detroit managed only one on November 14, 1999, a span of 43 games ... in the same contest, Arizona converted 10 third-down situations, the most by the Cardinals in 90 games (11 at Washington, November 10, 1996) ... Denver rookie running back Clinton Portis rushed for a Cardinal opponent record of 228 yards on 24 carries in the December 29 season finale at Denver.

Middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon led Arizona in solo tackles for the fourth consecutive season.

New Stadium

The Cardinals' biggest victory of 2002 occurred off the field when the final political hurdles to begin construction of their new $355.3 million stadium in west suburban Phoenix were cleared.

Groundbreaking for the retractable-roof, retractable-field multipurpose sports facility in Glendale, a west suburb of Phoenix, which will seat approximately 63,000 for Cardinals' games and expand to over 75,000 for Super Bowls and Fiesta Bowls, was held April 12, 2003. The Cardinals will kick off in their new home in 2006.

Redskins 31, Cardinals 23

September 8, 2002 • FedEx Field Stadium (85,140)

Washington's second-half offensive explosion spoiled Arizona's season-opener at FedEx Field. Poised to ruin the NFL head-coaching debut of the Redskins' Steve Spurrier with a 13–10 halftime lead, the Cardinals were victimized by Washington touchdowns on its first three second-half possessions—three-yard Stephen Davis run, 43-yard Shane Matthews-to-Rod Gardner pass, and 17-yard Matthews-to-Derrius Thompson toss. The three drives, covering 71, 70, and 58 yards, respectively, devoured 9:02 off the clock, contributing to Washington's 34:24-25:36 time-of-possession advantage. The Arizona offense, despite tallying 23 points and gaining 257 yards, sputtered inside Washington's 30-yard line, settling for two Bill Gramatica field goals. Arizona's defense led the Cards to their first touchdown when tackle Barron Tanner rambled 17 yards to Washington's eight-yard line with his first career interception. Two plays later, quarterback Jake Plummer scampered into the end zone from seven yards out to stake Arizona to a 10–3 lead. Despite Washington's second-half blitz, the Cardinals contended. Trailing 31–16 early in the fourth quarter, Plummer found wide receiver David Boston with a 29-yard touchdown pass, cutting Washington's breathing room to 31–23 with 10:30 to play. Arizona forced punts on Washington's next three possessions, but the Cards were stymied all three times at their end of the field, punting twice prior to an interception of Plummer that decided the outcome. Boston posted seven receptions for 138 yards, his 15th career 100-yard game.

September 15, 2002 • Seahawks Stadium (63,104)

Arizona amassed 249 rushing yards (7.1-yard average), the team's best effort in 93 games (267 at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996), leading the Cardinals to a 24–13 victory in a contest pitting the two new members of the NFC Western Division in the inaugural game at Seahawks Stadium. It was Arizona's first 200-yard team rushing effort since Dec. 13, 1998 (204 at Philadelphia). Third-year running back Thomas Jones posted career highs of 173 yards rushing and 24 carries, including a 58-yard third-quarter touchdown burst, the longest run of his career, to knot the score at 10–10. After Seattle regained the lead with its second field goal early in the fourth quarter, speedy MarTay Jenkins returned the ensuing kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown and a 17–13 Arizona lead. After forcing a punt, the Cards methodically put the game away on their next possession, a 13-play, 90-yard, clock-chewing (7:36) march that wide receiver Frank Sanders capped with his first reception of the season, a four-yard touchdown toss from quarterback Jake Plummer. The drive highlighted a dominant fourth quarter for the Cardinals who gained yardage (96) on every play (16) and completed every pass attempt (four). The Cardinals' defense, besides limiting Seattle to 81 yards rushing, turned opportunistic in its own territory, holding Seattle to 10 points on six possessions inside Arizona's 30-yard line. Safety Kwamie Lassiter forced a fumble at Arizona's six-yard line that cornerback David Barrett recovered and returned 21 yards in the second quarter, and the Seahawks bobbled the hold on a field-goal attempt from the Cards' 17-yard line that resulted in a failed fourth-down rushing attempt by holder Matt Hasselbeck. Ironically, the Cardinals also were Seattle's opposition for the opening of the Kingdome on Sept. 12, 1976, a contest the Cardinals also won, 30–24.

September 22, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (28,980)

Three Arizona turnovers and a blocked Cardinal punt turned into 23 unanswered San Diego points, leading the undefeated Chargers to a 23–15 victory in the Cards' home opener. The Cardinals tallied the first touchdown of the season against San Diego's stout defense in the first quarter when quarterback Jake Plummer hit speedy wide receiver MarTay Jenkins with a 65-yard touchdown pass, his career long. Then the turnovers began. Late in the first quarter, Charger defensive end Marcellus Wiley intercepted Plummer at Arizona's 46-yard line and returned the pickoff to the Cardinal six. LaDainian Tomlinson tied the game on a four-yard rush two plays later. Cardinal running back Thomas Jones fumbled at San Diego's 43-yard line on Arizona's next possession. The Chargers drove 62 yards in 10 plays for another Tomlinson touchdown, this one from two yards away. After a scoreless third quarter, the Chargers blocked a Scott Player punt deep in Cardinal territory that rolled out of the end zone for a safety. On Arizona's ensuing possession, Charger linebacker Donnie Edwards returned an interception of Plummer 20 yards for a touchdown. The Cardinals made it interesting with their final two possessions. Trailing 23–7 with 11:23 to play in the fourth quarter, Plummer capped the first drive with his second touchdown pass, a 31-yarder to running back Marcel Shipp, his first career score, plus a two-point conversion toss to wide receiver Frank Sanders. Then following defensive back Justin's Lucas' first career interception that gave the Cardinals a final opportunity, Plummer drove Arizona to San Diego's 10-yard line with 1:39 to play before tossing four incompletions that ended the threat and decided the outcome. Ex-Charger tight end Freddie Jones led Arizona with five receptions. Plummer bettered 15,000 career passing yards on his early touchdown toss to Jenkins. The game was played in 100-degree heat.

Cardinals 21, Giants 7

October 29, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (30,014)

Arizona's defense upstaged its stout Giant counterpart, holding New York scoreless following its 46-yard opening-drive touchdown. Two reserves turned the tide for Arizona. Defensive back Justin Lucas brought the first half to a stunning conclusion with only 14 seconds remaining and the Giants sitting at their own 32-yard line following a missed 42-yard field-goal attempt by Card Bill Gramatica. Lucas intercepted a pass from Giant quarterback Kerry Collins intended for running back Tiki Barber and raced 38 yards down the New York sideline for his first career touchdown with four seconds remaining, knotting the score at 7–7. After a scoreless third quarter, running back Marcel Shipp, in relief of hobbled starter Thomas Jones, tallied touchdowns on consecutive fourth-quarter Arizona possessions, a seven-yard reception from quarterback Jake Plummer and a 10-yard run. Shipp contributed 125 total yards—92 rushing, 33 receiving. All three figures were career highs. Arizona's defensive dominance was particularly evident in the second half when five of New York's six possessions lasted four plays or less and the G-men gained only 121 total yards (29 rushing, 92 passing). The Cards' defense held the Giants to just two first downs rushing, a team best since Detroit managed only two on Nov. 14, 1999, a span of 43 games. The Cards forced three turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble recovery) to gain a giveaway-takeaway edge (3–1) for the first time in 2002. Offensively, Arizona converted 10 third-down conversions, its highest total in 90 games (11, Nov. 10, 1996 at Washington). Arizona's 14-point margin of victory was its largest against the Giants since its 19–0 shutout in 1992. Both teams gained 263 total yards. Speedy wide receiver Bryan Gilmore made his first NFL reception, a 14-yarder, during the Cards' go-ahead touchdown drive. Plummer, an economical 23-for-32, 168 yards and Shipp's touchdown, avoided interception for the first time in 2002.

October 6, 2002 • Ericsson Stadium (72,286)

The Cardinals scored 10 points on their final two possessions to earn their second consecutive victory, climb over .500 (3–2) after five games for the first time since 1991, and notch quarterback Jake Plummer's 19th career comeback. Two of kicker Bill Gramatica's three field goals ended the scoring of a defensive first half with Carolina leading 7–6 on the strength of a 31-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Rodney Peete to wide receiver Isaac Byrd late in the second quarter. For the second consecutive week, Arizona's defense was stellar in the second half, limiting the Panthers to 141 total yards (24 rushing, 117 passing), 7 first downs, and 33 plays while forcing three turnovers—one fumble (forced by linebacker Ray Thompson, recovered by cornerback Renaldo Hill) and two interceptions (cornerback Coby Rhinehart, safety Kwamie Lassiter). Five of Carolina's seven second-half possessions lasted five plays or less. Trailing 13–6 with 5:44 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Cards began their seven-play, 63-yard, game-tying march following Rhinehart's interception. A 37-yard third-and-13 reception by wide receiver Frank Sanders keyed the drive; a 15-yard tight end screen pass to Freddie Jones for his first Cardinal touchdown highlighted it with 2:38 remaining. After forcing a Carolina punt, the Cards began their game-winning march from their 21-yard line with 1:26 to play. Plummer glided the Cardinals into field-goal range at the Panthers' 32-yard line in seven plays. Gramatica's third field goal of the day, a 50-yard game-winner, equalled his career long. Rookie running back Damien Anderson, activated from the practice squad two days earlier, gained 61 yards rushing on 23 carries to outrush the entire Carolina team (24–58). Hill recovered both Carolina fumbles, a Cardinal single-game first since 1993 (2, defensive lineman Michael Bankston at Washington, Oct. 17, 1993), a span of 143 games.

Cardinals 9, Cowboys 6

October 20, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (59,702)

Four Cardinal interceptions of Dallas quarterback Quincy Carter, including three by strong safety Adrian Wilson, and three Bill Gramatica field goals paced Arizona to its third consecutive victory, a share of first place in the NFC West, its first 4–2 start since 1988, its fourth straight home-field success against Dallas, back-to-back home wins for the first time since 1999, and its third consecutive overtime win over five seasons. The Cards' triumph was accomplished without benefit of a touchdown, a team first in 123 games (12–6 vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 20, 1994), and qualified as quarterback Jake Plummer's 20th career "comeback" and his fourth of the season. The four Cardinal interceptions were made in Arizona territory, including two (Hill and Wilson's third) in the Cardinal end zone to snuff two Dallas drives that had reached the Cards' 14-yard line. Wilson became the first Cardinal to intercept three or more passes since Kwamie Lassiter pilfered four in the 1998 regular-season finale against San Diego. Arizona settled for Gramatica's first two field goals (41, 23 yards) on its first and final first-half possessions on drives that stalled at the Cowboys' 23- and five-yard lines, respectively. The only Dallas points against an inspired Arizona defense came midway through the third quarter on a 78-yard touchdown pass from Carter to wide receiver Antonio Bryant. The extra-point attempt failed when the center snap was mishandled. Both teams missed fourth-quarter field-goal attempts (Arizona two, Dallas one), sending the game into overtime. Each team had two overtime possessions. Following three punts, Arizona ended the drama with an eight-play, 45-yard drive prior to Gramatica's 40-yard walk-off game-winning field goal. Cardinal punter Scott Player registered five inside-the-20 punts in seven kicks, including his first four, that sentenced five Dallas possessions to begin at its own 18-, 6-, 2-, 10-, and 17-yard lines, respectively. Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith's 82 rushing yards pulled him within 93 yards of breaking Walter Payton's NFL career rushing record (16,726 yards).

October 27, 2002 • 3Com Park (67,173)

San Francisco scored 24 unanswered points on its first four possessions and 31 points on six first-half drives to take a commanding 31–7 halftime lead. Three of Arizona's four turnovers resulted in 17 of the 49ers' first 24 points. San Francisco's three first-half touchdowns were long passes to its wide receivers—21 and 61 yards to Terrell Owens, 47 yards to Tai Streets. The spunky Cardinals rallied with rushing touchdowns (Jake Plummer, 34 yards; Marcel Shipp, 11 yards; Thomas Jones, seven yards) on their first three second-half possessions to cut San Francisco's leads to 31–21 and 38–28. (Shipp also tallied the Cardinals' first touchdown with a seven-yard second-quarter run.) The Cards threatened to pull within one possession of the 49ers' seemingly insurmountable lead with six minutes to play, reaching San Francisco's 25-yard line on their next possession. But Plummer's third interception, all by San Francisco safety Ronnie Heard, ended Arizona's final drive. Versatile MarTay Jenkins registered 210 all-purpose yards with eight kickoff returns (164 yards) and four receptions (46 yards). Plummer's 34-yard touchdown scramble was the longest scoring run of his career. Heard's three interceptions were a first against the Cardinals in 49 games (Champ Bailey vs. Washington, Oct. 17, 1999). Ditto San Francisco quarterback Jeff Garcia's four touchdown passes in 48 games (Drew Bledsoe vs. New England, Oct. 31, 1999). The Cards, failing to force a turnover for the first time in 2002, were minus four in giveaway/takeaway for the first time in 51 outings (Oct. 3, 1999 at Dallas).

Rams 27, Cardinals 14

November 3, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (47,819)

The Rams' ball-control offense, fueled by running back Marshall Faulk, combined with an effective St. Louis defense that limited the Cardinals to offensive lows in most major categories (235 total yards, 52 offensive plays, 64 rushing yards, 19 rushing attempts, 13 first downs, and 24:32 time of possession) to post a 27–14 victory, their first in Arizona. Faulk's 178 rushing yards were the most against the Cards in 27 games (216, Corey Dillon at Cincinnati, Dec. 3, 2000). Faulk added 58 yards with five receptions, giving him 236 total yards, the NFC 2002 best. Two costly Cardinal turnovers in St. Louis territory—first-quarter pass interception from the 47-yard line, second-quarter muffed center snap at the 19-yard line—aborted Arizona scoring threats. A second-quarter eight-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders blunted the Rams' 17-point first half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Arizona safety Justin Lucas thrust Arizona into contention when he tallied his and Arizona's second defensive touchdown of the season to cut the St. Louis lead to 17–14 with 10:36 to play in the fourth quarter. Cornerback David Barrett intercepted St. Louis quarterback Marc Bulger at the Rams' 38-yard line, returning his pickoff three yards before lateraling to Lucas who raced the final 35 yards to paydirt. The Rams iced the outcome by scoring 10 points on their two ensuing possessions that included Faulk rushes on 11 of 15 plays for 66 yards and a touchdown (13 yards). Sanders' six receptions moved him into third place on the Cardinals' career list with 485 catches. Third-year linebacker Ray Thompson recorded one and one-half sacks for –16.5 yards, his career firsts. Cornerback Duane Starks' second-quarter interception was his first as a Cardinal.

Seahawks 27, Cardinals 6

November 10, 2002 ‹1› Sun Devil Stadium (29,252)

Seattle scored on all five of its first-half possessions (three touchdowns, two field goals) to take a commanding 27–6 halftime lead, then held Arizona scoreless in the second half by forcing three red-zone turnovers. The lethal combination handed the Cardinals their third consecutive loss. The Cards threatened to crawl into contention in the second half, but lost fumbles at Seattle's one-, five-, and nine-yard lines in a span of four possessions to seal the outcome. In all, the Cards made five turnovers (three lost fumbles, two pass interceptions), its highest single-game total since the 2000 season finale at Washington. Without a takeaway, Arizona was minus five in giveaway/takeaway for the first time in 81 games (minus seven vs. Tennessee, Oct. 27, 1997). The Seahawks' 20-first down, 27-point first half was methodical without benefit of long plays. Seattle marched 55, 58, 68, 46, and 71 yards to its points in 42 plays, the longest three 20-yard gains. Arizona only answered with two (40, 27 yards) Bill Gramatica field goals, failing to score a touchdown for the second time in 2002, both in the last four outings. The Cards' defense allowed 406 total yards, the second 400-yard opponent total in as many weeks and the fourth in 2002. Rookie wide receiver Jason McAddley, making his first NFL start in his second pro appearance, shined with five receptions for 113 yards, including a long of 42 yards, to become the first Cardinal rookie with 100 receiving yards in 53 games (David Boston, 101 vs. N.Y. Giants, Oct. 10, 1999). The former Alabama speedster, inactive for the season's first seven contests, was pressed into service due to injuries to three members of Arizona's receiving corps—Boston, MarTay Jenkins, and Bryan Gilmore. Rookie wide receiver Jake Soliday caught one pass for 14 yards in his first NFL appearance. Rookie running back Damien Anderson returned kickoffs (six, 113 yards) for the first time as a pro.

November 17, 2002 ‹1› Veterans Stadium (64,990)

The Eagles used a bludgeoning rushing attack to threaten and quarterback Donovan McNabb's passing to score in a one-sided 38–14 victory in the Cardinals' final appearance at Veterans Stadium. Eagle Duce Staley enjoyed a 30-carry, 134-yard rushing performance to spearhead Philadelphia's 211-yard run game, the most rushing yards allowed by the Cardinals in 28 games (214, at Jacksonville, Dec. 10, 2000). Philadelphia rushed to a 36:15–23:45 time-of-possession advantage. McNabb complemented the ground game with four touchdown passes (2, 3, 27, and 9 yards). Both Cardinal touchdowns followed defensive takeaways. On the game's first possession, Arizona defenders Adrian Wilson (strong safety) and LeVar Woods (linebacker) collaborated on a five-yard sack of McNabb who fumbled at Philadelphia's 43-yard line. Defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch recovered. Arizona marched the 43 yards in eight plays for an opening-drive touchdown on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to rookie wide receiver Jason McAddley, who made a diving catch in the end zone for his first NFL touchdown. After falling behind 14–7 on McNabb's first two touchdown passes, Arizona knotted the score in the second quarter when Wilson returned an interception 35 yards to the Eagles' two-yard line. Plummer found fullback Joel Makovicka with a two-yard touchdown pass on the next play. Philadelphia followed with 24 unanswered points, including two touchdowns in the final 3:11 of the first half. It was the fourth consecutive game the Cards allowed an opponent touchdown on its final possesion of the first half. Arizona failed to score in the second half for the second consecutive week. The contest, the Cardinals' fourth straight setback, marked Arizona's 33rd and final consecutive trip to Philadelphia.

November 24, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (58,814)

Oakland's 17-point third-quarter explosion highlighted a dominant offensive outing that featured 520 total yards in Arizona's fifth consecutive loss. The Raiders ran 82 offensive plays to eat 36:17 off the clock, spelling a 13:43 time-of-possession advantage. Two first-quarter Cardinal turnovers—fumbled lateral, interception—gave Oakland two short fields at Arizona's 13- and 33-yard lines, respectively, that it converted into its first two touchdowns and a 14–0 lead. Arizona's first two touchdowns, both in the second quarter (three-yard Marcel Shipp run, one-yard Joel Makovicka reception from Jake Plummer), wrapped around Oakland's third touchdown, quarterback Rich Gannon's second touchdown pass to wide receiver Jerry Porter, to spell a 21–14 Oakland lead at halftime. Following intermission, the Raiders blew open the contest in the third quarter, holding the ball for 10:58 while gaining 179 total yards en route to a two-yard Tyrone Wheatley touchdown run, a 37-yard touchdown connection from Gannon to legendary wide receiver Jerry Rice, and the first of two Sebastian Janikowski field goals, a 37-yarder. The Cards' final touchdown was the first career six-pointer for wide receiver Arnold Jackson, an 11-yard pass from Plummer. Shipp posted his first 100-yard rushing effort in his first NFL start with 135 yards in 16 carries. Oakland posted the first 500-yard total-offense outburst against the Cardinals in 214 games (508, Oct. 8, 1989 at Washington) and the most yardage by a Cardinal opponent in 294 contests (552, Sept. 30, 1984 vs. Miami).

December 1, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium (77,809)

The Cardinals suffered their sixth consecutive defeat, a 49–0 pounding at Kansas City, the most one-sided setback in franchise history and the first shutout thrown at the Cards in 105 games (31–0 vs. New England, Sept. 15, 1996). The outcome also was the largest shutout margin in the NFL since 1989 (Cleveland 51, Pittsburgh 0). The Chiefs tallied five first-half touchdowns—their final four possessions plus a 90-yard punt return by Dante Hall (second longest in history against the Cardinals)—to take a 35–0 halftime lead and decide the verdict early. The onslaught began late in the first quarter after each team punted twice. Chief running back Priest Holmes, who finished the day with 113 yards rushing, 56 yards receiving, and two rushing touchdowns, capped an eight-play, 77-yard march with a five-yard touchdown run. Hall ignited the crowd with his touchdown when Arizona punted on its ensuing possession. Kansas City added three more touchdowns in rapid-fire succession to close the second quarter—fullback Tony Richardson's three-yard run, a two-yard bolt by Holmes, and tight end Tony Gonzalez's 23-yard reception with seven seconds to play. Rookie quarterback Josh McCown saw his first NFL action in relief of starter Jake Plummer, completing four of 12 passes for 45 yards. He was sacked three times and threw one interception. Wide receiver Nathan Poole caught three passes for 35 yards in his first NFL appearance. Arizona's 122 yards total offense was its lowest output in 113 games (96 at Carolina, Nov. 19, 1995). Defensively, the Cards allowed over 400 total yards for the fifth consecutive outing.

Cardinals 23, Lions 20 (OT)

December 8, 2002 ‹1› Sun Devil Stadium (28,640)

Arizona snapped its six-game losing streak with its fifth consecutive victory against Detroit on late clutch kicking by Bill Gramatica, whose three field goals cut Detroit's lead to 20–17 with 5:30 remaining in the fourth quarter (29 yards), tied the contest with 3:23 to play (41 yards), and won it with 10:48 to go in overtime (42 yards). Detroit jumped to a quick 7–0 lead when Eddie Drummond returned Scott Player's punt following Arizona's game-opening possession 73 yards for a touchdown. It was uphill for Arizona the rest of the way as Detroit later clung to leads of 14–7, 17–7, and 20–14 prior to Gramatica's dramatics. The Cards' two touchdowns were the result of short passes of one (Joel Makovicka) and 10 (Nathan Poole) yards in the first and second quarters, respectively. Makovicka's score was his third touchdown reception in four games; Poole's was the first of his career in his first NFL start. Following Gramatica's game-tying three-pointer, the Cardinal defenders stopped Detroit twice before overtime, forcing punts in four and six plays. In overtime, Arizona enjoyed the only overtime possession, driving 46 yards in seven plays, a march keyed by wide receiver Kevin Kasper's 23-yard reception from quarterback Jake Plummer two plays before Gramatica's game-winning boot. The Cardinals' defense, in addition to holding Detroit to only three second-half points, limited the Lions to 203 total yards, the lowest opponent total in 89 games (167 at Tampa Bay, Sept. 28, 1997). Detroit rushed just 15 times for only 51 yards. Arizona displayed a balanced offense, gaining 180 yards through the air and 133 on the ground for 313 total yards.

December 15, 2002 ‹1› Edward Jones Dome (65,939)

The Rams overcame Arizona's 21-point second-half comeback with a five-play, 72-yard drive leading to Jeff Wilkins' game-winning 26-yard field goal with 20 seconds to play. The Cardinals overcame a 24–7 halftime deficit to take a 28–27 late lead with three touchdowns in a span of four possessions in the second half, beginning with running back Marcel Shipp's 80-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Jake Plummer on Arizona's second offensive play from scrimmage in the third quarter. It was the Cards' longest play from scrimmage in 223 games (93-yard touchdown pass, Neil Lomax to Ernie Jones, Dec. 10, 1988 vs. Philadelphia). Shipp, who tallied Arizona's only first-half touchdown on a five-yard run, added his third six-pointer on a one-yard rush later in the third quarter to become the first Cardinal to post three regular-season single-game touchdowns since Plummer rushed for three scores at Washington on Nov. 22, 1998. The pivotal stretch of the contest, however, occurred late in the second quarter when the Rams broke open a tight 10–7 sparring match with two touchdowns in 61 seconds to take their 24–7 halftime lead. The first was a 68-yard march, the second a 37-second, 32-yard, short-field drive that followed a recovered fumble caused on a strip of Plummer during a pass attempt. The Rams' first touchdown was a 78-yard punt return by Dre' Bly, marking the third consecutive outing Arizona allowed a punt-return touchdown, an NFL record. The Cards' go-ahead score with 7:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, a one-yard pass to tight end Steve Bush, was the sixth-year veteran's first NFL touchdown in his 80th game. Arizona outgained the potent St. Louis offense 378–366 total yards, including a decided 129–66 advantage in rushing yardage.

December 21, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (44,051)

Offensive misfirings by both teams—two missed field-goal attempts by San Francisco, a missed field-goal attempt and a lost fumble at the 49ers' nine-yard line by Arizona—and two turnovers (one interception, one fumble) by each club kept the Cardinals' home finale in doubt throughout. The injury-depleted Cards, outfitted in all-red uniforms for the first time in their long history, turned to unheralded wide receiver Kevin Kasper for their two touchdowns, both passes from quarterback Jake Plummer, the first a four-yarder to tie the game at 7–7 in the second quarter, the second a six-yarder with 4:08 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut San Francisco's lead to 17–14. The well-traveled Kasper, claimed from Seattle four weeks earlier after starting the season in Denver, became the first 2002 Cardinal to notch two single-game touchdown receptions. The scores also made him the sixth Card to record his first career touchdown reception in 2002, joining tight end Steve Bush, running back Marcel Shipp, and wide receivers Arnold Jackson, Jason McAddley, and Nathan Poole. Leading 10–7 at intermission, the 49ers used a 37-yard return of the second-half kickoff followed by a 33-yard pass completion on their first play from scrimmage to reach Arizona's 14-yard line. Two plays later, ex-Cardinal running back Garrison Hearst tallied San Francisco's deciding touchdown on an eight-yard run. The two new NFC Western Division rivals then traded seven consecutive scoreless possessions before Kasper's second touchdown. San Francisco was able to run out the clock with eight straight plays, including seven rushes, on its ensuing possession. Safety Justin Lucas, making his third start of the season, had a hand in both 49er turnovers, recovering their fumble and deflecting the pass that cornerback Renaldo Hill caught for his second interception of the season, leading to Kasper's second touchdown seven plays later.

Broncos 37, Cardinals 7

December 29, 2002 • Invesco Field at Mile High (75,164)

Denver ground Arizona into submission with a withering 28-point second half that turned its narrow 9–7 halftime lead into its final 37–7 margin of victory and conclude the Cardinals' 5–11 season. The Broncos, in extending their all-time record against the Cardinals to 6–0–1, tallied touchdowns on their first four possessions of the second half when they gained 271 total yards (138 rushing/133 passing), registered 17 first downs, ran 33 plays, and possessed the ball for 19:54. Rookie Denver running back Clinton Portis stole the show with his two-touchdown, 24-carry, 228-yard rushing performance, the latter setting a single-game Cardinal opponent record (216, Corey Dillon at Cincinnati, Dec. 3, 2000). Portis' day capped his 1,508-yard rushing season, fifth best in NFL history by a rookie. Denver's first three second-half touchdowns were the products of drives of 11 plays/58 yards, 10 plays/92 yards, and 6 plays/89 yards. The fourth was a quick two-play strike following a recovered fumble at Arizona's 16-yard line. Arizona's only touchdown was a one-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver and former Bronco Kevin Kasper with one second remaining in the first half. Tight end Freddie Jones' four receptions raised his season total to 44 catches, making him the first tight end to lead the Cards in receiving since Jackie Smith (41, 1973). Jones' 44 grabs also were the most by a Cardinal tight end since 1968 (Smith) and ranked fifth in franchise history among tight ends. The injury-depleted Cardinals, who headed to Denver with 16 players on "reserve" lists, faced the Broncos with 15 rookies and five "first-year" players on their roster. They finished the season with 95 starter or replacement starter games lost to injury.

HISTORY

Franchise History

The Cardinals, founded in 1898 and a charter member of the National Football League, hold the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

The team boasts a colorful history! Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

Former Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He also coached the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career during the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween's claim to fame, however, would occur many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer, who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian! He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park that they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record. (NFL postseason play began in 1933.).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

The 1947 Championship Season

In the resurrectional flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's spearhead since taking over as owner in 1933 who helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression," deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000, that finally put the Cardinals over the top, winning their only NFL championship via a title game.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I. The team has been a permanent part of professional football since that time.

To appreciate the accomplishment of the 1947 squad, perspective is necessary.

Just two seasons earlier in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110–98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinals' history, the omni-talented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the wilderness to a 6–5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding churning Wisconsin fullback Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31–7 trouncing of the hated crosstown rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after an appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy with a 47.4-yard average.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would receive the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the stratagem would isolate Bears' left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

The biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

Game day dawned!

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection anyway. Dimancheff ran a flair pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win.

Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with the Cardinals was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL championship with a 10–3 overall record. They bettered the Philadelphia Eagles 28–21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated sparks. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating back-breaking long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards.

The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

New Direction

Violet Bidwill, with her husband's passing, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular-season record.

The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35–23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their temporary new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Four coaching changes and a name change have altered the face of the Cardinals since their Arizona arrival. Following their first two seasons in the desert, long-time Washington assistant Joe Bugel arrived as head coach, a position he held for four seasons until Buddy Ryan was named head coach and general manager on February 3, 1994. Vince Tobin succeeded Ryan as head coach on February 7, 1996. Then on December 18, 2000, Dave McGinnis, the Cardinals' dynamic five-year defensive coordinator, was named the franchise's head coach.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad, one of the NFL's youngest teams, ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought and notched the Cardinals' first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 victory over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium.

Pivotal 2000 Campaign

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise.

An October coaching change promoted McGinnis to interim head coach, replacing Tobin after four and one-half seasons. Eight weeks later, McGinnis was named the franchise's permanent head coach.

Election Day, November 7, 2000, fell in between. Voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation.

The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

Heritage

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame reached 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a CBS-TV NFL color analyst, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971–83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson.

The Illinois champion Cardinals of 1902.

Cardinal Legend Retires

NFL Hall of Famer Larry Wilson, 65, one of the greatest defensive backs in league history and "the last Chicago Cardinal" according to team President William V. Bidwill, retired May 30 following a 43-year NFL career.

A fixture with the Cardinals since 1960, Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960–72) as a player and continued with a variety of administrative positions. "Number 8," as he fondly has been called on occasion by associates since his playing days, is one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired.

"We decided to retire Larry's number two years before he retired," Bidwill reflects.

Cardinal Hall of Famer Larry Wilson retired in May, 2003 to end his legendary 43-year NFL career.

A 1978 first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame with Lance Alworth, Alphonse "Tuffy" Leemans, Ray Nitschke, and Weeb Eubank, Wilson received another milestone honor in 1994 when he was named to the NFL's all-time team commemorating the league's 75th anniversary.

Wilson, who gained notoriety for his perfection of the safety blitz, reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games — all as a Cardinal — from 1960–72.

"Larry Wilson personifies what made the NFL great," Bidwill lauds. "His competitiveness was his strength, and he had a feel for the game, a real nose for the ball. He was a leader as a player, and he's been a leader since."

Wilson's name remains referenced throughout the Cardinals' record book.

He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), and single-game interception return yardage (115).

Wilson's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on December 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history, and his 91-yard interception return for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia is third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

He also held or shared the franchise record for career interception returns for touchdowns (five) until 1997 when cornerback Aeneas Williams tallied his sixth.

In 1966, Wilson enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on October 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also held the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on December 21, 1969, until 2000 when Williams broke it with an NFL record-tying 104-yard return. Wilson's 88-yarder was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in Card annals.

When pressed to choose the most memorable moment from Wilson's career, Bidwill responds, "That's easy. Who can forget the day he intercepted a pass, and almost scored, with casts on both hands? That was and is Larry Wilson!"

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973–76) and director of professional personnel (1977–88). He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona, a position he held through the 1993 season. During that span, Wilson hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active part in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, took a prominent role in the team's draft strategy, and implemented an aggressive approach to free agency. Most recently as a team vice president, his duties included responsibility for Cardinal Charities, special events, team travel, and training camp at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Arizona.

Born March 24, 1938 in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was a running back at the University of Utah and selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1960 NFL Draft. Wilson converted to the defensive backfield due to injuries.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, will continue to reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Jim Bakken 25 Years Later

Jim Bakken stood alongside his holder, Roger Wehrli, and waited. And waited. The rafters still reverberated from the thunder of the crowd that had rocked the Cardinals' house only a moment before.

Six officials huddled. For three long minutes, suspense hung in the chilly early-evening air. The throng grew restless, eager to unleash a second explosion of sound.

For Bakken, this should be a seemingly simple conversion kick after a touchdown. But after what had just happened, it would be no ordinary point-after-touchdown attempt.

Two Cardinal legends: Kicker Jim Bakken (25) and holder Larry Wilson, an NFL Hall of Famer.

It was November 16, 1975. St. Louis Cardinal wide receiver Mel Gray had just made the infamous "Phantom Catch," a six-yard touchdown reception intertwined with Washington Redskins cornerback Pat Fischer, both paired like two vines on a fence post.

Trailing by seven points with 20 seconds remaining, Cardinals' quarterback Jim Hart had angled a slant-in pass into the end zone. Fischer, Gray, and the ball became indistinguishable. It was caught, but it clearly had come loose. Had it been in Gray's possession long enough to count for a scoring reception? After what seemed like eons, referee Fred Silva finally broke from the conference of huddled zebras and jutted both arms high overhead: Touchdown Cardinals!

A deafening roar erupted like an earthquake.

"Everybody reacted like the game was tied," says Bakken, now 63, "but we still had to kick the extra point to get into overtime."

The rock-solid St. Louis kicker hammered it through, and pro football history had another jewel in the making. The two teams had entered the game tied for first place in the National Conference's Eastern Division. Gray's "Phantom Catch" now lives in Cardinals' lore and the film of it probably was carted into the next life by livid Redskins' head coach George Allen, who screamed bloody thievery when the end-zone call went against Washington.

"George Allen and (St. Louis Head Coach) Don Coryell had quite a rivalry going," recalls Bakken, the Cardinals' runaway career scoring leader. "Redskin week was special. That particular game came down to the end. We were at home and it would've taken quite a bit of courage on the part of the officials to overrule the initial call for the touchdown. There wasn't replay then, so as I prepared myself, I just said, 'This touchdown is going to stand, they aren't going to take it away.'

"There was a lot of pressure on that kick when you think about it. If I had missed it, there would've been no overtime. I never took extra points for granted. You can't go out there and ho-hum it. There's still the same amount of concentration, no matter what. It was definitely a part of the equation, the equation being winning the game. It was first things first; make the extra point and go from there."

Bakken converted, one of 534 points-after-touchdown he booted during his illustrious career. The two rivals headed to overtime in the pivotal game.

Seven minutes into the extra period, the Cardinals' strong-legged booter nailed a 37-yard field goal, giving the Cardinals a 20–17 win and fanning the flames of their heated rivalry with the Redskins.

Moreover, Coryell didn't have to second-guess himself. In the second game that season at Dallas, the St. Louis mentor had passed on a 25-yard Bakken field goal, opting instead for a fourth-down pass that was intercepted, leading to the Cowboys' winning touchdown.

"I trust his foot better than my judgment," said Coryell about Bakken after the overtime thriller against Washington in blatant reference to his earlier miscall in Dallas.

This year celebrates the 25th anniversary of the last of Bakken's 17 record-breaking seasons with the Cardinals. He set 18 club marks; 11 still stand. There would be few occasions for any of the five St. Louis head coaches during Bakken's tenure to doubt the utilization of his talented toe in game-deciding situations like Coryell's gaffe in that Cowboys' game of '75.

"Jim was the most consistent kicker I've ever seen, and he still could've played when he retired," noted Wehrli, a seven-time Pro Bowl defensive back for the Cardinals and Bakken's holder for six seasons.

Bakken's booting expertise began a run of points in 1963, his second season with the Cardinals, that would total 1,380 by the completion of his career in 1978.

"Of the people I've seen over the years, 'Bags' is one of those guys who should be considered for the Hall of Fame because of his consistency and the number of years he competed," recalls legendary Cardinal safety Larry Wilson, who held for Bakken for 11 seasons. "Holding for him wasn't tough because you didn't have to have everything perfect for him. He could kick it no matter where you put it down. He was just a tremendous athlete, consistent and very productive. As a person, he was top notch. Some kickers around the league have reputations as flakes or being a brick short, but 'Bags' was very down-to-earth, just a great person."

Bakken's monumental moments were so numerous they could not possibly all be recounted, but like every athlete, he has his favorites.

"In my early years," reminisces Bakken, "I played against some of the people who I looked up to in the league. Lou Groza was one of those. In the second game of the 1964 season, the Cardinals and the Browns played to a 33–33 tie at Cleveland, and Groza and I each kicked four field goals. What a highlight."

Bakken lists the aforementioned 1975 game with Washington, the overtime thriller that starred Gray's stirring catch, as a timeless memory.

"That's one that sticks out," he admits, "and another one was against the Rams on the road in the (Los Angeles) Coliseum (Nov. 14, 1976) after a big, big comeback by the Cardinals. There were just four seconds to go in the game. Jim Hart drove the team down to what he thought was good position to try the field goal and just let the clock run down. Everybody knew what was coming. As I stood on the sideline, I remember one of our rookie offensive linemen coming up and saying, 'Boy, I'm sure glad I don't have to kick this field goal.' Then, as I got out onto the field, the Rams called timeout. Jack Youngblood, their defensive end and a future Hall of Famer, was a big guy who had kind of a high, squeaky voice. You could hear it over the crowd. He was hollering at me, 'Not this time, Jimmy. Not this time, Jimmy boy!' One of our offensive linemen stood in front of him and tried to block out the sound."

Bakken again came through. His third field goal, a game-winning 25-yarder, gave St. Louis a come-from-behind 30–28 win.

"We walked off the field to a rather stunned L.A. crowd in excess of 80,000," he notes. "The Rams had been well ahead, but then the [Terry] Metcalf, Gray, [Jackie] Smith, Hart combination brought us back."

Bakken's high productivity was no accident. Hours of attending to every minute detail in practice made game days almost automatic for the four-time Pro Bowler.

"I would try to convince myself as I prepared that if I did all the things during the week to help make myself successful, I wouldn't have any regrets if the game or the situation didn't work out on the weekend," explains Bakken. "Whether it was doing the running or the stretching or the repetitions or the weight-lifting, whatever it was, if I did those things I wouldn't have to look back and say, 'Gee, if I'd just worked a little harder on Tuesday on that particular part of my training, maybe I would've been successful.'"

Bakken, the holder of the twice-equalled NFL record for most single-game field goals (seven at Pittsburgh, Sept. 24, 1967), endeared himself to teammates with his work ethic, becoming involved in all aspects of practice, unlike most kickers.

"He was out there every day, running patterns for the scout team," remembers Wehrli. "He was not the type to stay on the side and practice his kicking while everyone else was practicing. He was an integral part of the team."

Wilson concurs, "He was involved in everything. In practice, he played quarterback, wide receiver, defensive back. He did it all. He was not a typical kicker. These guys today go off and do their own thing." The just-retired former Cardinal vice president and general manager adds with a wink, "Matter of fact, at our new facility, we built a putting green so the kickers would have something to do."

Bakken returns the sentiments to Wilson and Wehrli, saying, "I thought defensive backs were the best holders. For one thing, they weren't afraid to pick up the ball if there was a bad snap."

Wilson counters, "With Jim, you lateraled it back to him and got the hell out of the way!"

Many accolades have come Bakken's way, including selection as the NFL's kicker of the decade for the 1960s as published in 75 Seasons, the league's diamond anniversary celebration, in 1994. Additionally, he is enshrined in the Madison (Wis.) Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame, and the state High School Coaches' Hall of Fame. A former two-time all-Big Ten punter for the Wisconsin Badgers, Bakken is a multi-dimensional athlete.

"He went to the nationals for years in handball doubles (Wisconsin state masters handball doubles champion, 1991-97) and is a near scratch golfer (one-three handicap)," adds Wehrli, "just a great all-round athlete. He was a real positive influence on the Cardinals' team."

After his playing days, Bakken served as St. Louis University athletic director from 1984-88. After a move to Wisconsin in 1989, he joined the University of Wisconsin athletic department in 1990, working 13 years as associate athletic director for special events.

Today, Bakken enjoys spending more time with his wife, now retired from the Madison public school system, and his grandchildren, who reside in St. Louis and Cleveland. Looking back over an accomplished career that saw him put almost three times as many points on the scoreboard as any other Cardinal in history, Bakken says with a smile, "One thing's for sure. We are a heckuva lot better players now than we were then."

Larry Wilson
Safety

Professional—One of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history ... enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978 ... named to the all-time NFL team in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary ... played entire career as a Cardinal in St. Louis (1960–72) ... played in eight Pro Bowls ... all-NFL six times ... 52 career interceptions ... cat-like defender and exceptional team leader ... interceptions in seven consecutive games in 1966 ... NFL's top free safety during 13-year career ... made the safety blitz famous.

College—Utah ... 6–0, 190 ... two-way star for Utes from 1957–60 ... seventh-round draft pick by St. Louis Cardinals in 1960.

Etc.—Born March 24, 1938 in Rigby, Idaho. ... regarded as one of the toughest players in NFL history ... once intercepted a pass for a go-ahead touchdown with two broken wrists ... retired in 2003, ending 43-year NFL career, all as a Cardinal.

Stan Mauldin
Tackle
77

Professional—Tackle for the Chicago Cardinals (1946–48) ... opened holes in the line with hard-hitting bulk for the Cardinals' "Million-Dollar Backfield" ... member of the Cards' 1947 NFL championship team ... died of a heart attack after opening-day victory over the Eagles in 1948.

College—Texas ... 6–2, 215 ... all-America tackle for the Longhorns ... winner of the Outstanding Athlete Trophy in 1942 ... one of Texas' "13 Immortals" in 1940.

Etc.—Born December 27, 1920 in Amarillo, Texas ... flew bombing missions with the 15th Air Force Division over Italy during World War II.

J.V. Cain
Tight End

Professional—Doubled at tight end and wide receiver for the St. Louis Cardinals (1974–77) ... part of Head Coach Don Coryell's messenger service as a rookie wide receiver in 1974 ... replaced Hall of Famer Jackie Smith at tight end in mid-1975 ... caught passes in 12 of 13 games in 1976 ... one-handed touchdown catch in 1977 provided margin of victory in 16–13 win over Chicago ... died after collapsing from a heart condition at training camp in 1979.

College—Colorado ... 6–4, 220 ... all-America ... two-time all-Big 8 Conference selection ... caught 53 passes for 700 yards during junior and senior seasons ... first-round draft choice of the Cardinals in 1974.

Etc.—Born July 22, 1951 in Houston, Texas ... played in the East-West and Hula Bowl games.

Marshall Goldberg
Running Back/Def. Back
99

Professional—All-round player who starred as a ball carrier, defensive back, and return specialist for the Chicago Cardinals (1939–43, '46–48) ... second team all-pro selection in 1941 ... NFL mid-season rushing, punt and kickoff return, and interception leader in 1941 ... career statistics included 1,644 yards rushing in 476 attempts for 11 touchdowns, and 60 pass receptions for 776 yards and five touchdowns ... member of Cards' 1947 NFL championship team.

College—Pittsburgh ... 5–11, 195 ... two-time consensus all-America halfback at Pitt.

Etc.—Born October 24, 1917 in Elkins, West Virginia ... 1980 inductee into the Jewish Hall of Fame in Tel Aviv, Israel ... playing career interrupted for two years (1944–45) during World War II when he served in the Navy ... nicknamed "Biggie."

Notes

NFL approves Cards' move from Chicago to St. Louis on March 13 ... team plays in 34,000-seat Sportsman's Park ... with no regular practice site, the team practices at an open field at a city park ... running back John David Crow breaks Ollie Matson's single-season rushing mark with 1,071 yards ... Crow sets franchise single-game mark that stood for 35 years with 203 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18 ... Cards lead NFL in rushing with 2,356 yards (196.3 yards per game) and in rushing defense, allowing 1,212 yards (101 yards per game) ... defense also leads league, allowing 252.4 yards per game, 158 first downs, and just 56 first downs rushing ... wide receiver Sonny Randle leads NFL with club-record 15 touchdowns receiving on 62 receptions ... little-known Utah halfback Larry Wilson, selected in seventh round of draft, converts to safety due to injuries.

Notes

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gault and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gault and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7–7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Willsey assume coaching reins ... during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

Notes

Alabama all-America quarterback Joe Namath is Cards' first-round draft pick, but the flashy passer opts to sign with rival AFL's New York Jets ... Cards win four of first five games, but injuries to quarterback Charley Johnson, starting running backs Prentice Gautt and Joe Childress, and defensive backs Larry Wilson and Larry Stovall take a toll and the team slides to 5–9 ... Wilson sets team mark with 96-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. Cleveland on Dec. 19 ... a few weeks earlier, with casts on both hands, Wilson intercepts a Bill Nelsen pass against Pittsburgh on Nov. 7 ... Wally Lemm announces after the final game he will not return as head coach.

Notes

Charley Winner named head coach ... team begins play in newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium, featuring artificial turf and a seating capacity of 51,392 ... record crowd of 50,673 views 10–10 tie with Dallas on Oct. 16, an attendance mark that would stand for four seasons ... Cards begin season 7–1–1, but another injury to quarterback Charley Johnson, and subsequent injuries to wide receiver Sonny Randle, cornerback Pat Fischer, and offensive linemen Bob DeMarco, Ken Gray, and Irv Goode result in 8–5–1 mark ... safety Larry Wilson leads NFL with 10 interceptions and ties another mark with thefts in seven consecutive games ... Cardinals score just 52 points in final five games ... Cards are victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16–10 Falcon win Dec. 11.

Notes

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

Notes

The merger of the NFL and AFL places the Cards in the Eastern Division of the NFC with Dallas, New York Giants, Philadelphia, and Washington ... after a loss in the season-opener, Cards roll to 8–1–1 mark in the next 10 games but falter with three losses to end the season 8–5–1 ... running back MacArthur Lane earns Pro Bowl honors and leads NFL rushers with 4.7-yard average per carry and 11 touchdowns ... Cards hand Cowboys surprising 38–0 pasting in Dallas before national television audience on "Monday Night Football" Nov. 16 ... cornerback Roger Wehrli begins string of six consecutive Pro Bowl appearances.

Notes

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach ... he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach ... running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round ... Jim Hart is named starting quarterback ... despite 4–9–1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards ... Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32–10 win.

Notes

Led by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, and Tom Banks, Cards win a second consecutive NFC Eastern Division title with an 11–3 mark, a franchise best since an 11–1 record by the 1948 team ... fullback Jim Otis leads the NFC in rushing with 1,076 yards, running back/kick returner Terry Metcalf—a consensus NFL most valuable player—sets league record with 2,462 combined yards, and quarterback Jim Hart performs behind an offensive line that ties an NFL record by allowing just eight quarterback sacks ... wide receiver Mel Gray catches controversial touchdown pass from Hart with 25 seconds left in regulation, known as the "Phantom Catch," to send game into overtime as Cards win 20–17 over Washington ... Cards travel to Los Angeles to face Rams in playoff contest and lose 35–23 after trailing 28–9 at halftime ... seven offensive players go to the Pro Bowl (Dierdorf, Dobler, Banks, Hart, Metcalf, Gray, and Otis).

Notes

Despite 10–4 record (6–1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs ... Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27–14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10–4 and not gain a postseason berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

Notes

Though saddled with a 1–3 start, Head Coach Don Coryell rallies his troops to six consecutive victories and a 7–3 record entering the final stretch of the season ... four losses, however, drop the Cards to 7–7 and Coryell abandons the Midwest to join the San Diego Chargers ... QB Jim Hart sets club mark with 12 consecutive pass completions vs. Chicago Sept. 25 ... FB Wayne Morris rushes for 182 yards on 27 carries on Nov. 6 at Minnesota, the fourth-highest single-game effort in team history ... Cards deal 8–0 Dallas its first defeat of the season, a 24–17 decision in Texas Stadium before a "Monday Night Football" audience Nov. 14 ... Miami quarterback Bob Griese ties Card opponent mark with six touchdown passes in 55–14 Dolphin win Nov. 24.

Notes

Head Coach Bud Wilkinson resigns after 13 games and a 3–10 record, losing six games by four points or less ... Larry Wilson named interim head coach ... Cards win two of last three contests to finish 5–11 ... promising young TE J.V. Cain dies after collapsing from a heart condition at training camp ... Ottis Anderson, the club's first-round draft choice from Miami (Fla.), turns in the finest season by a rookie running back in NFL history with 1,605 yards rushing, a 4.8-yard average per carry, 10 touchdowns, and a season-high 193 yards in his NFL debut at Dallas Sept. 2 ... DB Roy Green returns a kickoff an NFL-record 106 yards in the same game ... Anderson later rushes for 105 yards against Dallas, becoming the first player to rush for over 100 yards twice in the same season against the Cowboys.

Notes

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

Notes

A second consecutive jackpot draft class of UCLA T Luis Sharpe (first round), Florida DT David Galloway (second round), Alabama S Benny Perrin (third round), and East Tennessee State FB Earl Ferrell (fifth round) will average over eight years per player, all four earning near-immediate starting roles ... Cards become youngest team in NFL to qualify for the Super Bowl tournament in strike-shortened season with 5–4 record ... NFL players walk out Sept. 19 after second game of the season due to labor strike ... play does not resume until Nov. 21 ... Cards lose 41–16 at Green Bay in first-round action as Card QB Neil Lomax sets league postseason record with 385 yards passing.

*Top NFC playoff seed

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1–6 based upon their records during the season.

Notes

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 halftime deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

Notes

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

Notes

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stallings named Cards' head coach ... injury-riddled squad manages 4–11–1 mark ... rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl ... Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards) vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 ... WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions ... just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43–17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

Notes

Final season in St. Louis ... 21–16 loss in season finale at Dallas completes 7–8 record to deprive club of first playoff berth in five seasons ... Cards defeat defending Super Bowl champ N.Y. Giants 27–24 in final appearance in Busch Stadium Dec. 13 ... players' strike mandates playing three games with replacement rosters ... Cards launch greatest fourth-quarter comeback in NFL history in 31–28 win over Tampa Bay Nov. 8, rallying from a 28–3 deficit after three periods ... QB Neil Lomax completes 10 of 16 passes for 164 and three touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Cards score 28 unanswered points ... WR J.T. Smith breaks own club mark of 80 pass receptions with league-high 91 catches (1,117 yards) ... Ram RB Charles White sets Card opponent record with 213 rushing yards Nov. 15.

Notes

After 18 seasons in St. Louis (1960–87), Cards relocate to Arizona to play in Sun Devil Stadium at Arizona State University ... Hall of Famer Larry Wilson named vice president and general manager ... victories over three most recent Super Bowl champions—N.Y. Giants, Washington, and San Francisco—and 7–4 start (best since 1976) overshadowed by five consecutive losses to end season ... signature victory by overcoming 23–0 third-quarter deficit to down San Francisco 24–23 on a touchdown pass from QB Neil Lomax to WR Roy Green with three seconds left ... a national "Monday Night Football" audience and capacity Sun Devil Stadium crowd witness the Cards' inaugural regular-season game in Arizona, a 17–14 Dallas victory ... Cards gain first home victory in new venue with 30–21 upset of defending Super Bowl champion Washington Sept. 25.

Notes

After a 2–0 start and 5–5 mark after 10 games, Head Coach Gene Stallings resigns after 37–14 loss to L.A. Rams dips Cards' slate to 5–6 ... Cards lose next five games under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann ... QB Neil Lomax forced to sidelines for entire season due to career-ending arthritic condition in left hip ... only four Cardinals start all 16 games as 21 players who started at least one game miss playing time ... Cards sweep first season series against Cowboys since 1970 with 19–10 win at Dallas and 24–20 victory in Arizona ... FB Ron Wolfley named to unprecedented fourth consecutive Pro Bowl for kamikaze-like play on special teams.

Notes

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history ... QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1981 ... LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

Notes

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

Notes

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

Notes

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years ... FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

Notes

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 ... 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

Notes

First postseason appearance since 1982, ending the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years ... first postseason berth in a non-strike season since 1975, first postseason victory since 1947, and first winning season and first 10-win campaign since 1984 ... eight NFC victories most since 1976 ... NFL record seven victories by three points or less, winning four on game-ending field goals ... seven of nine victories by 18 combined points earns "Wild Cards" nickname ... 45-point outburst at Washington Nov. 22 the Cards' best scoring output in 21 years ... seven of nine victories are QB Jake Plummer-led comebacks ... Plummer's three rushing touchdowns at Washington Nov. 22 the most by an NFL quarterback since the Saints' Archie Manning in 1977 ... RB Adrian Murrell becomes sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons ... WR Frank Sanders leads NFC (NFL runner-up) with 89 receptions ... FB Larry Centers becomes the Cardinals' career receiving leader ... eight defensive takeaways Oct. 11 vs. Chicago tie Seattle for NFL season best ... final three games provide largest viewing audiences in the history of three Phoenix television stations—the CBS, ABC, and FOX affiliates, respectively.

Notes

Dave McGinnis fields NFL's youngest team and its largest offensive line in first season as head coach ... national tragedy Sept. 11 delays season opening ... 17 points separate Arizona from 8–0 second-half record ... 3–1 vs. AFC equals franchise best ... 45 points Nov. 18 vs. Detroit a 33/2-game high (1977) ... 29 quarterback sacks allowed the franchise's second fewest in 16-game season (1978) ... WR David Boston leads NFL and sets Arizona single-season records with 1,598 receiving yards and nine 100-yard games and becomes second youngest NFL player to eclipse 1,500 receiving yards ... QB Jake Plummer posts 13th, 14th, 15th, and 16th career comebacks ... Plummer and Giant Kerry Collins the only NFL signal-callers to take every snap ... WR Frank Sanders makes 100th NFL start ... 14 different starting combinations on defense ... 343 opponent points fewest allowed since 1994 (267) ... Cards' defense scores five touchdowns for fifth time since 1960 (1995, '87, '64, '61) ... MLB Ronald McKinnon becomes first Card in 178 games to record defensive touchdowns in consecutive contests ... FS Kwamie Lassiter's nine interceptions lead NFL safeties ... rookie K Bill Gramatica sets team rookie records with 14 field goals and 50-yard three-pointer.

Notes

Cards join NFC Western Division after 32 seasons in the NFC East ... first 3–2 start since 1991, first 4–2 getaway since 1988 precede injury siege ... 95 starter and replacement starter games lost to injury, most on offense ... 41 players start games ... Freddie Jones first tight end to lead team in receptions since 1973 ... RB Marcel Shipp rushing leader (834 yards) in only six starts plus 80-yard touchdown reception at St. Louis. Cards' longest play from scrimmage since 1988 ... MLB Ronald McKinnon leads Arizona in tackles for fourth consecutive season ... FS Adrian Wilson intercepts three passes against Dallas to share NFL single-game high ... Arizona beats Dallas 9–6 without a touchdown, a franchise first in 123 games ... the Cards' 49–0 loss at Kansas City the most one-sided setback in franchise history, their first shutout in 105 games, and the largest margin in the NFL since 1969 ... final political hurdles cleared to begin construction of new $355.3 million stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County ... S Pat Tillman declines new multi-year contract offer to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training.

Overtime Games

Cardinals 23, Lions 20

December 8, 2002 · Sun Devil Stadium (28,640)

Arizona snapped its six-game losing streak with its fifth consecutive victory against Detroit on late clutch kicking by Bill Gramatica, whose three field goals cut Detroit's lead to 20–17 with 5:30 remaining in the fourth quarter (29 yards), tied the contest with 3:23 to play (41 yards), and won it with 10:48 to go in overtime (42 yards). Detroit clung to leads of 14–7, 17–7, and 20–14 prior to Gramatica's dramatics. The Cards' two touchdowns were the result of short passes of one (Joel Makovicka) and 10 (Nathan Poole) yards in the first and second quarters, respectively. Following Gramatica's game-tying three-pointer, the Cardinal defenders forced two Detroit punts to end regulation. Arizona enjoyed the only overtime possession, driving 46 yards in seven plays, a march keyed by wide receiver Kevin Kasper's 23-yard reception two plays before Gramatica's game-winning boot. The Cardinals' defense, in addition to holding Detroit to only three second-half points, limited the Lions to 203 total yards, the lowest opponent total in 89 games (167 at Tampa Bay, Sept. 28, 1997).

October 20, 2002 · Sun Devil Stadium (59,702)

Four Cardinal interceptions of Dallas quarterback Quincy Carter, including three by strong safety Adrian Wilson, and three Bill Gramatica field goals paced Arizona to its third consecutive victory, a share of first place in the NFC West, its first 4–2 start since 1988, its fourth straight home-field success against Dallas, back-to-back home wins for the first time since 1999, and its third consecutive overtime win over five seasons. The Cards' triumph was accomplished without benefit of a touchdown, a team first in 123 games (12–6 vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 20, 1994). The four Cardinal interceptions were made in Arizona territory, including two (Hill and Wilson's third) in the Cardinal end zone to snuff two Dallas drives that had reached the Cards' 14-yard line. Wilson became the first Cardinal to intercept three or more passes since Kwamie Lassiter in the 1998 regular-season finale. Arizona settled for Gramatica's first two field goals (41, 23 yards) on its first and final first-half possessions on drives that stalled at the Cowboys' 23- and five-yard lines, respectively. The only Dallas points against an inspired Arizona defense came midway through the third quarter on a 78-yard touchdown pass from Carter to wide receiver Antonio Bryant. The extra-point attempt failed when the center snap was mishandled. Both teams missed fourth-quarter field-goal attempts (Arizona two, Dallas one), sending the game into overtime. Each team had two overtime possessions. Following three punts, Arizona ended the drama with an eight-play, 45-yard drive prior to Gramatica's 40-yard walk-off game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 34, Raiders 31

December 2, 2001 · Network Associates Coliseum (46,601)

Rookie kicker Bill Gramatica's first walk-off, game-winning field goal, his fourth three-pointer of the day, climaxed the Cardinals' improbable overtime upset at Oakland that ended 10-game Raider home and NFC winning streaks. The frenzied finish featured 17 points in the final 1:52 of regulation. In overtime, both teams exchanged punts, but the Raiders muffed their return. LeVar Woods recovered the loose ball at the Raiders' 25-yard line. Gramatica booted his 36-yard game-winner three plays later.

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17

December 13, 1998 · Veterans Stadium (62,176)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years (30–12 at Houston, Dec. 4, 1994). Quarterback Jake Plummer directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Chris Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Rob Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz.

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20

November 30, 1997 · Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute of overtime. Pittsburgh battering ram Jerome Bettis rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10

October 19, 1997 · Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles handed the Cardinals a 13–10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. In rookie Jake Plummer's first NFL action in relief of starter Stoney Case, the quarterback had the Cardinals on the march with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Chris Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 1997 · Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

September 7, 1997 · Sun Devil Stadium (70,060)

One week after watching a 21–3 lead evaporate into a 24–21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to wide receiver Rob Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively, to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under Head Coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21–6 lead in the Cards' 27–24 success on Oct. 4, 1992.

Cardinals 37, Redskins 34

November 10, 1996 · R.F.K. Stadium (51,929)

The Cardinals rode a record-setting passing effort by quarterback Boomer Esiason to shock NFC East Division-leading Washington in overtime. Esiason's personal best 522 passing yards were the third most prolific total in NFL history while also setting Cardinal and Redskin opponent single-game records. New Cardinal kicker Kevin Butler, signed five days earlier, sealed the pulsating victory with his third field goal, a 32-yarder, after he and Redskin kicker Scott Blanton traded overtime misses. Arizona's 615 total yards were the first 600-yard outing in franchise history and the highest total in the NFL in six years (676, Washington vs. Detroit, Nov. 4, 1990).

Cardinals 31, Rams 28

September 29, 1996 · Sun Devil Stadium (33,116)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31–28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 66 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson raced 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Ottis Anderson, 75 yards).

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995 Sun Devil Stadium (35,147)

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Kicker Greg Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995 Sun Devil Stadium (51,342)

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest, capped by Viking wide receiver Qadry Ismail's 50-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. Leading to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to wide receiver Cris Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995 Sun Devil Stadium (39,600)

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. On Arizona's overtime-opening possession, Seattle blocked kicker Greg Davis' 27-yard field-goal attempt. The Seahawks then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return for a score in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 Giants Stadium (68,463)

A see-saw overtime battle ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

November 27, 1994 Sun Devil Stadium (65,922)

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19–16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period that the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession, but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

October 30, 1994 Sun Devil Stadium (65,690)

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 R.F.K. Stadium (50,019)

Both teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with 4:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 Kingdome (45,737)

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27–27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 Veterans Stadium (50,148)

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10–10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10–3 deficit with 2:39 left in regulation on a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field-goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard three-point attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McFadden pushed a 43-yard field-goal try wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 Cleveland Stadium (62,107)

The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for Neil O'Donoghue's 35-yard game-winning field goal with 5:27 elapsed in overtime.

Cardinals 20, Giants 20

October 24, 1983 Busch Stadium (45,630)

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line yard prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed a 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 Busch Stadium (48,662)

Atlanta overcame a 24–6 halftime deficit with 21 second-half points to win 33–27. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33–27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 Candlestick Park (49,999)

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21–21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted following their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 Busch Stadium (48,991)

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field-goal attempt glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24–21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired.

Cardinals 23, 49ers 20

October 31, 1976 Busch Stadium (50,365)

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a field goal in the extra period for a 23–20 Cardinal victory. The Cards won the overtime coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the San Francisco 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 6:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 Busch Stadium (49,919)

The Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Jim Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 Texas Stadium (52,417)

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

Last Meeting

Dec. 17, 2000 Sun Devil Stadium Ravens 13, Cardinals 7

Four turnovers (two interceptions, two lost fumbles) by the Cardinals offense scuttled an excellent defensive performance in Arizona's home finale, a narrow 13–7 loss in Baltimore's first appearance in Sun Devil Stadium. The setback marked the Cardinals' sixth consecutive loss. Despite gaining 309 total yards to become only the second team (Jacksonville twice) to better the 300-yard mark against the Ravens' NFL-leading defense, the Cardinals scored just one touchdown, a 27-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders, on six trips inside Baltimore's 30-yard line. The other five Cardinal drives ended at Baltimore's 8- (running back Michael Pittman fumble), 28- (Cary Blanchard missed field goal attempt), 29- (failed fourth-and-inches Plummer sneak), 15- (tight end Terry Hardy fumble), and 12- (deflected fourth-down Plummer pass) yard lines. The Cardinal defense limited Baltimore, Super Bowl XXV champion-to-be, to 214 total yards, including only 37 yards (70 gross yards) through the air, the fewest passing yards against the Cardinals in 170 games (34, Oct. 14, 1990 vs. Dallas). Four sacks (–33 yards) of Raven quarterback Trent Dilfer, the Cards' first four-sack effort in 21 outings, contributed to the low passing total. Raven rookie running back Jamal Lewis rushed 29 times for 126 yards, the seventh Cardinal opponent to crack the 100-yard rushing barrier in 2000. Baltimore's lone touchdown was the result of one of its two interceptions that linebacker Jamie Sharper returned 45 yards to Arizona's six-yard line. Lewis plowed in for the touchdown from one yard out three plays later. The Cards' MarTay Jenkins became the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner when he raised his record-setting 2000 totals to 77 returns for 2,052 yards with four returns for 88 yards.

Series Notes

Third meeting since Ravens relocated to Baltimore ... first encounter was a 16–13 Cardinal win in 1997 in Memorial Stadium in Baltimore ... second meeting resulted in 13–7 Raven victory in Sun Devil Stadium in 2000.

Last Meeting

Oct. 6, 2002 Ericsson Stadium Cardinals 16, Panthers 13

The Cardinals scored 10 points on their final two possessions to earn their second consecutive victory, climb over .500 (3–2) after five games for the first time since 1991, and notch quarterback Jake Plummer's 19th career comeback. Two of kicker Bill Gramatica's three field goals ended the scoring of a defensive first half with Carolina leading 7–6 on the strength of a 31-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Rodney Peete to wide receiver Isaac Byrd late in the second quarter. For the second consecutive week, Arizona's defense was stellar in the second half, limiting the Panthers to 141 total yards (24 rushing, 117 passing), 7 first downs, and 33 plays while forcing three turnovers—one fumble (forced by linebacker Ray Thompson, recovered by cornerback Renaldo Hill) and two interceptions (cornerback Coby Rhinehart, safety Kwamie Lassiter). Five of Carolina's seven second-half possessions lasted five plays or less. Trailing 13–6 with 5:44 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Cards began their seven-play, 63-yard, game-tying march following Rhinehart's interception. A 37-yard third-and-13 reception by wide receiver Frank Sanders keyed the drive; a 15-yard tight end screen pass to Freddie Jones for his first Cardinal touchdown highlighted it with 2:38 remaining. After forcing a Carolina punt, the Cards began their game-winning march from their 21-yard line with 1:26 to play. Plummer glided the Cardinals into field-goal range at the Panthers' 32-yard line in seven plays. Gramatica's third field goal of the day, a 50-yard game-winner, equalled his career long. Rookie running back Damien Anderson, activated from the practice squad two days earlier, gained 61 yards rushing on 23 carries to outrush the entire Carolina team (24–58). Hill recovered both Carolina fumbles, a Cardinal single-game first since 1993 (2, defensive lineman Michael Bankston at Washington, Oct. 17, 1993), a span of 143 games.

Series Notes

Fourth meeting with Panthers ... initial encounter was 27–7 Carolina win at Clemson Stadium in 1995 ... Cardinals responded in 2001 with 30–7 win in first appearance at Ericsson Stadium on the strength of a 27-point first half in Arizona's largest margin of victory since 1993 (131 games) ... Cards posted comeback victory in return trip in 2002.

Last Meeting
Oct. 14, 2001 Soldier Field Bears 20, Cardinals 13
A third quarter full of potholes doomed the Cardinals in former Bear assistant coach Dave McGinnis' first return to the Windy City as Arizona's head coach. In the decisive third stanza and the Bears clinging to a 13–6 lead, the Cards hit bumpy road, first by squandering a scoring opportunity at Chicago's 30-yard line after recovering the fumbled second-half opening kickoff return (Coby Rhinehart fumble caused, Zack Walz fumble recovery), followed by five penalties (45 yards), two dropped passes, and allowing a game-turning 69-yard fumble (Michael Pittman) return for a touchdown by Chicago cornerback R.W. McQuarters. Arizona's only touchdown was the product of a 13-play, 99-yard drive that wide receiver Frank Sanders, in his 100th NFL start, capped with a seven-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Jake Plummer. The touchdown cut Chicago's lead to 20–13 with 2:52 to play. The depleted Arizona defense, minus three injured starters (defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch, cornerback Corey Chavous, safety Pat Tillman) acquitted itself by holding the Bears to only 53 total yards (37 rushing/16 passing) and two first downs in the second half, and forcing four punts and a pass interception in Chicago's five possessions following its fumbled kickoff return. Overall, Arizona enjoyed statistical advantages in first downs (16–13), total net yards (288–253), and turnovers (3–1). MarTay Jenkins made his 100th career kickoff return. Cornerback David Barrett recorded his first pass interception. Free safety Kwamie Lassiter logged an interception for the second consecutive week. The contest between the NFL's two charter franchises was the 87th in the old rivalry that began in 1920.

Series Notes
The Cardinals and Bears boast the oldest regular-season rivalry in NFL history dating to the 1920s when the two shared the Windy City ... the Bears maintain a 55–26–6 advantage in the series ... the Cardinals set a then-franchise record attendance of 71,233 in Sun Devil Stadium on October 28, 1990 against the Bears, also the largest crowd in the history of the series ... in preseason play, the Cards hold a 24–9 margin ... the 1997 preseason contest in Chicago, a 22–10 Bear victory, originally was scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 16 but postponed until the following evening due to a severe thunderstorm.

Last Meeting
Dec. 3, 2000 Paul Brown Stadium Bengals 24, Cardinals 13
Cincinnati's bludgeoning rushing attack sent the Cardinals to their fourth consecutive defeat and left them winless (0–6) on the road in 2000. The Bengals amassed 292 yards rushing, the highest single-game total in history by a Cardinal opponent and the most in 42 years (615 games). Cincinnati running back Corey Dillon established a Card opponent record with 216 yards rushing. Thirty-five of Cincinnati's 78 offensive plays were Dillon rushes. He set the tone for the day with a 57-yard off-tackle burst on the Bengals' second play from scrimmage, leading to their first touchdown two plays later. Arizona wide receiver David Boston brought the Cardinals back from a 21–0 deficit with two second-half touchdown receptions, a 38-yarder late in the third quarter, and a 15-yarder early in the fourth stanza. Trailing 21–13 on their next possession, the Cards threatened to tie the contest when they drove 48 yards to the Bengals' 23-yard line with 8:44 to play, but Cincinnati defensive back Tom Carter intercepted quarterback Jake Plummer to end Arizona's hopes. Boston enjoyed his finest day as a professional, registering a career-best 184 receiving yards, the NFL weekend high, on nine catches that equaled his single-game best. Running back Michael Pittman, Arizona's leading rusher and receiver, logged 72 rushing yards on 19 carries and 31 yards receiving on six grabs. Poor field conditions contributed to four misfires by kickers Cary Blanchard of the Cardinals (31-yard field-goal attempt hits right upright, wide left point-after-touchdown) and Neil Rackers of the Bengals (wide left 36-yard field-goal attempt, wide right 45-yard field-goal try).

Series Notes
The Cardinals and Bengals have met just seven times in regular-season play ... Cincinnati holds a 5–2 advantage ... the home team has won each contest ... Cincinnati handed the Cardinals a 21–14 defeat in Riverfront Stadium in the 1988 season-opener, the Cardinals' first game representing Arizona ... in 1994, the first meeting in Arizona, the Cards prevailed 28–7 ... the Bengals won the first two contests in Riverfront Stadium—42–34 in 1973 and 34–28 in 1979 ... the Cardinals collected a 41–27 victory at St. Louis in 1985 ... the Bengals overcame a 21–3 deficit with three fourth-quarter touchdowns to shock the Cardinals 24–21 at Cinergy Field in 1997 ... in the most recent meeting, the Bengals were victorious in a 24–13 decision in 2000 in Paul Brown Stadium.

Last Meeting

Oct. 8, 2000 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 29, Browns 21

The Cardinals scored 26 unanswered points, their most in 26 games (31 straight at Washington, Nov. 22, 1998), on five consecutive second- and third-quarter possessions to storm from behind, overcome a 14–0 deficit, and defeat the visiting Cleveland Browns. Running back Michael Pittman, in his first 2000 start, spearheaded the Arizona offense with 107 rushing yards. As a team, the Cards registered over 125 yards rushing for the second consecutive game, a first since 1996. Wide receiver Frank Sanders logged two touchdown receptions, including a 53-yarder, his longest since Nov. 16, 1997 at the N.Y. Giants (70 yards). Quarterback Jake Plummer, a workmanlike 17-for-30, 171 yards, and 2 touchdowns, avoided interception for the second consecutive week and for the third time in four outings. The former was a Cardinal first since Kent Graham in games one and two in 1997. Arizona's defense held the Browns to 240 total yards, the lowest opponent total since the 1999 season-opener at Philadelphia (205), and limited Cleveland to three or four plays on all six second-half possessions and eight of 12 drives overall. Rookie running back Travis Prentice tallied all three Cleveland touchdowns on short runs. Two of the three touchdowns were the result of short fields created by Cardinal special-teams turnovers—fumbled kickoff return (MarTay Jenkins), and muffed punt (Mac Cody). Card kicker Cary Blanchard was successful on three field-goal attempts (36, 47, 28 yards) to improve his Cardinal accuracy to a near-perfect 11-for-12. His initial three-pointer with 1:13 to play in the first half gave Arizona's its first lead at 16–14.

Series Notes

Cleveland leads the series dating to 1950 by a 32–11–3 margin ... the two teams have met just six times since 1974 ... in the two most recent meetings, the Browns posted a 32–0 win at Cleveland in 1994 while the Cardinals logged a 29–21 comeback victory in 2000 ... the Cardinals were victorious in St. Louis with a 29–7 win in 1974 and edged the Browns 30–27 in overtime in Cleveland Stadium in 1985 ... Cleveland's two other wins since 1974 came in Busch Stadium by a 38–20 margin in 1979 and 29–21 triumph in Sun Devil Stadium in Arizona in 1988, the Cardinals' first season in Arizona ... from 1950–69, the teams met each season on a home-and-home basis as members of the NFL Eastern Conference, a stretch of 40 games which saw the Browns accumulate a 29–8–3 advantage.

Last Meeting

Oct. 20, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 9, Cowboys 6 (OT)

Four interceptions of Dallas quarterback Quincy Carter, including three by strong safety Adrian Wilson, and three Bill Gramatica field goals paced Arizona to its third consecutive victory, a share of first place in the NFC West, its first 4–2 start since 1988, its fourth straight home-field success against Dallas, back-to-back home wins for the first time since 1999, and its third consecutive overtime win over five seasons. The success was accomplished without a touchdown, an Arizona first in 123 games (12–6 vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 20, 1994), and qualified as quarterback Jake Plummer's 20th career "comeback" and his fourth of the season. The four Cardinal interceptions were made in Arizona territory, including two (Renaldo Hill and Wilson's third) in the Cardinal end zone to snuff Dallas drives that reached the Cards' 14-yard line. Wilson became the first Cardinal to intercept three or more passes since Kwamie Lassiter pilfered four in the 1998 regular-season finale. Arizona settled for Gramatica's first two field goals (41, 23 yards) on its first and final first-half possessions on drives that stalled at the Cowboys' 23- and five-yard lines, respectively. The only Dallas points against an inspired Arizona defense came midway through the third quarter on a 78-yard Carter touchdown pass to wide receiver Antonio Bryant. The extra-point attempt failed on a mishandled center snap. Both teams missed fourth-quarter field-goal attempts (Arizona two, Dallas one), sending the game into overtime. Each team had two overtime possessions. Following three punts, Arizona ended the drama with an eight-play, 45-yard drive prior to Gramatica's 40-yard walk-off game-winning field goal. Cardinal punter Scott Player registered five inside-the-20 punts in seven kicks, including his first four, that sentenced five Dallas possessions to begin at its own 18-, 6-, 2-, 10-, and 17-yard lines, respectively.

Series Notes

Dallas holds a 52–28–1 series lead, including victories in 18 of the past 24 regular-season meetings ... Arizona upset the Cowbys 20–7 at Texas Stadium in first-round playoff action following the 1998 regular season ... Cards have defeated Dallas once in each of the past six seasons ... the Cardinals' 25–22 Sun Devil Stadium overtime win in 1997 broke a series streak of 13 consecutive Dallas victories and six consecutive season sweeps ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 ... the Cowboys drew the largest home crowd in Arizona franchise history when 73,025 packed Sun Devil Stadium to witness a 17–10 Cardinal defeat on Sept. 19, 1993 ... at one stretch from 1967–86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games and enjoyed one home stretch of 13–2 against the Cardinals ... the Cards are 9–29 all-time at Dallas and have won only five of the last 34 regular-season meetings in Texas ... 10 of the last 11 Sun Devil Stadium meetings have been decided by seven points or less.

Last Meeting

Dec. 8, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 23, Lions 20 (OT)

Arizona snapped its six-game losing streak with its fifth consecutive victory against Detroit on late clutch kicking by Bill Gramatica, whose three field goals cut Detroit's lead to 20–17 with 5:30 remaining in the fourth quarter (29 yards), tied the contest with 3:23 to play (41 yards), and won it with 10:48 to go in overtime (42 yards). Detroit jumped to a quick 7–0 lead when Eddie Drummond returned Scott Player's punt following Arizona's game-opening possession 73 yards for a touchdown. It was uphill for Arizona the rest of the way as Detroit later clung to leads of 14–7, 17–7, and 20–14 prior to Gramatica's dramatics. The Cards' two touchdowns were the result of short passes of one (Joel Makovicka) and 10 (Nathan Poole) yards in the first and second quarters, respectively. Makovicka's score was his third touchdown reception in four games; Poole's was the first of his career in his first NFL start. Following Gramatica's game-tying three-pointer, the Cardinal defenders stopped Detroit twice before overtime, forcing punts in four and six plays. In overtime, Arizona enjoyed the only overtime possession, driving 46 yards in seven plays, a march keyed by wide receiver Kevin Kasper's 23-yard reception from quarterback Jake Plummer two plays before Gramatica's game-winning boot. The Cardinals' defense, in addition to holding Detroit to only three second-half points, limited the Lions to 203 total yards, the lowest opponent total in 89 games (167 at Tampa Bay, Sept. 28, 1997). Detroit rushed just 15 times for only 51 yards. Arizona displayed a balanced offense, gaining 180 yards through the air and 133 on the ground for 313 total yards.

Series Notes

Two of the NFL's oldest rivals, the teams first met in 1934 when Detroit prevailed 6–0 ... Detroit leads the series 26–18–3, but prior to two 1993 encounters, the clubs had met just three times since 1960 ... in the most recent meetings, the Cards won a 17–15 thriller as Joe Nedney kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal with under three minutes remaining in 1998, while Arizona held on for a 23–19 decision in 1999 and 23–20 overtime win last year ... the series has been marked by streaks, primarily while the teams were members of the NFL's Western Division ... the Lions defeated the Cardinals nine consecutive times from 1935–39 and six straight times from 1942–45 ... the Cardinals produced a six-game winning streak from 1946–48 and won four of five meetings prior to the Lions' two-game sweep in 1993 ... the Cards have won the last four meetings (1995, '98, '99, '02) by margins of three, two, four, and three points.

Last Meeting

Sept. 24, 2000 • Sun Devil Stadium • Packers 29, Cardinals 3

The Cardinals suffered their most one-sided home-field loss in 21 Sun Devil Stadium outings (41–14 vs. Tennessee, Oct. 26, 1997), a 29–3 setback in Green Bay's first Arizona appearance since 1990. The Packers dominated the contest throughout, beginning with 80- and 85-yard touchdown drives on their second (Ahman Green 19-yard touchdown run) and third (Bill Schroeder 55-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Brett Favre) possessions, continuing with five Packer record-tying Ryan Longwell field goals, and ending with a stifling defensive effort that held the Cardinals to 209 total yards while intercepting Arizona quarterback Jake Plummer four times. Green Bay scored on seven of its 11 possessions. The Packers also enjoyed a 36:28–23:32 time-of-possession advantage that relegated Arizona to just five second-half possessions, including only one in the third quarter. Longwell's five three-pointers equaled Chris Jacke's single-game Packer record. Arizona's only points came on kicker Cary Blanchard's 31-yard second-quarter field goal, his sixth consecutive three-pointer as a Cardinal. The Cardinals never seriously threatened after Longwell closed Green Bay's first-half scoring with his first field goal with 2:06 to play before intermission, extending the Packers' lead to 17–3.

Series Notes

The Packers hold a 44–22–4 advantage in the Cardinals' second-oldest rivalry that dates to 1921 ... Green Bay figured in two Cardinal playoff appearances in 50 seasons, handing the St. Louis Cardinals a 41–16 loss in the 1982 Super Bowl Tournament ... the Cards also faced the Packers in the 1965 Playoff Bowl (a non-advancing postseason game), earning a 24–17 victory ... the series has been one of streaks ... the Cardinals claimed victory in four-, five-, and six-game winning skeins, while Green Bay authored victory streaks of 17, 5, and 4 (twice) games (1937–46) ... Green Bay has won the four most recent encounters, 26–17 in 1988, 24–21 in 1990, 49–24 in the 1999 season finale at Lambeau Field, and 29–3 in Sun Devil Stadium in 2000 ... the teams have met just twice during preseason play in the past 20 years ... the Packers won both contests by scores of 39–27 in St. Louis in 1983 and 29–21 last year in Sun Devil Stadium.

Last Meeting

Nov. 12, 2000 Metrodome Vikings 31, Cardinals 14

The Cardinals suffered their fourth consecutive lopsided setback at Minnesota, a 31–14 verdict that was decided when the Vikings tallied touchdowns on three of their first four second-half possessions to extend their narrow 10–7 halftime advantage to a comfortable 31–7 lead. After the teams traded first-quarter touchdowns, Arizona squandered an opportunity to take a 10–7 lead late in the second quarter when a high center snap turned into an 11-yard loss of holder Scott Player instead of a field-goal attempt. The powerful Minnesota offense amassed 460 total yards, including 302 yards passing and 29 first downs—all season highs against the Cardinals. Viking quarterback Daunte Culpepper enjoyed a banner day, completing 25 of 32 passes (.781) for 302 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed five times for 26 yards, including a three-yard touchdown. Vikings Cris Carter (11-119) and Randy Moss (7–104) became the first pair of opposing receivers to crack 100 yards receiving against Arizona since the Lions' Germane Crowell (5–142) and Johnny Morton (4–110) on Nov. 14, 1999, a span of 18 games. Arizona running back Michael Pittman accumulated 113 total yards—12 rushes for 50 yards and Arizona's lone offensive touchdown, a one-yard first-quarter leap, and eight career-best receptions for 63 yards. Speedy MarTay Jenkins accented the day's action with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, his first NFL six-pointer and the Cardinals' first kickoff return for a touchdown since Roy Green's NFL record-setting 106-yarder Oct. 21, 1979 at Dallas. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted a pass for the second consecutive game.

Series Notes

The Vikings lead the regular-season series 10–8 ... the Vikings have prevailed in the last five meetings, including the 1999 NFC Divisional playoff 41–21 win at the Metrodome ... another postseason encounter between the teams resulted in a 30–14 Viking win at Minnesota in the first round of 1974 playoff action in front of 44,626 fans at Metropolitan Stadium ... in regular-season play, the Cardinals are 4–3 at Minnesota but 0–3 in the Metrodome (34–7 in 1991, 41–17 in 1996, 31–14 in 2000) ... the Cards' 56 points in a 56–14 drubbing of the Vikings at Metropolitan Stadium in 1963 stands as the most points allowed by a Viking team.

Last Meeting

Nov. 30, 1997 Sun Devil Stadium Steelers 26, Cardinals 20 (OT)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute or overtime. Pittsburgh's relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for 142 yards on 36 carries, a Card opponent single-game season best, and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51. Pittsburgh's run game also led to a lopsided 39:22–26:12 time-of-possession advantage. The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal Pittsburgh's mark, limited Arizona to 48 rushing yards, and stopped the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts. Card rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's 12-for-17, 217-yard second half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20–20 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Joe Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining. Wide receiver Rob Moore padded his NFL-leading receiving yardage total to 1,348 yards with eight receptions for 188 yards. The Cardinal offense recorded its first multiple-touchdown effort in four games while the Arizona defense failed to record a turnover for the third consecutive week. Bettis notched his ninth 100-yard rushing effort of the season while Cardinal rushers failed to reach 100 rushing yards for the 25th straight game, the NFL high.

Series Notes

The Steelers lead the series dating to 1933 by a margin of 31–22–3 ... since 1972, the two teams have met just six times ... Pittsburgh won the first three contests by scores of 25–19 in 1972, 24–21 in 1979, and 23–10 in 1985 ... the Cardinals broke the streak with a 31–14 victory in 1988 and 20–17 overtime win in 1994, both at Sun Devil Stadium ... the Steelers were victors in the most recent match, a 26–20 overtime win at Sun Devil Stadium in 1997 ... from 1952–69, the teams met twice per season as members of the same conference (American 1952, Eastern 1954–66, Century Division 1967–69) until the AFL–NFL merger in 1970 when Pittsburgh was transferred to the American Conference.

Dec. 15, 2001 Edward Jones Dome Cardinals 28

The Rams withstood Arizona's 21-point second-half comeback with a five-play, 72-yard drive leading to Jeff Wilkins' game-winning 26-yard field goal with 20 seconds to play. The Cardinals overcame a 24–7 halftime deficit to take a 28–27 late lead with three touchdowns in a span of four possessions in the second half, beginning with running back Marcel Shipp's 80-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Jake Plummer on Arizona's second offensive play from scrimmage in the third quarter. It was the Cards' longest play from scrimmage in 223 games (93-yard touchdown pass, Neil Lomax to Ernie Jones, Dec. 10, 1988 vs. Philadelphia). Shipp, who tallied Arizona's only first-half touchdown on a five-yard run, added his third six-pointer on a one-yard rush later in the third quarter to become the first Cardinal to post three regular-season single-game touchdowns since Plummer rushed for three scores at Washington on Nov. 22, 1998. The pivotal stretch of the contest, however, occurred late in the second quarter when the Rams broke open a tight 10–7 sparring match with two touchdowns in 61 seconds to take their 24–7 halftime lead. The first was a 68-yard march, the second a 37-second, 32-yard, short-field drive that followed a recovered fumble caused on a strip of Plummer during a pass attempt. The Rams' first touchdown was a 78-yard punt return by Dre' Bly, marking the third consecutive outing Arizona allowed a punt-return touchdown, an NFL record. The Cards' go-ahead score with 7:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, a one-yard pass to tight end Steve Bush, was the sixth-year veteran's first NFL touchdown in his 60th game. Arizona outgained the potent St. Louis offense 378–366 total yards, including a decided 129–66 advantage in rushing yardage.

Series Notes

The Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams hold a 19–14–2 advantage in the series dating to 1946 when the teams were in the NFL's Western Division ... in the most recent meetings between the teams, the Cardinals earned a 20–17 decision in 1998 in their first regular-season appearance in St. Louis since departing for Arizona in 1988 ... in last year's first encounters as co-members of the NFC Western Division, the Rams swept the Cards by scores of 27–14 in Sun Devil Stadium and 30–28 at the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis ... prior to 2002, the Cards had won five of the past six encounters since 1991 ... the Rams handed the Cardinals a 35–23 defeat in a first-round playoff game on Dec. 27, 1975 at the L.A. Coliseum.

Scoring Last Meeting

Sept. 22, 2002 Sun Devil Stadium Chargers 23, Cardinals 15

Three Arizona turnovers and a blocked Cardinal punt turned into 23 unanswered San Diego points, leading the undefeated Chargers to a 23–15 victory in the Cards' home opener. The Cardinals tallied the first touchdown of the season against San Diego's stout defense in the first quarter when quarterback Jake Plummer hit speedy wide receiver MarTay Jenkins with a 65-yard touchdown pass, his career long. Then the turnovers began. Late in the first quarter, Charger defensive end Marcellus Wiley intercepted Plummer at Arizona's 46-yard line and returned the pickoff to the Cardinal six. LaDainian Tomlinson tied the game on a four-yard rush two plays later. Cardinal running back Thomas Jones fumbled at San Diego's 43-yard line on Arizona's next possession. The Chargers drove 62 yards in 10 plays for another Tomlinson touchdown, this one from two yards away. After a scoreless third quarter, the Chargers blocked a Scott Player punt deep in Cardinal territory that rolled out of the end zone for a safety. On Arizona's ensuing possession, Charger linebacker Donnie Edwards returned an interception of Plummer 20 yards for a touchdown. The Cardinals made it interesting with their final two possessions. Trailing 23–7 with 11:23 to play in the fourth quarter, Plummer capped the first drive with his second touchdown pass, a 31-yarder to running back Marcel Shipp, his first career score, plus a two-point conversion toss to wide receiver Frank Sanders. Then following defensive back Justin's Lucas' first career interception that gave the Cardinals a final opportunity, Plummer drove Arizona to San Diego's 10-yard line with 1:39 to play before tossing four incompletions that ended the threat and decided the outcome. Ex-Charger tight end Freddie Jones led Arizona with five receptions. Plummer bettered 15,000 career passing yards on his early touchdown toss to Jenkins. The game was played in 100-degree heat.

Series Notes

The Cards and Chargers have met 10 times during regular-season play dating to 1971 with San Diego holding a 7–3 advantage ... the Chargers won the first two meetings at Jack Murphy Stadium by scores of 20–17 in 1971 and 43–24 in 1976 ... after the Cards posted a 44–14 triumph in St. Louis in 1983, San Diego swept the next four encounters with a 28–24 home-field victory in 1987, victories of 24–13 in 1989 and 27–21 in 1992—both at Sun Devil Stadium—and a 28–25 win at San Diego in 1995 ... in the most recent meetings, the Cardinals' 16–13 win in the 1998 season finale propelled them into postseason play for the first time since 1982 (1975 in a non-strike season) with their first winning season in 14 years (9–7 in 1984) ... a dramatic 20–17 win in 2001 marked the Cards' first victory at San Diego in five tries ... last year the Chargers posted a 23–15 victory at Sun Devil Stadium.

Last Meeting

Dec. 21, 2002 ⏲ Sun Devil Ssstadium ⏲ 49ers 17, Cardinals 14

Offensive misfirings by both teams—two missed field-goal attempts by San Francisco, a missed field-goal attempt and a lost fumble at the 49ers' nine-yard line by Arizona—and two turnovers (one interception, one fumble) by each club kept the Cardinals' home finale in doubt throughout. The injury-depleted Cards, outfitted in all-red uniforms for the first time in their long history, turned to unheralded wide receiver Kevin Kasper for their two touchdowns, both passes from quarterback Jake Plummer, the first a four-yarder to tie the game at 7–7 in the second quarter, the second a six-yarder with 4:08 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut San Francisco's lead to 17–14. The well-traveled Kasper, claimed from Seattle four weeks earlier after starting the season in Denver, became the first 2002 Cardinal to notch two single-game touchdown receptions. The scores also made him the sixth Card to record his first career touchdown reception in 2002, joining tight end Steve Bush, running back Marcel Shipp, and wide receivers Arnold Jackson, Jason McAddley, and Nathan Poole. Leading 10–7 at intermission, the 49ers used a 37-yard return of the second-half kickoff followed by a 33-yard pass completion on their first play from scrimmage to reach Arizona's 14-yard line. Two plays later, ex-Cardinal running back Garrison Hearst tallied San Francisco's deciding touchdown on an eight-yard run. The two new NFC Western Division rivals then traded seven consecutive scoreless possessions before Kasper's second touchdown. San Francisco was able to run out the clock with eight straight plays, including seven rushes, on its ensuing possession. Safety Justin Lucas, making his third start of the season, had a hand in both 49er turnovers, recovering their fumble and deflecting the pass that cornerback Renaldo Hill caught for his second interception of the season, leading to Kasper's second touchdown seven plays later.

Series Notes

The 49ers hold a 14–9 advantage in the series that lists only 23 meetings since 1951 ... after the Cards evened the series at nine wins apiece with a 24–14 victory at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992, San Francisco regained the lead with a 28–14 win at Candlestick Park in 1993 ... the Cards' one-point win over the 49ers in 1988 was characterized by a come-from-behind effort after facing a 23–0 deficit in the second half ... the Cardinals are 4–6 at home against the 49ers and 2–3 in Arizona ... San Francisco swept the Cards last year—38–28 at 3Com Park and 17–14 in Sun Devil Stadium as the clubs met for the first year as members of the realigned NFC West Division ... Cards and 49ers met twice in 2002 for the first time in history.

Last Meeting

Nov. 10, 2002 ⏲ Sun Devil Stadium ⏲ Seahawks 27, Cardinals 6

Seattle scored on all five of its first-half possessions (three touchdowns, two field goals) to take a commanding 27–6 halftime lead, then held Arizona scoreless in the second half by forcing three red-zone turnovers. The lethal combination handed the Cardinals their third consecutive loss. The Cards threatened to crawl into contention in the second half, but lost fumbles at Seattle's one-, five-, and nine-yard lines in a span of four possessions to seal the outcome. In all, the Cards made five turnovers (three lost fumbles, two pass interceptions), its highest single-game total since the 2000 season finale at Washington. Without a takeaway, Arizona was minus five in giveaway/takeaway for the first time in 81 games (minus seven vs. Tennessee, Oct. 27, 1997). The Seahawks' 20-first down, 27-point first half was methodical without benefit of long plays. Seattle marched 55, 58, 68, 46, and 71 yards to its points in 42 plays, the longest three 20-yard gains. Arizona only answered with two (40, 27 yards) Bill Gramatica field goals, failing to score a touchdown for the second time in 2002, both in the last four outings. The Cards' defense allowed 406 total yards, the second 400-yard opponent total in as many weeks and the fourth in 2002. Rookie wide receiver Jason McAddley, making his first NFL start in his second pro appearance, shined with five receptions for 113 yards, including a long of 42 yards, to become the first Cardinal rookie with 100 receiving yards in 53 games (David Boston, 101 vs. N.Y. Giants, Oct. 10, 1999). The former Alabama speedster, inactive for the season's first seven contests, was pressed into service due to injuries to three members of Arizona's receiving corps—Boston, MarTay Jenkins, and Bryan Gilmore. Rookie wide receiver Jake Soliday caught one pass for 14 yards in his first NFL appearance. Rookie running back Damien Anderson returned kickoffs (six, 113 yards) for the first time as a pro.

Series Notes

Prior to the 2002 season when the clubs became the newest members of the NFC West Division as part of the league's realignment, the Cardinals had lost just once in six outings against Seattle, a 33–14 setback in the Kingdome in 1998 ... Card victories came by scores of 30–24 in 1976, 33–28 in 1983, 34–24 in 1989, and overtime triumphs of 30–27 in 1993 and 20–14 in 1995 ... last year, the teams split the season series as the Cardinals took a 24–13 win in the inaugural regular-season game in Seahawks Stadium; Seattle prevailed 27–6 in Sun Devil Stadium seven weeks later ... in preseason play, the Seahawks hold an 9–5 advantage.

New Cardinals Stadium

The new $355 million Cardinals stadium, scheduled to open in 2006 on a 165-acre site in west suburban Glendale, Arizona, the fastest-growing area in greater Phoenix, will be the first of its kind in the United States.

World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, has created a state-of-the-art stadium design featuring a retractable roof and field that is sure to become an Arizona landmark.

The stadium, to be owned and operated by the Arizona Tourism and Sports Authority, takes its basic form from a barrel cactus which results in dramatic vertical slots that contrast with smooth panels. Light will penetrate the fabric roof, allowing the stadium to have an open, airy feel even when the roof is closed.

The stadium's seating capacity will exceed 63,000 for Cardinals' games and is expandable to approximately 75,000 for mega-events like the Super Bowl.

The stadium, which also will be the new home of the Fiesta Bowl, will include 88 luxury suites.

The roof will be comprised of two large retractable panels to provide the utmost comfort for spectators, remaining closed and air conditioned during the hotter months, and taking advantage of the open air and Arizona's patented sunshine during cooler times of the year.

The unique rollout natural-grass playing field, which will rest on a moveable 12 million-pound tray (234 feet wide, 400 feet long), amounts to two acres of grass. The first retractable field in North America, it will be positioned inside and outside the stadium to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and a fixed 152,000 square-foot floor when the facility transitions into a multi-purpose venue for other events such as basketball, trade and consumer shows, conventions, concerts, motor sports, and rodeos.

The stadium will be aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons.

On-site parking will accommodate 14,000 cars. Off-site parking for 6,000 additional vehicles will be available at the adjacent National Hockey League arena and another 6,000 parking spots will be available within one mile of the site.

Ground was broken on the Cardinals' new stadium on April 12, 2003. Sun Devil Stadium

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "between the buttes."

Super Bowl XXX was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a unique setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 2001 again will be 73,014. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made since the Cardinals arrived in 1988.

The Cardinals will continue to call Sun Devil Stadium home through the 2005 season before moving into their new stadium in Glendale in 2006.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected seven years ago by Arizona State's six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

The playing field was named Frank Kush Field in 1996 to honor the legendary former Arizona State University head coach who also served as head coach of the NFL Indianapolis Colts from 1982–84.

Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's 1988 arrival in Arizona.

Training Facility

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second and third floors comprise the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions.

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

Cardinals Charities

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities supports programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona.

Cardinals Charities' grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from various qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Every effort is made to direct contributions where they can have the greatest impact while addressing the most critical needs.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed over $2,000,000 to over 200 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals and the National Football League.

Cardinals Charities Mission Statement

The Arizona Cardinals Charities Fund supports programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona.

General Guidelines for Beneficiaries

- ❑ Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- ❑ At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- ❑ Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organization may reapply each year.
- ❑ Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

Application Process

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Deadline for submission of application is August 1. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

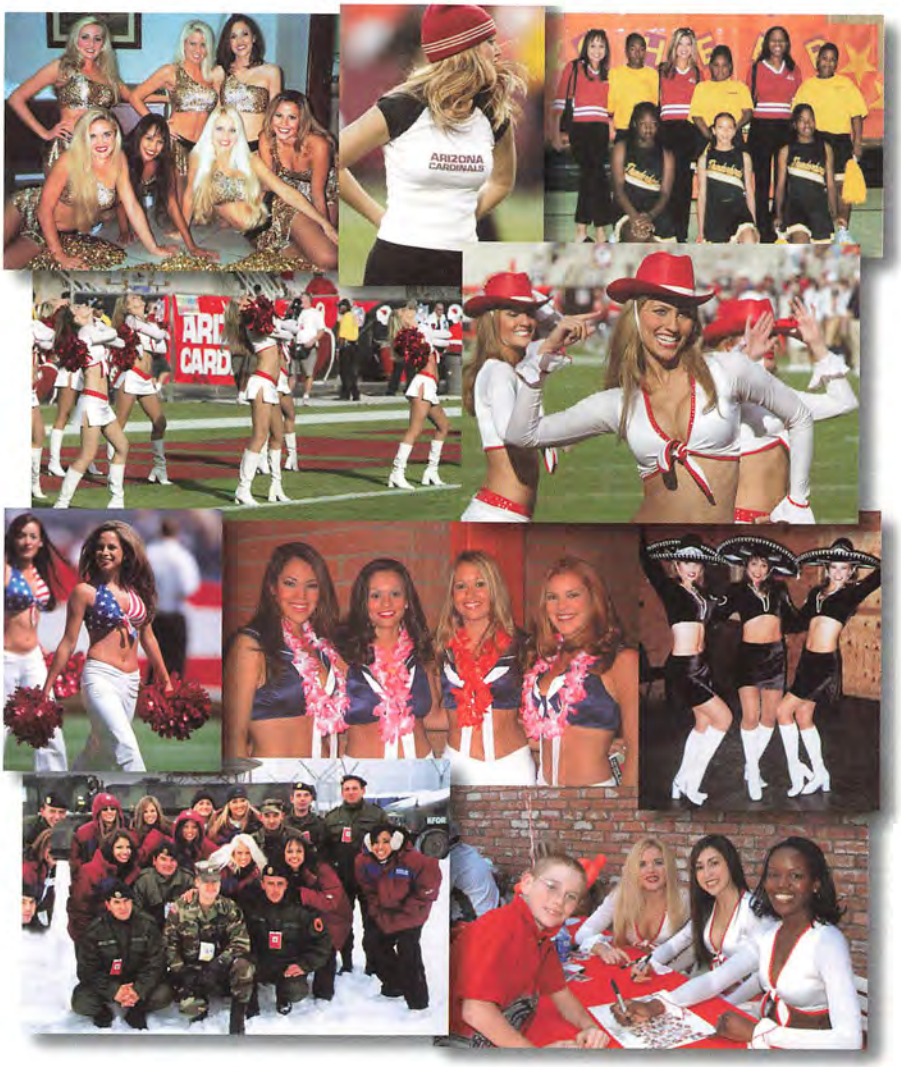
Cardinals Cheerleaders

Whether it's performing at all Arizona Cardinals' home games, community service involvement, appearances at other sporting and civic events, or just signing autographs, the Arizona Cardinals Cheerleaders are recognized throughout the country for their talent, exciting dance routings, and professionalism.

The cheerleaders have performed throughout the United States, Mexico, and Canada. At the invitation of the Pentagon, the cheerleaders also have entertained U.S. military troops in Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Bosnia, Egypt, Greenland, Kosovo, and Bahrain.

Through their talent, showmanship, enthusiasm, and dedication to their community and country, the cheerleaders have established themselves as an integral part of the Cardinals' organization.

The cheerleaders are available for community service events, civic events, meetings, conventions, or special occasions. Call the Cardinals (602/379–0101) for more information.



Cards In The Community

The Arizona Cardinals make community activities a year-round commitment.

Third-year Community Relations Director Luis Zendejas, the former NFL (Dallas and Philadelphia) and Arizona State kicker, directs the Cardinals' statewide efforts.

Zendejas has expanded the team's community programs to encompass the entire state of Arizona and include Cardinal players, coaches, wives, cheerleaders, mascot, and front-office personnel.

A 2003 edition of the The (Phoenix) Business Journal recognized the Cardinals for their proactive hands-on community efforts.

During the 2003 off-season, the Cardinals staged 117 kids' camps, 10 player kids' camps, 17 reading programs, 10 mathematics programs, 15 stay-in-school programs, two "To Play It Smart" programs at Glendale and Chandler high schools, and made 10 visits to children's hospitals.

The 12-month "Milk & Cookies Reading Program" that takes a Cardinal player to an elementary school to read to students on a weekly basis is an example of the team's education programs. Another is "Hometown Huddle," a program that teams the Cardinals with the Boys & Girls Clubs throughout the Valley of the Sun. Youngsters participate in a kids' camp while having the opportunity to interact with a group of Cardinal players and tour the team's training facility

The Cardinals' "High School Coach-of-the-Week" program recognizes the efforts of local coaches and school football programs throughout the fall. The school receives a monetary award from Cardinals Charities, the players receive t-shirts, and the program receives publicity for its excellence.

Another year-round program is the "Gatorade Junior Training Camps" that bring youngsters to recreational sites, including the Cardinals' south Tempe training facility, for instruction from players.

The first "Football Skills and Education Camp" brought 225 top high school football players from around Arizona to the Cards' training facility to learn from the professionals with on-field drills, classroom instruction, and recruiting tips.

Broad "Fan Fare" events expose large numbers of fans to the Cardinals in a variety of ways. Recent examples were the Draft Day Party in downtown Phoenix, the first open mini-camp practice at the Cards' training facility, and an open practice at Glendale High School. At all these events, fans are afforded the opportunity to interact and obtain autographs from players, coaches, and cheerleaders.

In 2003, the Cardinals are expanding "NFL Flag," the NFL's official youth flag football league for boys and girls 6–14 years of age. The league, launched in 1996, will grow to 3,000 participants in fall and spring leagues across Arizona.

Performance-based programs raise funds for worthy organizations. Last season, for example, linebacker Ronald McKinnon donated $10,000 to the Phoenix-based Ronald McDonald House based upon his statistical performance on the field.

Mascot Big Red has gained a loyal following since hatching his entertaining antics in 1998. He is seen at most team community events and makes a number of individual appearances. Examples just from the past year include "Gatorade Junior Training Camps," "Cardinals Kids' Clinics," "Read Across America," "Day of the Children" celebrations, "Milk & Cookies Reading Program," "Holiday Express," "Toy & Clothing Drive," "Monday Night Live," "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award ceremonies, "Literacy Festival," and numerous hospital visits.

The Cardinals Cheerleaders, like Big Red and often with the mascot, spend countless hours in the community signing autographs during local events and participating in others.

Wives of players and coaches also lend a hand in the community. Through the help of Cardinal wives, the Salvation Army was able to provide over 300 Thanksgiving food boxes last November from the annual canned food drive at Sun Devil Stadium prior to a home game. The wives also collected enough toys to provide over 11,000 children with gifts during the annual "Chicanos Por La Causa Christmas Toy Drive." Wives also joined their husbands to serve Thanksgiving dinner to the less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission and to deliver Christmas teddy bears to youngsters at Phoenix Children's Hospital.

The entire Cards' family participated in "Rebuilding Together" for the fifth consecutive year. Formerly known as "Christmas In April," the event is the largest volunteer repair and renovation program that targets low-income neighborhoods in the Phoenix area.

Players also invest time and effort into the community of their own volition. For example, legendary running back Emmitt Smith has established the "Open Doors Foundation" which services the underserved youth through education and sports. Cornerback Duane Starks began "Starks Charitable Foundation" to raise money for youth scholarships. Defensive tackle Wendell Bryant runs the "Wendell Bryant Foundation" which held its first "Basketball Extravaganza" to develop community organizations. Linebacker Levar Fisher, through the creation of "Fisher Of Men, Inc.," is building a shelter for the homeless in his native Beaufort, North Carolina

Community service never is out of season for the Cardinals.

JUNIOR

Bidwill Benevolence

The Arizona Cardinals' philanthropic efforts remain one of the team's most visible off-the-field undertakings.

Cardinals Charities has been supporting community needs in Arizona since its formation in 1990 by President William V. Bidwill. Less visible, yet far more expansive, is the Bidwill family's ongoing individual and collective efforts to improve the lives of others in a myriad of ways. Without fanfare, often bordering on total anonymity, the Bidwills continue to involve themselves personally in community needs both with financial support and volunteer efforts.

Examples of their community spirit follow.

Boys Hope/Girls Hope—As an original founder of Boys Hope/Girls Hope in St. Louis, President Bidwill has had untold positive impact on the lives of youth with promise living in unsuitable environments. Boys Hope/Girls Hope provides a structured home environment fostering healthy growth and learning. As long-time supporters, the Bidwills have donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to the program that has expanded internationally.

Phoenix Children's Hospital—Another Bidwill family calling is Phoenix Children's Hospital. Development contributions and volunteer involvement in hospital programs remain priorities.

Youth Sports In Arizona—The positive influence of youth sports has been a family priority in Arizona. Those efforts were recognized recently when Cardinals' Vice President and General Counsel Michael Bidwill was honored with the 2003 Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity. Bidwill was recognized for his support of youth sports in Arizona.

St. Peter Indian Mission School, Gila River Indian Community—The Bidwills' support of "Sister Martha's" elementary school south of the Phoenix metropolitan area has been an ongoing focus of the Bidwills' benevolence for over 10 years. A new roof for the school is just one example of the support the youth of the Gila River Indian Community have received.

United Way—Like the National Football League, the Bidwills have been staunch supporters of United Way of America, the nation's leading community solutions provider. It invests in the programs and services that strengthen the ability of local United Ways to identify and build a coalition around a set of community priorities and measure success based on community impact.

Communities In Schools Of Arizona (CISA)—Founded in 1994, CISA is affiliated with the Communities In Schools national program. Its mission is to mobilize and connect community resources with schools. CISA partners with schools with 85 percent or more of their students at or below the federal poverty level. Acting as resource brokers, CISA uses a coordinated network of partner agencies to bring resources such as food, clothing, and health services to help students more effectively learn, stay in school, and successfully prepare for life.

St. Michael's Indian School, Navajo Indian Reservation—The oldest Catholic school on a reservation, the St. Michael's Indian School in northern Arizona has kept its high school football program alive in part through the generous support of the Bidwill family.

Life Teen—Life Teen, Inc. is an international ministry that serves the Catholic Church and provides teenagers resources and training that encourage growth in their faith. It was founded by "Father Dale" Fushek, pastor of St. Timothy's Catholic Community in Mesa, Arizona that houses the Life Teen world headquarters.

Nicole Bidwill currently serves as chairman of Life Teen Camp.

Make A Difference—Make A Difference is a non-profit organization that meets critical community needs by making volunteer opportunities available to busy professional people in the Phoenix metropolitan area.

Step Up For Youth—The campaign to raise $1.16 million to double the size of the Glendale/Peoria (Arizona) YMCA's facilities and add new programs and services is being chaired by Michael Bidwill.

Youth Soccer—Financial support, league development, and volunteer coaching of youth soccer has been a family interest since the arrival of grandchildren.

Georgetown Prep—The college preparatory high school in suburban Washington, D.C. has remained an apple of William V. Bidwill's eye since his graduation. He has maintained a level of financial support and assisted in the school's building program for many years.

Georgetown University Law Center also has benefited from Bidwill support.

Committees/Boards—Members of the Bidwill families have and continue to sit on a variety of organizational boards of trustees, including NFL Charities, Arizona Chamber of Commerce, East Valley Partnership, Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, Notre Dame Academy (north Scottsdale), Heard Museum, Museum of Northern Arizona, Southwest Human Development, FBI Citizens Academy, Life Teen, and Catholic University.

Fund-Raising—Family members participate in countless fund-raising committees, organizing dinners, festivals, camps, telethons, capital campaigns, and building projects for an array of organizatons.

The Bidwill family encourages everyone to participate in their community for the common good of all.

Cardinal Broadcasting

Cardinal broadcasting for 2003 again includes KDUS Radio (1060 AM)/KSLX Radio (100.7 FM) and ABC 15 (KNXV-TV, channel 15), and adds new partner AZ-TV (channel 27 over the air, cable channel 13).

Play-By-Play Broadcast Teams

Dave Pasch/John Mistler—Pasch and Mistler begin their second season together in the Cardinals' preseason television booth before returning to their familiar role as the team's radio voices for the regular season.

The role is a familiar one for both. Pasch joined current CBS-TV NFL broadcaster Steve Tasker to describe preseason television for the Buffalo Bills in 2001. Mistler offered commentary on Cardinal preseason games in the late-1990s.

Pasch joined the Cardinals last season after calling Syracuse University football and basketball for three years. He spent part of the past offseason offering play-by-play description of NFL Europe games for the second consecutive year. This season he was paired with New York Giants kick returner Brian Mitchell for two Fox Sports telecasts.

Mistler, the former NFL (N.Y. Giants) and college (Arizona State) wide receiver, returns for his 11th year as Arizona's color analyst.

Kent Derdivanis/Doug Plank—Veteran play-by-play broadcaster Kent Derdivanis, past voice of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Red Sox and current broadcaster for Northern Arizona University football and men's basketball and Arizona Rattlers Arena League football, joins the Cardinals to describe preseason action on the radio while Pasch concentrates on preseason television.

Dave Pasch

John Mistler

He will pair with former Chicago Bear safety Doug Plank, who also returns for pre-game analysis on the Cardinals Radio Network.

Gabriel Trujillo/Luis Zendejas—Trujillo (play-by-play) and Zendejas (color commentary), the former Arizona State and NFL kicker who also serves as the Cardinals' director of community relations, return to describe all Arizona games in Spanish on KUSN (Radio Fiesta, 1400 AM).

Sideline Reporters

Mike Jurecki/Jody Jackson—KDUS Radio weekday talk-show host and "Cardinal Insider" Mike Jurecki returns to offer sideline commentary on the Cardinals Radio Network.

Fox Sports Network reporter Jody Jackson will provide the same on preseason telecasts.

Game-Day Radio Programming

KDUS (1060 AM), a.k.a. "The Deuce," and KSLX (100.7 FM) will serve as the Cardinals' radio flagships for all Cardinal games for the sixth consecutive season.

"The Pre-Game Huddle" begins two hours prior to kickoff. It is hosted by KNXV-TV sports director Craig Fouhy who will be joined by four analysts—Plank, who spends his off-seasons as defensive coordinator for the Rattlers, ex-Cardinal, Ram, and Charger linebacker Eric Hill, former Raider, Cardinal, and Patriot center Bill Lewis, and KUPD Radio (97.9 FM) personality John Holmberg. Jurecki also will be included in discussions from the sideline.

The show features a complete breakdown of upcoming game, opponent previews, player profiles, NFL scoreboards, and live interviews with former Cardinal and NFL greats.

"Cardinals Talk," a post-game call-in show, will be hosted by former NFL quarterback Dan Manucci. He will be joined by Hill for analysis.

Radio Network

All Cardinals' games will be heard over a 17-station regional network, anchored by KDUS-AM and KSLX-FM.

The 15 stations comprising the remainder of the network follow.

- Flagstaff (KWMX, 96.7 FM)
- Holbrook (KDJI,1270 AM/KZUA. 92.1 FM)

Weekday Radio

Two regular weekday radio shows will be aired on KDUS.

The "Dave McGinnis Show" features the Cardinals' head coach for 30 minutes each Thursday at 7 a.m. after training camp. The show gives fans a chance to interact via phone or e-mail (askcoachmac@cardinals.nfl.com).

"The Big Red Rage," a live team show that includes interaction between fans and players, also previews the upcoming game. During the regular season, the "Rage" airs Fridays from 6–7 p.m. in front of a live audience at Jilly's American Grill at

Doug Plank

at Jilly's American Grill at 54th Street and Ray Road in Chandler.

Both shows will be hosted by Pasch.

Preseason Television

AZ-TV, formerly KUSK-TV, has been broadcasting live sports for over 20 years. It will air the Cardinals' four preseason games in prime time for the first time.

The two road games—Saturday, August 16 at San Diego, Thursday, August 28 at Minnesota—will air live. The two home contests—Saturday, August 9 vs. Dallas, Friday, August 22 vs. Chicago—will air via tape delay at 7 p.m. the following days.

The preseason games also will be seen in Tucson (KMSB-TV, FOX, channel 11/KTTU-TV, UPN, channel 18) and Las Vegas (KFBT-TV, channel 33). The latter gives the Cardinals four-game preseason television exposure in the Las Vegas market for the first time.

AZ-TV, the Cardinals' new preseason television partner, currently has a large inventory of sports telecasts, including University of Arizona football, men's basketball, and softball, Arizona State University men's and women's basketball, softball, baseball, and volleyball, Northern Arizona University football and men's basketball, Mountain West Conference football and men's basketball, Big 12 Conference men's basketball, and Phoenix Mercury basketball.

AZ-TV is seen over the air on channel 27. It also is carried by over 40 cable television systems, mostly on channels 13 and 7.

Ancillary Cardinal TV Programming

"Maximum Cardinals By Alltel," the team's 30-minute magazine-style show, will air on AZ-TV on Saturday's from 6:30-7:00 p.m. and on KNXV-TV (ABC, channel 15, Phoenix) each Saturday at 11:30 p.m.

Jackson returns to host "Maximum Cardinals By Alltel." She will be joined for segments with Pasch and Plank.

KNXV's new 30-minute Sunday night (10:30 p.m.) sports show titled "The Game" will include weekly Cardinal-branded segments throughout the football season. Fouhy is the show's host.

Spanish Radio

KSUN Radio (Radio Fiesta) will be the new home for Spanish-language broadcasts of all Cardinal games.

The Cards became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games—preseason and regular season, home and road—in Spanish in 2000.

The broadcast team of play-by-play voice Trujillo (play-by-play) and color commentator Zendejas remains intact.

Trujillo and Zendejas also will co-host the first weekday Cardinal Spanish-language radio show. The show will air in front of a live audience from 6–7 p.m. each Friday during the football season from the El Capri Night Club in Phoenix.

Training Camp

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations, and the excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) for the team's preseason training camp.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. (On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.)

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the United States. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as a unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 14,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules and a venue for their annual intrasquad scrimmage.

The Cardinals situate at the south end of the N.A.U. campus, utilizing the school's dormitories, dining halls, and classroom buildings for their daily regimen.
